Quote from Rob Godfrey, Haley spokesman:

"We have long pushed for the removal of CON and the House just confirmed they agree it is time to change the statute and permanently rid our state of this political obstacle to quality of care."

The governor's veto message on this one (#20) is a little vague. Is she against the Certificate of Need program entirely, or just the $1.7 million allocated to it in the 13-14 budget? I've also reached out to DHEC to see if it plans to get rid of the program, or fund it in different ways.
