Subject: Questions re: Haley

Hi Chaney,

Some questions about the governor's confirmation process, state-side, for planning purposes:

Who would the governor submit her resignation letter to? Would it be the secretary of state? The Senate and House clerks? The Speaker or Senate Pro Tem?

When are you expecting her to resign? Can you please let me know when that is imminent so I can have something ready to publish?

Is there a possibility she would be sworn in immediately following her confirmation by the full Senate?

Does she have any plans for the swearing in? Any special guests, etc.?

Best,

Jamie
