I was told by Natalie Oliver that she has forwarded the itinerary, but my email works only sporadically, so I haven't seen it. Please make sure that Ann is fully apprised of when and where she'll need to be (this certainly would have been easier if RLGA had informed us earlier). Do you have the information to talk to her today and let her plan for what she'll need? The only thing I'm sure of is that she'll go to the golf course with him to ride in a cart and greet the guests. I hope that what they've sent allows you to plan. Please let me know if it does not.

Thanks
