

From: Marion Edmonds <medmonds@scprt.com>
To:
Date: 8/12/2016 1:47:33 PM
Subject: Daily Press Clippings: Friday, August 12, 2016

Daily Press Clippings: Friday, August 12, 2016

Could Elk be migrating into Caesars Head and Jones Gap State Parks

<http://www.greenvilleonline.com/story/sports/2016/08/11/upstate-outdoors-could-elk-migrating-south-carolina/88566782/>

Austin Sheheen Sr. Nature Area dedicated across Lake Wateree from the state park

<http://www.chronicle-independent.com/section/41/article/45555/>

Biking or driving on Hilton Head: here are 5 SC bike laws you need to know

<http://www.islandpacket.com/news/local/traffic/article95294277.html>

One woman tourism and preservation force in Kershaw County, Alice Boykin dies at 88

<http://www.chronicle-independent.com/section/83/article/45567/>

Black Bear Golf Club closes as it looks for a buyer

Myrtle Beach Sun News

USC 'optimistic' of year-end groundbreaking for new $50 million football practice facility

Post and Courier

It's been a month since Pawleys Island started enforcing its leash law.

SouthStrandNews.com

The Shriners will hold their summer ceremonial parade in downtown Orangeburg at 10 a.m. Saturday

Orangeburg Times and Democrat

FBI data shows thousands of people who attempt to purchase guns did not get background checks done in time, allowing them to purchase a gun illegally

Greenville News

Federal suit challenges school discipline law

Greenville News ; Post and Courier

Up to 170 Westinghouse nuclear fuel plant workers are being temporarily laid off as investigators try to determine why an 'excessive' amount of radioactive material built up inside the Columbia plant

The State

Air pollution linked to Upstate deaths

Greenville News

Marion Edmonds

medmonds@scprt.com