Bill Panno State whats? I seem to remember places we used to be able to visit to relax and reenergize for our psyche and depression and anxiety but then they closed and we all started fighting more and abusing each other. So thanks for that.

Rodney Pao Anywhere you have access to the marsh. A boat ramp is a good place if there is an area on the side away from the actual ramp. or a dock. Inlets are really good if you can walk to the backside where the water is calm--end of Folly Beach where the lighthouse is.

Breach Inlet between IOP and Sullivans Islands.

Jane Glenn You did an EXCELLENT job! I I would like to know how to know if there are alligators around and how to be safe fishing off the bank. We once set up lines near the coast only to be told there were gators in the area. 😊 I mean, I realize we should be aware that they're out there, but fishing off the bank seems dangerous.
