Subject: mock up of I believe logo

Johnny,
Here's a very rough mock-up of a stylized stain glass with cross. 3M can start with this and change the colors as appropriate. There are no copyright issues, since I basically created this.

3M should feel free to change anything they want... this is just a place to start. I don't think there's a problem with using a stylized graphic, as opposed to a realistic one.

I think we talked about using a light blue unicolor background for the plate, with black letters for the I BELIEVE AND SOUTH CAROLINA.
