First Day Dash!

Happy New Year! Start your New Year's resolution out on the right foot and hit a state park trail. This year, Lake Warren, Rivers Bridge, Barnwell, and Aiken State Parks have collaborated to bring you an entire day of hiking events. These hikes have been spread throughout the day to provide the opportunity to attend one or multiple programs! For all events, please bring water, closed toe shoes, insect repellent, and dress for the weather.

Lake Warren State Park	The Interpretive trail is an easy to moderate 1.25-mile trail. Meet in the main parking lot by the office. This event is from 9:00am until 10:00am. Admission to the park is free but donations are welcome. For more information, contact the park at 843-621-0954.
Rivers Bridge State Historic Site	The Battlefield trail is an easy 0.8-mile trail. Meet at the battlefield parking area. This event is from 11:00am until 11:45am. Admission to the park is free but donations are welcome. For more information, contact the park at 803-267-3675.

Matthew Graves Michelle Friedrich Dobbels, I believe Lake Warren State Park and Rivers Bridge State Historic Site are Lowcountry. That's 50% of those listed for this dash. Each park also does the First Day Hike campaign.
