<SUBJECT>Removal of the Confederate Flag</SUBJECT>

<MSG>

My deepest condolences for the members of the church in Charleston as that event was so tragic, but disappointment is directed at you for the removal of a piece of history because of some person that chose his evil actions. That boy that chose to take life what he thought was morally just does not represent the rest of us from the south. I was impressed you on Glenn Beck in the wake of this tragic event and thought how great it was of your handling situation, but then you go and remove the flag. It is evident that politics played a role in your decision, your lack of backbone. Those people in Charleston are incredibly strong and disciplined people that should learn from and respect, but for you to make such a decision is troubling and disappointing. This makes me further question the leadership of this once great country. And no, I'm not a bigot but south and proud of it. Southern heritage is so much more than what the liberal media depict it to be was the Union that began the slave trade in America!!!

<SUBJECT>Please take the confederate battle flag down from the State House grounds</SUBJECT>
<MSG>

I was born in Anderson, SC and lived in Seneca, SC until I was 18 years old. My BS degree is from University - all things I can well be proud of to this day. However, having the confederate battle flag waving on the State House grounds is an embarrassment to me and anyone who is from SC and engage someone from another state in an intelligent and considerate discussion regarding this issue. It has outlived its usefulness, and, at this point, will only continue to instigate division among the population. I could also mention that it is just one more reason why our state is disregarded when important national events arise. It makes us look like we are ignorant people still holding some kind of grudge, as opposed to thoughtful people who genuinely care about community and our population as a whole. (I use "our" because I am from SC, and I would like to see the rest of the nation respect the state.) I am proud of Emanuel African Methodist Episcopal Church has handled the shooting tragedy and that there is a path toward unity. I think it is a time for unity, support and compassion. Not a time for a symbol that so easily associate with hate.

Respectfully,

Kimberly [REDACTED]

A v flag down will let the race baiters win, and the flag is not about race. There were many black soldie the South for their beliefs of their own volition. If we buckle to every demand of haters, where will The compromise was made, and both sides should abide by it. That flag located on the state ground shoot anyone. <MSG>

The Martin side of my family came for South Carolina and my dad's are all southerners. I am mad . the removal of the Confederate Flag for it is a symbol of freedom to worship the Lord Jesus Christ. means a rejection of Jesus Christ as the Savior who suffered on the cross for the sins of mankind ar evil.

It is also saying damn to us who served in the military to protect the freedom of Americans.

The flag as a issue is to give into Satanic doctrine of getting the issue of the real problem man's old and its production. "All have sinned, and come short of the glory of God" Romans 3:23.

The strife between men of all races is man sin nature: "For we ourselves also were sometimes fooli disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and ha another." Titus 3:3.

I hate what is going on as a result of the shooting. "Be angry and do not sin" Ephesians 4:26.

The fear of the LORD is to hate evil: pride, and arrogance, and the evil way, and the forward mouth Proverbs 8:13.

The governor is giving into this evil and as a result of giving into this evil she comes under the judg because she is distracting other from the real issue the old sin nature and giving in to Satan's decept

God says the best we can do are "like one who is unclean, all our so-called righteous acts are like s menstrual rag in your sight." Isaiah 64:6.

Tell her if she rejects Jesus Christ she will be spending eternity in total darkness, with crawling worms and maximum heat in the lake of fire.

He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; his wrath [lake of fire] of God abideth on him. John 3:35

Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved. Acts 16:31

Gov. Haley. May God bless you and give you insight into how to deal with the terrible shooting incident that has focused the attention of the nation on your state. Thank you for your time and effort. God rest the souls of the fallen. May God's love comfort you ALL. Respectfully submitted Dan [REDACTED]

We have enjoyed vacationing in SC, both in Charleston and Hilton Head. We have decided to boycott the Confederate flag is removed from state property. While we understand that for some it is a matter of religion, to us it represents racism and is repugnant. What individuals do is protected under the first amendment. What the government does is a political decision. Our money votes for change and with the people of Motherland.

Please support the initiative to remove the Confederate flag from the capitol grounds and display it Confederate museum. SC is no longer that Southern agricultural state. Rather it is a vigorous economy employing personnel of multi-national origin. Too us the flag represents a division, bigotry and hate. Lower it so that we may heal the recent wounds caused by the assassination of AME members.

