Donna hello!

We'll have a draft for staff to review soon as possible. Kara and I have been working diligently since given the charge just last week and I spent the better part of my DC trip last week, over the weekend, and my "alleged" 2 annual leave days this week drafting the report (in between shuttling kids to and from school!). We'll do our level best to have the draft finished tomorrow (if at all possible) and hopefully for members Friday so that they can review over the holidays. I know that members will review the draft with their respective staffs over that period as well.

Thanks for checking on our progress, and I'll keep you posted!

Craig,

When will the Governor's staff have an opportunity to review the report prior to it being distributed to the members for review?
