RE: Invitation to SC CPAs Centennial Gala

Dear Governor Haley:

On behalf of our 4,000 members, the South Carolina Association of CPAs cordially invites you to attend our Centennial Gala, commemorating the Associations 100 years of service to the accounting profession in our state. The Centennial Gala takes place on Wednesday, November 11, 2015 from 6:30- 9:30 p.m. at the Marriott Hotel in downtown Columbia, SC. This event will honor the 100 Most Influential People in Accounting, celebrate the strength of our community and set the stage for our second century of excellence. We expect some 275 CPAs and other financial leaders from across the state to be in attendance.

We are excited about our centennial year and all that it means for the profession in South Carolina and would be tremendously honored if you could make time to stop by to make a few remarks.

May I ask that your staff let me know if you are able to make time to join us on November 11?

We thank you for your strong leadership of our state.

I am sincerely yours,

Erin Hardwick Pate, CAE
Chief Executive Officer
