Lt. Governor Kevin Bryant will be Keynote Speaker at Domestic Abuse and Opioid Addiction Seminar

COLUMBIA, S.C. -- Lt. Governor Kevin Bryant will be the keynote speaker at the South Carolina Medical Association's (SCMA) Domestic Abuse and Opioid Addiction Seminar. He will be addressing the impact healthcare providers can have on the fight against opioid addiction and what our state is doing to identify and change the culture. This event will take place at The River Center at Saluda Shoals beginning at 8:30 a.m. Friday, Feb. 2.

Who: Lt. Governor Kevin Bryant, Keynote Speaker
What: SCMA's Domestic Abuse and Opioid Addiction Seminar
When: Friday, Feb. 2, 2018 from 8:30 - 9:00 am ET
Where: The River Center at Saluda Shoals
5605 Bush River Rd. Columbia, SC 29212

*Members of the media are invited to attend.

Lieutenant Governor Bryant is from Anderson County, where he is a registered pharmacist and manages, with his brothers and father, Bryant Pharmacy & Supply. As a registered pharmacist, Bryant sees, first-hand, the devastating effects opioid addiction is having on our communities.

As South Carolina's 92nd Lieutenant Governor, he is committed to continuing this fight against the opioid crisis and believes the healthcare industry must lead the way in defeating opioid addiction.