I saw on the news that leftwingers are demanding the confederate flag be removed because a white people in a church. I recommend that the removal of the confederate flag day and mlk day and the neutral location be contained in a state bill for the house and senate to vote on as a one bill. and not apart as leftwingers would be demanding. To vote the whole bill glued together as an up or down v pro-flag and pro mlk and the nonpro flag and nonmlk supporters have the same chance to get "justi a good clean airing of the ethic issues. I don't see the connection between the flag and what that idiot did to those people in that church. ye terrible what he did ,not the flag. The flag is part of history whether right or wrong that was the pas the way things were then. By removing the flag all those that died for the flag will now be disgrace dishonored. You can not change history but you can effect the future. The flag is at the confederate where it belongs. PEOPLE NEED TO GET OVER WHAT HAPPENED IN THE PAST AND WO MAKING THE FUTURE BETTER. Government needs to quit being so PC about everything that l appease a small minority of people. The flag did not walk in that church and kill those people but s and since he was white the flag needs to come down is ridiculous.

QUIT BEING SUCH AN APEASER AND TAKE CARE OF MORE IMPORTANT THINGS ON AGENDA FOR YOUR STATE.

Dear Ms Haley:

I fail to see what the act committed by Dylan Roof has to do with the Confederate battle flag on that Many in the South including your state honor that flag and the men who fought and died under it. I take down old symbols for the sole purpose of demonstrating their power over us. It is often said to inevitable. I reject that entirely. The flag is a part of history, and is at a war memorial where it should already been removed from the dome to appease those who cannot be appeased. When they get rid of Confederate symbols, they will attack American (U.S.) symbols and they will not be happy until they are sickle, or worse, the flag of ISIS flies over America. Because that's what they are. Marxists to the contrary investigation. You will find that the biggest trouble makers are probably bussed in, paid for by billi makers like George Soros, they all should be arrested for his subversive activities. These jerks should be up to, not appeased. Don't take down that flag.

Governor, you've been had.

Obama and the Feds have long been staging false flag operations in order to get America's guns. O they can run all over us. [<https://www.intellihub.com/false-flag-charleston-shooting-happened-duri-active-shooter-drill/>]

And as for black-white race relations, blacks all over America have long been engaged in what is c Knockout Game, reported by Colin Flaherty. In it, they sucker punch a white passerby, often cripp them. How convenient that none of you are reporting this.

As someone who has been repeatedly threatened and assaulted by blacks, without cause, I am deep by your actions, which amount to cowardice.

When they assault you, it will be a different story.

<MSG>

I do not agree with your and several other elected officials calling for removal of the Confederate b from the state house grounds. But for goodness sake, please move the monument and flag off the fi and into the cool trees off to the side where it should have gone 15 years ago. Dragging the flag iss shocking Charleston church murders is only going to cause more hard feelings and heated argumer the murderous young killer trick us into getting his stated objective. Our churches have a cross disg them, and the racist KKK would burn it to frighten minorities--but their inappropriate use of the cr make us take it down. We are smart enough to know the difference. Best wishes through these harc hold your head up high; real South Carolinians have no reason to be ashamed.

Dear Governor Haley:

I have no qualms about you taking down the confederate flag but I hate the decision to do it as a result of a terrible tragedy that happened at the AME church.

A young man's decision to kill innocent, decent, God loving people had absoluteley nothing to do with the confederate flag. His depravity had everything to do with his decision.

Choosing to make a grandiose gesture that now is the time to remove the confederate flag does not lend credence to race baiting marxists who take every opportunity to portray white people as the devil. The confederate flag had nothing to do with this situation and the instant desperation to remove it is ignorant. I know it is not only you. Everyone has jumped on the band wagon. Let's remove the confederate flag. We are not racists. We don't have to prove it. I am not responsible for what people did 100 or more years ago. Had nothing to do with it. Have black people in my family and love it. But I refuse to have white people glorify something that one lone evil racist white boy did.

Stand up for your state. Stand for the people. Don't let the hucksters come in and make this about a race. We are not racists. We are not.

