South Carolina State Parks

at 20:00:00 on 7/16/2016 UTC · 🌐

Who built the new Jackson Creek Nature Trail boardwalk & bridge at Sesqui State Park? These guys! Thank you to Matt Malovic, Tyler Blakewood and Rusty Zahler, the awesome Sesqui park staff that built the boardwalk & bridge. And an honorable mention to Tyler's dog Luna! Come check it out: www.southcarolinaparks.com/sesqui

South Carolina State Parks Hi, Nancy Mullen! The boardwalk is 250 ft. and that section is handicap-accessible, however, the longer trail that it connects to is not. Our Sandhills Hiking Trail is handicap-accessible and is 2 miles long, so that may be a better option for you. Our trail info can be found here: <http://southcarolinaparks.com/sesqui/sq-trails.aspx>
