

State of South Carolina

Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, located at the Donaldson Center Industrial Air Park, formerly known as Donaldson Air Force Base, in Greenville, South Carolina, 3M Greenville was established with the acquisition of the Greenville Film Plant from Olin Corporation in 1974 and, in 1976, the onset of operations at the newly-constructed Greenville Tape Plant; and

WHEREAS, over the past four decades, the 3M Greenville plants have undergone several expansions, added facilities, and increased manufacturing capability and capacity; and

WHEREAS, 3M Greenville is committed to environmental health and safety for the benefit of future generations and, in recognition of excellence in its environmental protection and enhancement programs, has received numerous state and national awards and certifications; and

WHEREAS, the 3M Greenville team is invested in the community, contributing time and resources to many enrichment activities in the area in support of health and human services, education, and an improved quality of life.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Nikki R. Haley, Governor of the great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim May 4, 2016, as throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to recognize 3M Greenville and its dedicated team of employees for their outstanding accomplishments and significant contributions to our state.
