Much of what's in here probably isn't news to you, but I thought I'd pass it along in case it's of interest. Erica Brown has been on loan to us for the past year, thanks to Harvard, the Rockefeller Foundation, and others. She's been managing the pay-for-success projects at HHS. Thanks.

Christian / Josh:

I had an interesting conversation today with some people from America Forward on provisions for Pay-for-Success in the new Workforce Innovation & Opportunity Act (formerly WIA). I'm not very familiar with WIOA or workforce development policy in general but this seems to be a different opportunity for states to leverage federal participation in PFS. Just figured I'd pass along in case either of you are interested.
