

Commercial Customers FINANCING WITH DEFERRED PAYMENTS

Verizon Credit – Your Financial Connection

Whether you prefer ownership or asset flexibility, Verizon Credit offers the financing structures that support your business.

Verizon Credit, a unit of Verizon Capital Group, is dedicated to providing competitive financial solutions that support the provisioning of world-class communications solutions. For more than 30 years, Verizon Credit has delivered proven, secure and stable financial services that give companies the power to use technology to help develop their businesses.

No matter how many times you go over the numbers, there are still gaps in the budget.

Verizon has the state-of-the-art, green technology that can assist your business to improve financial performance and manage cash flow. Verizon can help structure a solution that may offer you a positive return on investment through increased productivity and reduced expense. Verizon Credit offers flexible financing alternatives to fund Verizon solutions and we will work with you to structure financing terms that assist you to manage expense and achieve your strategic business objectives.

Verizon Credit can help you span budget gaps:

- Defer your first payment for up to 90 days to accomplish more with limited budget impact.
- Offer payment options to match expected budget allocation or revenue cycles.
- Finance up to 100% of all equipment, software, construction costs and prepaid services.
- Provide flexible financing to take advantage of applicable tax benefits.
- Master contracts make it easy to add future financings.

Retain Your Valuable Capital!

When you finance your Verizon solution, you retain valuable capital to maintain liquidity and meet other critical business needs. Verizon Credit's competitive rates and expansive financing terms effectively help companies leverage technology.

By selecting Verizon and Verizon Credit, you have the stability and reliability of a Fortune 20 Company behind both your communications and your financial solution.

Please contact us to discover how Verizon Credit can help your company grow. E-mail us at vcihq@verizon.com

The above information is not intended to provide legal, tax or accounting advice. Please confer with your accounting or tax professional to learn more about how financing can benefit your organization.

Verizon Credit provides comprehensive, forward-thinking financial solutions that give companies the power to use technology to help develop their business.

verizon.com/credit