The Work of the African-American CCC
at Aiken State Park

Saturday, March 23 @ 2:00 p.m.

Program is free with admission to the park ($2/Adults,
$1.50/SC seniors, Free for 15 & under)

Includes sit-down presentation and walking tour. Meet at park office.

Throughout the 1930's more than 16 state parks were constructed by the Civilian Conservation Corps (CCC) throughout South Carolina. Aiken State Park was one of the only parks constructed by an African-American detachment of the CCC. This program will explore Aiken State Park's beginnings and talk about the ways in which the site is working to interpret its African-American legacy.

For more information contact Aiken State Park at 803-649-2857 or aiken@scprt.com. Visit www.southcarolinaparks.com/aiken.
