

Account: South Carolina State Parks

Content type: Facebook Page - Timeline posts

Record ID: 20100915South-Carolina-State-ParksTimeline-posts52748_464758247596

South Carolina State Parks published a note.

at 19:19:59 on 9/15/2010 UTC ·

New Partnership Between South Carolina State Park Service and Boy Scouts of America

Roy Queen As a former scout, and park ranger, I think that this is great idea!

at 19:30:09 on 9/15/2010 UTC

South Carolina State Parks Learn more at www.ScoutCarolina.com

at 19:48:38 on 9/15/2010 UTC

Karen Lucking What a grand idea.

at 20:40:56 on 9/15/2010 UTC

Beverly Malley Simpson What about the girls?

at 21:27:45 on 9/15/2010 UTC

Bee Jay Sentell This is awesome. Great recognition for the Scouts. They work hard in all our parks across the US. Great Job South Carolina maybe the other states will follow suit. You are a great leader...

at 21:45:04 on 9/15/2010 UTC

Jane Ochsenbein I don't think the state should be endorsing or rewarding a group participating in discriminatory practices of the "3 G's" (gays, girls and the godless)

at 22:25:31 on 9/15/2010 UTC

Marcia Martin This is a wonderful project...thanks Scouts for all of the hard work that you do!!!

at 23:19:20 on 9/15/2010 UTC

Beverly Malley Simpson Jane, in all fairness, when my son was in scouts, the whole family was always welcome to participate with activities. I was a Girl Scout leader and this was not the case with them. No one ever has a problem with clubs for what society considers minorities, like gay clubs and so forth. In our evolving society, where today's minority is tomorrow's majority, what is wrong with just letting clubs be who they are? If someone wants to establish a liberal, acceptance-oriented organization for children; I am sure some people will join it and I am sure SC state parks will be glad to work with them too.

at 1:06:56 on 9/16/2010 UTC

Marcia Martin Beverly, my son was in Scouts & I totally agree with you. I'm sure State Parks can use help from all...

at 1:36:07 on 9/16/2010 UTC

Karen Lucking How can anyone object to such a worthy project. in my extended family there are 8 Eagle scouts and it has influenced all their lives in many positive ways. What about girls. They are not Boy Scouts and I hope it is always that way. If you feel that Girl Scouts are not equal--well who runs them and who is in them. The opportunity for equality is there. Maybe the Girl Scouts need to reorganize. I am only responding to above comments. It is a shame that when something really positive happens others have to undermine what has happened.

at 4:33:59 on 9/16/2010 UTC