In honor of the last day of Oct. and the peak of fall color, we're going to be sharing beautiful pictures all day long -- make sure to post yours! This one comes from Valli Finney. It was taken at Paris Mountain State Park overlooking the swimming area.

Valli

Paris Mountain State Park fall leaves overlooking the swimming hole. It was beautiful, yet chilly, there yesterday. Also we got to see the remodeled building that people can rent along with the cabins...It's beautiful!!!! Thanks Ranger Shawn Lewellen (I don't know how he spelled his name). I'm thinking of renting the facility for a family reunion!!!!

Debra Abrams Watson Beautiful!!!!

Judy Mathis I don't know how we can have the peak of fall color when most of the leaves have been blown off the trees!
