\ri600[UK] Fwd: Doctor fired for refusing Transgender Pronouns

\ri600"As a Christian, I believe gender is determined biologically and genetically," he told The Daily Mail.

"I knew it could be the end of my work as a doctor, but I could not live with myself if I didn't speak up.

It would be dishonest —" and I didn't want to live a lie."

Doctor fired for refusing Transgender Pronouns

"A UK doctor who was fired for refusing to refer to transgender people by their preferred gender pronoun says there is a 'climate of fear' in his profession with staff "œtrained to inform" on one another for breaching discrimination laws," reports NY Post.

"Dr. David Mackereth"™s contract as a medical assessor for the Department of Work and Pensions (DWP) was terminated three weeks ago on the grounds that his refusal to use transgender pronouns could be considered harassment under the 2010 Equality Act.

"The 55-year-old said his refusal to comply with the edict from the DWP has effectively ended his career, as he would never be hired for another government or National Health Service job again.

"As a Christian, I believe gender is determined biologically and genetically," he told The Daily Mail. "I knew it could be the end of my work as a doctor, but I could not live with myself if I didn't speak up. It would be dishonest —" and I didn't want to live a lie."

"After voicing his objections, Mackereth was called into a meeting with a manager at his employment agency. He asked, 'If a man asked him to call you "Mrs.," would you do it?' I said I couldn't," Mackereth said.

"If somebody has male XY chromosomes and male genitalia, I cannot in good conscience call them a woman. We agreed I wouldn't come into work until the DWP had decided what would happen to me."

Mackereth said it was "not a question of whether we agree or disagree but whether we are free to say so."

"I believe with all my heart that God made us male and female and that I should be allowed to believe this," he said.

"I'm not out to upset anyone. I care deeply about transgender people. But we must be able to say what we think and defend what we believe in a non-combative way. Otherwise, we will turn into a dictatorial state in which we are all enslaved."

[Dr. Chaps' comment: The leftists want you FIRED if you refuse to embrace transgender deception. If you do not parrot their politically correct words, their government will exclude you and all Christians from employment. We must take action.]

Christians face Jail for refusing Gay Wedding Art

"Two Arizona calligraphy artists faced with fines and jail time for declining to take part in promoting gay 'weddings' are asking the state's Supreme Court to hear their challenge to the city of Phoenix's law that compels them create artwork that violates their religious beliefs," reports LifeSiteNews.

"Joanna Duka and Breanna Koski, owners of Brush & Nib Studio, face up to six months in jail, $2,500 in fines, and three years of probation for each day that there is a violation of Phoenix City Code 18-4 (B).

"Not only are the Christian women threatened with jail time and fines should they refuse to create artwork celebrating gay 'marriage' because of the Phoenix law, they could also be prosecuted for publishing a statement on their website explaining that their religious convictions prohibits them from doing so.

"The women, represented by Alliance Defending Freedom (ADF), are asking the Arizona Supreme Court to take the case because 'the Phoenix ordinance illegally controls artistic expression,' according to ADF, 'violating the freedom of Duka and Koski to choose which messages they will convey and refrain from conveying.'

"Artists shouldn't be forced to create artwork contrary to their core convictions, and certainly not under threat of criminal fines and jail time," said ADF Senior Counsel Jonathan Scruggs.

"The government must allow artists to make their own decisions about which messages they will promote," Scruggs said. "Breanna and Joanna are happy to design custom art for all people; they simply object to being forced to pour their heart, soul, imagination, and talent into creating messages that violate their conscience."

"Scruggs argued the case before the Arizona Court of Appeals (COA). The Court of Appeals had ruled in June that the Phoenix law would stand."

[Dr. Chaps' comment: American Christians facing jail for refusing to endorse sin, and participate in that sin with their own creative art. Welcome to Stalingrad. The inmates are running the asylum, and punishing the sane for their faith in Christ.]

Friends, their version of tolerance now requires bankrupting Christian employers, or any public restaurant or retail store that refuses men full access to women's bathrooms. We must take action to stop ENDA from becoming law.

God Bless you, in Jesus' name,
