Sean,
Sorry that I have not been in touch. I have been in Washington and Atlanta with REAL ID meetings for SCDMV and have not been able to pick up my e-mails. I will not be able to make it today, but I have spoken with Chad. I will try to also give you a call.

Please feel free to proceed. I think it's great that you have set up interviews. Would it be possible for us to get together by phone? We could share info, and I can provide you with some feedback from other agencies. We could then decide the next steps.

Again, thanks for jumping in there. Things just started moving with the REAL ID legislation last week and this week, but I think I have things under control now. Look forward to talking with you.

Hey Marcia,

I noticed you were copied on the emails, but I wanted to check in and see if you could attend on Thursday.

Please let me know your thoughts.
