Kelly L Parker Gators are NOT going to attack you unless you have a live/dead chicken with you and are dangling in the river at them... or maybe a small dog... You are way too big for a gator ;)

at 22:14:04 on 6/26/2017 UTC

Sherry Jackson That little boy at Disney didnt have a chicken.

Kristen Sammons If you have your own, it is probably only the admission to get in to the park. $5 per person. We go and float down it a good bit. Lots of fun.
