WELCOME TO SMART CITIES NOW

Updates on smart city progress around the globe

NEWS & TRENDS

A remote control for cities? A move to help millions of daily commuters experience faster, more convenient and personalized ways to get around by tapping into the power of their mobile phones was just announced by MasterCard and Cubic Transportation Systems. Learn what it could mean for your city. MORE >>

Oakland takes police video to the cloud: When it comes to body video camera technology, security concerns make some police officials reluctant to use it. In Oakland, California, where 600 officers wear body cameras, police are seeing multiple benefits using Microsoft cloud storage for videos -- security among them. MORE >>

Partner spotlight: Wins for Cisco, ABB, Saudi Telecom, Silver Spring Networks and Elster

Cisco wins major Dubai smart city project... ABB takes transformer intelligence to next level... Saudi Telecom launches effort to groom next-gen IT talent... Silver Spring wins metering project in New Zealand... Elster snags contract for big AML initiative in Mexico. Get details >>

PILOTS & PROJECTS

Finding data in power: Smart cities run on data and a new effort led by Enel is trying to find ways to use existing infrastructure to share it. One example: Learn how electrical substations could one day do double duty as powerful data hubs. MORE >>

TOOLS & RESOURCES

Help for cities with spatial data planning: Location information can contain valuable insights that cities can use to improve livability. Learn how a new framework from the Open Geospatial Consortium can help cities get started using this data faster than ever. MORE >>

Do you have a smart city roadmap?

Academics think about the "why" of smart cities while technology companies focus on the "what." Mayors and councils starting down the smart city path need to figure out the "how"... and that's where a roadmap comes in. You'll find expert guidance on the elements a smart city roadmap should include, how to build your roadmap and success strategies that will come in handy -- all in our Smart Cities Readiness Guide.
