Subject: Reuters photographer inquiry

Hi Brian-

Thanks for your time on the phone. I'm a Reuters photographer based in Washington, but I'm currently in South Carolina for coverage of the primaries. I apologize for the last-second inquiry, but my travel plans were fluid and I've just arrived in Columbia today.

I'm hoping there might be an opportunity for me to put together a small photo package of Governor Haley before the flurry of activity leading up to primary night gets too heavy and the candidates command all of the spotlight. In fact, if the governor has any public events tomorrow I'd be grateful to be included, but I'd also be very interested if there was even the briefest opportunity for something more natural -- such as the governor meeting with aides or walking to/from a legislative session or something along those lines.

I'm available this afternoon via phone (202-251-7028) and email, or even in person if it would work for me to stop by your offices to introduce myself.

Many thanks in advance for your time and consideration.

Best regards,

Jonathan
