BACKGROUND: The Governor will address Lugoff-Elgin Middle School to discuss bullying. The school has a known bullying problem. Approximately 650 students will attend – grades 6, 7, and 8.

BULLYING ISSUE:

Mrs. Pamela Bennett contacted the Governor's Office on March 26, 2015 re her son being bullied at Lugoff-Elgin Middle School. She expressed concerns about the lack of action from the principal and other school administrators, and the lack of enforcement of a "no tolerance" bullying policy. Beth followed up with Mrs. Bennett via phone, and she asked that Governor Haley come visit the school. Mrs. Bennett has an active anti-bullying Facebook page and started a change.org petition asking for others to join in voicing complaints over how bullying is being handled at Lugoff-Elgin. The petition has over 260 signatures at this point.

When Beth followed up with Mrs. Bennett, she learned Mrs. Bennett had transferred her children to Stover Middle School. She reports the children are now all doing well.

Note: When Mrs. Bennett's husband, Troy Bennett, went to the school to complain about the treatment his child was receiving, he was served with a no trespass notice, as the School Resource Officer reported him as being belligerent. Mrs. Bennett will be in attendance during the Governor's visit on Friday and has expressed an interest in meeting the Governor, but Mr. Bennett is not permitted to attend.
