ON BACKGROUND: The meeting had already been re-scheduled after Senator Leatherman didn't show up earlier this month. Since the meeting dealt with pension reform, it was critical that Sen. Leatherman, as finance chairman, be involved. The governor did not know he was leaving or the meeting would have been re-scheduled again.

Quote from Haley press secretary Chaney Adams: "There is nothing more important to our public servants of this state than pension reform. By leaving, Senator Leatherman once again showed the danger and arrogance of the 'old guard.'"
