South Carolina State Parks

at 13:40:29 on 11/19/2019 UTC

Last night, Senator Vincent Sheheen (far right) and Representative Richie Yow (far left), on behalf of the State of South Carolina, presented the South Carolina State Park Service $1 million dedicated to developing new cabins at Cheraw State Park. The funds were a part of a special appropriation to support plans that had been in place for several years. The cabins are expected to be built near the golf course and face Lake Juniper. Also attending the meeting was SCPRT Director Duane Parrish, Mayor of Chesterfield Billy Cassidy, State Park Service Director Paul McCormack and Cheraw State Park Manager, Robert Mahoney.

Karen Serencsa Fantastic! We camp at Cheraw many times a year. And play the golf course while there! The cabins will be a great addition to the park.

Tom Cole Just what we need for RnR..

Now would it be possible for the State of South Carolina to fix the boat landing on The saltwater side of bushy park??

Marilyn Davey Buchanan So many other parks need improvements to the campgrounds and bathhouses. Seems like the funds could be better spent. My opinion as a camper who has visited all 47 parks and camped at some of them that need improvements.

Deb Cox Vallance Please make some of them dog-friendly!

Stephen Schar Just make sure you provide a nature trail all along the waterfront. Looks like you're creating a golfers party village.