Thank you.

Honorable Nikki Haley,

Dear Governor Haley,

Many people in Colorado want to thank you for leading the effort to take down the Confederate flag buildings. We appreciate your courage and leadership in standing up to the long-standing affront to American people as well as citizens from the North of all colors. We know that there are many caring and abiding citizens of the South Carolina and other southern states, who want to say "NO" to racial pride and intimidation, and we support your brave decision to end state continuation of the flag symbol as a sign of the white supremacy. We hope other states will follow your lead.

<SUBJECT>The Confederate Flag</SUBJECT>

<MSG>

TO: The Honorable Nikki Haley

RE: The Confederate Flag

Wow, here we go again! Some of the U.S. Presidents were slave masters. Should we remove their statues from history books or from The U.S. State Capitol? Should we recognize U.S. Soldiers who fought in the Vietnam War? Should we return the land of this great nation to the Indians? Just as Germany and cannot erase parts of their painful history so can't the United States. We cannot re-write history, but we can learn from our past. If we really want to prevent the next Civil War, it is imperative that we find a way to move forward and work people from both sides of this racial debate and flag controversy.

This is a defining moment for the State of South Carolina. You cannot wipe out more than two hundred years of history overnight; yet, you must find a way to unite the people across the state. Hence, for South Carolina to move forward, a sincere effort must be made to listen and work with all people; otherwise, you will only increase more tension and deepen the divide in the state and across the country. It is just as dangerous to misrepresent facts of racial injustice as it is ignore racist acts. Also, it will take more than 'moving the flag' to resolve racial problems in this country, but discussing this flag controversy and the racial tension is a good start. After all memorial services are held, I suggest that the state appoint a commission to meet with representatives across the state from both sides of the Flag Controversy for their opinions and recommendations. The people in South Carolina or their representatives should vote on this matter. Whatever happens, it is up to the people of South Carolina who should make the FINAL decision and find a way to move forward.

In 1963, Dr. Martin Luther King stated "Now is the time to make real the promises of Democracy. All men are created equal, that they are endowed by their creator with certain unalienable rights." Racial EVERY White Person is not a bigot or racist. Albeit, Racism, Ethnocentrism, Stereotyping, Revenge, Hatred are all dangerous and unproductive, regardless if the person is African American, Asian, Hispanic, Black or White.

For many reasons, I do find the Confederate Flag flying on the TOP of the State Capitol to be very disrespectful. Nevertheless, we cannot and should not try rewrite any parts of our nation's history. So I can understand some people would want the confederate flag displayed at the state capitol. Likewise, I can also understand some who are deeply offended by the sight of the Confederate Flag. We should be using this opportunity to educate our children and grandchildren; otherwise, like Dylan Roof, they will only hear one side of the story. It is the responsibility of our leaders to accurately tell both sides of this story, not run from it. So, instead of hiding our past, we should use our history to become stronger and better people. Instead of hiding our past, we should face the problem.

For South Carolina and America to move forward, both sides must be willing to consider the other side, and make some sacrifices. The challenge for all of us will be to reject revenge, aggression, and hatred. However, if we are truly sincere about forgiving people, we must do this.

The South Lost the Civil War. So I definitely think the Confederate Flag should not be displayed on the State Capitol, but I can see the flag displayed in some area on the state capitol ground or somewhere near the state capitol.

Finally, Dr. Martin Luther King was about justice and reconciliation, not revenge and retaliation. He reminded us that we must move beyond the hate and anger if we are to move forward; that we must not come from a cup of bitterness; that in our struggle for our rightful place, we must not be guilty of wrongdoing. How we deal with these crucial issues will determine our moral health as individuals, our political health as a nation, and our prestige as leaders of the free world.

removed. But it should not be removed for political gain or pressure from race mongers.

Please do not do anything in haste. Let the people decide.

<SUBJECT>FLAG</SUBJECT>

<MSG>

The flag had nothing to do with the incident in the church. Now you are making an issue of the flag political protest, and the people of our state has no representation with historic rights of voting).

The flag of the state of South Carolina has existed in some form since 1775, being based on one of Revolutionary War flags

This flag was flown in the defense of a new fortress on Sullivan's Island, when Moultrie faced off British fleet that hadn't lost a battle in a century.

