South Carolina State Parks

We love recognizing the great work done by our park rangers! In November, Ranger Aaron & Ranger James hosted a field trip for a homeschool program at Aiken State Park. They educated the children about different types of trees in a Sandhills forest and the evolution of longleaf pine in the state. They also talked about the resources necessary for a tree to survive. The kids had a great time, learned, and we also heard lots of laughter! Thank you to Ranger Aaron & Ranger James on a job well done! <https://southcarolinaparks.com/aiken>
