Subject: Full Agenda Now Available – Behavioral Health Integration Best Practices Summit

Hi Tony,

We invite you to attend the Behavioral Health Integration Best Practices Summit taking place on May 11-12th in San Diego, CA. Don't miss this opportunity to hear how other health plans and payers have moved to the sustainability phase of integrating behavioral health and physical health for whole-person healthcare that upholds quality standards and improves costs for health plans and payers! Get real-time project applications case studies from industry thought leaders to improve and tailor your organization's integration processes!

TOP REASONS TO ATTEND

- Get the latest policy and regulation healthcare updates that will affect behavioral health delivery
- Hear how partnering with community-based services and supports has improved the scope and scale of key operational areas
- Learn best practices for creating internal data sharing infrastructures to optimize case management
- Define the critical functional components essential for implementing a successful CMS-approved Behavioral Health Home
- Discover how to best use individual claim data and social determinates to address actual care integration needs
- Details shared about the most effective methods to increase screening efforts and follow-ups on members' behavioral needs through value-based contracting with PCPs screening efforts and follow-ups on members' behavioral health issues
- Hear about San Diego County Health and Human Services' pilot program to ensure that health plans are meeting both health and non-medical issues to drive care improvement
- Participate in peer-led roundtable discussions
