We've recently received a few questions about the agency's mission and restructure. Some employees have asked us to provide them with the agency's mission statement and a copy of the new organizational chart. Although we do not have a final version of the organizational chart to share with you, we have created document that indicates the functions of each new administration.

If you have any questions regarding DMV's mission or the restructure, please contact the DMV Communications Office by email or telephone.
