"WHAT:" line says Richland County

I'd refer to it as the Orangeburg County YMCA in the first paragraph and where. That's what it says on the sign or business cards and not sure how many there are.

Gov. Nikki Haley to Host Team South Carolina in Orangeburg County on Friday

State and federal officials, non-profits will offer residents disaster relief assistance

COLUMBIA, S.C. – Governor Nikki Haley will visit Orangeburg County on Friday, October 23, for the next Team South Carolina flood relief event. Team South Carolina in Orangeburg County will be held from 12:00 PM – 5:00 PM at the YMCA.

For those impacted by flooding in counties across the state, Team South Carolina events serve as one-stops where residents can find out about resources available to families and businesses as South Carolina recovers. Team South Carolina events bring together representatives from state and federal agencies and non-profit organizations to assist those in need in the wake of statewide flooding.

At Team South Carolina Day in Orangeburg County residents can:

- Register for financial assistance from FEMA
- Apply for disaster loans from the U.S. Small Business Administration
- Learn more about repairing and flood proofing their home from FEMA
- Apply for unemployment benefits from the S.C. Department of Employment and Workforce
- Apply for food and financial assistance from the S.C. Department of Social Services
- Apply for mortgage or rent assistance from the S.C. Housing Authority and REALTORS
- Get information about mental health and other healthcare services from the S.C. Department of Mental Health and the S.C. Department of Health and Human Services
- Get help with insurance claims from the S.C. Department of Insurance
- Receive a free kit to test well water from the S.C. Department of Health and Environmental Control
- Receive a free tetanus shot from the S.C. Department of Health and Environmental Control
- Register to volunteer in their community with the United Way
- Recieve assistance from the Red Cross

WHO: Gov. Nikki Haley, state and federal officials, and non-profit organizations

WHAT: Team South Carolina in Richland County

WHEN: Friday, October 23, 12:00 PM – 5:00 PM

WHERE: The YMCA, 2550 St. Matthews Road, Orangeberg, SC 29118
