Subject: Gov Haley in India

Hi!

I know you are crazy busy with all the SC stuff coming up. Liz, the founder of the org I was working with, emailed me saying she heard the governor was going to India. She was wondering if she could send an email (she actually asked for a meeting which I doubt she has time for) about some of the rescue organizations that we work with there. Jubilee Market has started working with a SC State prison program and the reformed prisoners are making our awareness bracelets and we are helping them with vocational training so when they get parole, they have a skill and places to go etc. The first vocational center in Charleston for trafficked people or under privileged people has also opened in N Chas. Anyway let me know what you think about Liz meeting her or sending her an email. Thank you so much! Hope I get to see you at Heritage!

Xoxo,

Tracey
