A message from the Lieutenant Governor

I would like to take this opportunity to welcome everyone to Greenville for the Southeastern Association of Area Agencies on Aging's Annual Conference.

I believe South Carolina is the best state in the nation, and one of my greatest responsibilities and privileges as Lieutenant Governor is being able to advocate on behalf of the nearly one million seniors who call South Carolina home.

As great minds from across the Southeast gather this week, it is my hope that the experiences and visions shared will benefit the seniors, disability communities, caregivers, family members, and staff in each of our respective states.

Thank you for your dedication and your passion. By working together, we can all make a positive difference in the lives of others.

Kevin