In the 16-hour battle on June 28, 1776, the flag was shot down, but Sergeant William Jasper ran out open, raising it and rallying the troops until it could be mounted again. This gesture was so heroic, Charleston, South Carolina, from conquest for four years, that the flag came to be the symbol of freedom and liberty, in the state and the new nation.

Soon popularly known as either the Liberty Flag or Moultrie Flag, it became the standard of the South Carolinian militia, and was presented in Charleston, by Major General Nathanael Greene, when the city was liberated at the end of the war. Greene described it as having been the first American flag to fly over the city.

The palmetto was added in 1861, also a reference to Moultrie's defense of Sullivan's Island; the fort was constructed had survived largely because the palmettos, laid over sand walls, were able to withstand the British bombardment.

According to Confederate Army Regulations infantry units were to carry only one flag, or color. In many units appear to have carried both a National or Battle Flag and a State flag. The Palmetto Shalong with their Battle Flag carried the State Flag.

In 1765 opponents of the 'Stamp Act' marched in protest behind a blue flag bearing three white crescents. In 1775 Colonel William Moultrie was asked by the 'Revolutionary Council of Safety' to design a flag for South Carolina troops. Moultrie's design had a blue field and bore a crescent or new moon. This matched the troops uniforms and the silver crescent emblem on their hats. Although there are other interpretations of the crescent one is that it represents the ornamental plate worn on a chain by officers of the time.

On 20 December 1860 with the secession of South Carolina from the Union a National flag was needed. Considering many designs the decision was to keep Moultrie's flag but to add a Palmetto tree. The tree was to signify the defense of the palmetto log fort on Sullivan's Island, 28 June 1776, just six days after the signing of the Declaration of Independence. The cannon balls of the British warships having lit the logs. (A proposition in 1899 to change the field to 'royal purple' to commemorate the Confederates defeated). This flag became the National flag of the Republic of South Carolina.

A resolution in 1899 to change the field from blue to royal purple to commemorate the Confederates defeated.

Flags depicting palmetto trees are mentioned in the South Carolina Militia Act of 1839, although they sometimes had red fields and not blue. Also in the mid 1840's the Palmetto Regiment, from the Mecklenburg County area, carried flags of this type.

A South Carolina statute states that any person who mutilates, injures or desecrates the flag, whereof he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. They will be punished by a fine of $100 or by imprisonment for 30 days or both.

The South Carolina State Flag

Dating back to 1765, the South Carolina State Flag reminds us of its role in the American Revolution. It maintains its place in the annals of the Civil War with a design that was formulated as a National flag before the state seceded from the union on December 20, 1860.

Components of the current state flag were first seen in 1765, on a banner carried by South Carolinians protesting the Stamp Act. The banner that the protesters hoisted displayed three white crescents on a blue background. Years later in 1775, Colonel William Moultrie was asked by the South Carolina Revolutionary Council to design a banner for the use of South Carolina troops. Colonel Moultrie chose a simple and direct design that displayed a crescent on a blue field. The new flag was the same blue color of the soldier's uniform and the crescent echoed the symbol that the soldiers wore on the front of their caps.

Almost 100 years later, South Carolina seceded from the Union it had fought to create. A new banner needed to fly above the newly created nation. Many designs were reviewed but the General Assembly chose one simple change to Moultrie's Revolutionary War design. A Palmetto tree was added and centered on the field. The Palmetto, the South Carolina State Tree, had been attributed as instrumental in Colonel Moultrie's defense of Sullivan's Island against an attack by British warships in June, 1776. Cannonballs fired from the British ships could not destroy the walls of the fort which were built of Palmetto logs. In fact, the cannonballs simply sank into the soft, tough Palmetto wood.

Ask the people of SC that shed their blood, gave their sons up for this flag. The flag has been flown since 1776. The hate groups want the flag down-HATE groups, isn't that racial? What else do these hate groups want of the people of SC? The flag of SC does not represent HATE, it is these groups above that HATE the flag.

The flag is HISTORY for our state.

Other states have flags. You are not for our people of SC, but for the HATE groups, NAACP, and others that hate the Civil War and the men who died for this State.

