November 23, 2015

Dear Honorable Governor of South Carolina Nikki R. Haley,

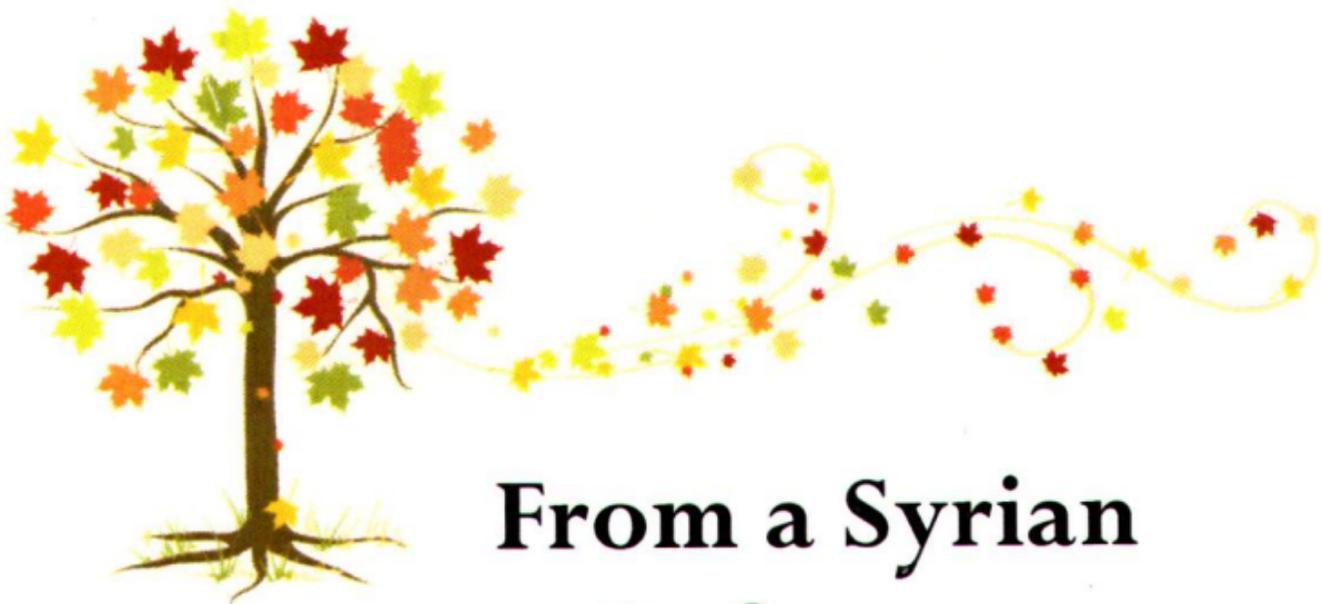

My name is Mohammed Idlibi, and I entered the United States on asylum as a refugee in 1982. As a Syrian refugee, I find your recent statements and stance on Syrian refugees shameful, and counterproductive in advancing a better world in general, and a better America in specific. America is the land of the free, and ALL of us, yes, including yourselves came to this land seeking refuge, and a better life. Please consider the fiduciary responsibility you have been elected to perform.

America can differentiate itself from Europe in many ways, including assimilating immigrants. As for myself, I started a business. We have a tradition during Thanksgiving to give each and every one of our staff a turkey.

We are all very thankful for your service to our nation, and we salute you. As a thank you on behalf of all the Syrian refugees in this beautiful country, we will mail you a full turkey (redeemable certificate) to enjoy with your families.

Happy Thanksgiving!
