Just Right Episode 17- Fisher Recycling

Founded by "ecopreneur" Chris Fisher in 1992, Fisher Recycling began as a one-person operation, collecting recyclable goods from several Charleston restaurants and offices. Today, the company is a full-circle manufacturer that has recycled 7.9 million pounds of aluminum, glass and tin, and 20 million pounds of office paper, newspaper, magazines and cardboard. Fisher Recycling uses these recycled materials to create custom countertops and landscape coverings for homes and businesses. The company also offers recycling services for offices, restaurants, hotels and manufacturers.