South Carolinians, such as Leland Summers, the head of the state's chapter of the Sons of Confederate Veterans, say the flag is about history and heritage, not hate.

"Do not associate the cowardly actions of a racist to our Confederate Banner," Summers said in a statement. "There is absolutely no link between The Charleston Massacre and The Confederate Memorial Battle of Fort Mifflin. We will create one."

The battle over the flag flared again nearly four decades later. In 2000, following a lengthy fight between the state and the NAACP, lawmakers reached a compromise to move the flag from the Capitol dome to the grounds of the statehouse, and to replace the large flag with a smaller battle flag.

I pray you won't get reelected .

Thank you for your stance in favor of the taking down of the Rebel Flag. It was raised to show cor civil rights changes of the 1960's and sends the wrong message to young people who are looking f young people do. Acts of violence such as the one which occurred in Charleston last week, must b characterized as acts of cowardice, not of bravery. Choosing so called "soft targets" is a clear state many of our youngsters do not understand the concept we learned as children. "Pick on somebody size!" We have to help them to see their behavior in that light. Mass shootings of unarmed, unsusp are acts of cowardice. When it is done to put fear into a larger audience, that is terrorism and shou

<SUBJECT>Confederate Flag</SUBJECT>

<MSG>

Removing the Confederate Flag is a mistake if done due to the Murders of Charleston. It is also kn disgraced the US FLAG. Will it be the next to be removed? South Carolina has never been known state. I am proud to be from South Carolina. I am proud that we stand for what we believe in and ti from our mistakes. ALL of our history should be known we have NOTHING to hide. If people dor we do things then WHY move here. We have laws and money being diverted from where it is neec things that have been decided it is just plain STUPID. A flag did not make him shoot those people. make people in SC riot it made people in SC come together in prayer and help. The reason we resp way is simple we are TAUGHT A LOVE FOR OUR FELLOW MAN... I am not sure what happier boy but the courts will decide not I.

Best Regards,

Its a tragedy people lost lifes in a shooting but the flag is not to blame the confederate flag is extre important on the history of america (Mississippi state flag shows the pride of the flag)however the is methamphetamine its becoming a huge epidemic in south carolina its all over the state.South Ca off the list of the top 10 states where police seized the most methamphetamine labs in 2014 with 36 are what was seized which means theres way more of meth activity going on not including what is trafficed by cartels. So lets be worried about a flag from the 1800s,but allow methamphetamine to and countys of south carolina to ruin citys towns and lifes.so lets just take a flag away a magicly ev be better right?theres more important things to worry about like mrytle beach being ranked 11th m city in the state and closly behind is spartanburg ranked 21st most dangerous city in the us.

I am strongly opposed to flagrant violations of church and state separation. This country was made secular constitution. History teaches us throughout the ages horrific atrocities have been imposed b and religion. We do not need a theocracy. I'm painfully aware it is de rigeur to pray and display a b and prayer to garner a majority of votes here in South Carolina. However, I. like probably many sil citizens, and numerous of other belief systems find the day of prayer in North Charleston offensive frightening.

I do applaud your efforts in having the confederate flag removed from the Capitol building. howev

Governor Haley thank you for taking the lead in removing the Confederate flag from the State Cap

Governor Haley than you for joining the fight as well as discussing what the Confederate battle flag is on both sides.

The Confederate Battle Flag may be historic but it's also racist like the Swastika flag Adolf Hitler used at Party rallies in the 1920's & 1930's.

Dear Governor:

While I am a Connecticut resident I did wish to say how grateful I am for your leadership in this di of removing the Confederate flag from he State House. I do realize the pride many Southerners hav bravery and loyalty their ancestors brought to a cause they believed right. While I do not in any wa slavery issue as right, I gather that for most Southerners of that era the "cause" was more one a ma they regarded as state's rights, rather than slavery itself. All too often, too many "Northerners" forg Union soldiers the "cause" they fought for was not the freeing of slaves (though for many it was), i preservation of the Union, or the simple fact that they were drafted.

