Ms. Stevens:

My client – Ms. Adams – and I have difficulty understanding why you are maintaining your suit against her in her individual capacity, or why you want to subject her – and her alone – to the prospect of a significant award for attorney's fees and costs in her individual capacity.

In the alternative, we have no objection to your proceeding against both parties in their official capacities only.

Gene

Mr. Matthews,

As I indicated in my phone message last week, we'd appreciate a response to the query below.

Many thanks,

Subject: Summers v. Adams - Claim against Mr. Ozmint in his individual capacity

Gentlemen,

We are considering dropping our claim against Mr. Ozmint in his individual capacity, and we are interested to know whether your clients would consent to his dismissal from the suit. We intend to maintain our claim against Ms. Adams in her individual capacity, and our claims against both official-capacity defendants.

We would appreciate it if you would respond by close of business on Thursday, April 30, with your clients' positions on the dismissal of Mr. Ozmint in his individual capacity. This will enable us to determine how to proceed. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact me.

Best regards,

Elizabeth J. Stevens