But in removing of the flag, being Governor of the very state where the war began, is a mark of lea no stain on your action, nor do I see any stain in most Southerners who feel that they retain a pride and women who fought under that flag. Such pride is less a matter of advocating slavery as it is ho people who lived, died and fought under that flag.

But it is time that all be brought into true perspective. If anyone dishonored the flag is was the pers murdered innocent people who took him into their church. It was his actions and the actions of all caused untold suffering of a people because of race or religion and who bring dishonor to any Sou understand human decency and goodness and the religion many regard as theirs. I believe that any southerner, any true American (Which is what we all are) can bring the same courage to today's ne that those who fought and died brought to what they believed was right in heir day. My best to you

What occurred in Charleston was a tragedy but the flag has nothing to do with it. The flag is a symbol of the south not being part of the union. There is nothing racist about it. the shooting in Charleston was a tragedy. If the flag is removed then you are removing part of the south's history. People have freedom of expression, they are going to do what they want when they want. There is nothing you can do about it. and let the south keep it's history where it belongs. What went on hundreds of years ago we can't do anything about, if you want to deny the south's history then you are denying everybody who has a right to speak their mind.

Have you ever thought about the symbols that generate negative feelings in others? This is something I have learned to tolerate to get along with others. That flag did not cause the sad occasion of a shooting in Charleston. It was caused by a person with sin in their heart. The NAACP generates negative feelings for me but I mean I get out and shoot and march. I use God's help to help me tolerate others and try to understand their feelings as I hope they understand mine. Thank you for allowing me to express my feelings and how I will encourage you to leave the flag issue alone (we were promised 15 years ago that was the final flag when the demand for action was honored) until emotions have time to calm and clear minds can make decisions.

Dear Governor: Media reports are stating that it will take some time for the state legislature to approve the Confederate flag from the memorial at the capitol. Rev. Pinkney will lie in state at the capitol starting Wednesday, and his funeral will be held Friday, as I am sure you understand. In addition, President Obama will give the eulogy.

It is an insult to those who were slaughtered at Emmanuel AME Church, their families, visiting dignitaries, and all of those who seek peace and justice to allow the Confederate flag to remain in place during this time. We must have the flag removed before the ceremonies begin.

Thank you, Judy [REDACTED]

I am a member of both of the groups I mentioned above. I think it is unjust to remove the Confederate flag from the Capital grounds. My ancestors fought in the Civil War and some of them lost their lives. I am from South Carolina. I think it is awful that something I am so proud of has to be removed because people don't like it. Can we also have anything about Martin Luther King and other Black leaders? What will be next our right to carry a Bible and go to church? When the Civil War was over a lot of slaves asked my ancestors to let them come back to the plantations. Anyway if you read the history the Civil War was not about slaves but that the South was becoming prosperous and the North did not like it that the colored people were the ones who sold their own people into slavery.

Thanks for listening. Mary M. [REDACTED]

I wish to express my displeasure with the fact that in your speech yesterday that the Statehouse is the people's house, and there are no winners or losers in this fight. you are so WRONG, today as I sit here watching 5 News there is a side claiming victory. I want to know how is there no winners or losers. We the Citizens of the Statehouse who have our Freedom to Express our Southern Heritage for our Ancestors who fought for what they thought was right and died for at that period in time is being trampled upon! The fact that we have the right to Fly that Battle flag on my Private Property does not change the fact that as you say that the Statehouse is the people's house, but still the flag has to come down. I have compassion for those who were murdered by the hands of a deranged lunatic as well as the family and friends. I was raised in a religious family my mother made sure we went to church. In closing, there are winners and losers, and we are not going to be happy! I am afraid this showing of VICTORY is not going to help the cause!

I would just like to say thanks. Thank you for actually causing the race was dylann roof wanted. At shooting in Charleston, my state came together. We rallied a cry of hope and togetherness. people I said "You made us stronger!"

Then, you for some reason decide to racially split the state. What horrific timing you have. You know I am a Democrat and I would have voted for sheheen. but I didn't agree with him removing the confederate flag from the state house grounds. Do you know how many votes that got you?! And just to be able to say that you did something while here. You know, besides try to delay our health-care and turn down our stimulus. I think you are creating a racial gap, and that's just sad. I cannot wait to see you leave.
