Dear Gov. Haley,

As a business owner of a national company located in South Carolina and California ([REDACTED]), I'm writing to ask how I can help you get the Confederate Flag taken down on the State House grounds. I'm happy to sit down and talk to you about what it might take to get our leaders to make a bold move in light of the racial shooting this week in Charleston. I'm heart broken, as I know you are and I want to do something. We have a chance to send a sign to the Nation that we are ready to make a bold and powerful change. How can I/[REDACTED] help you?

You can reach me at my email or on my cell phone (also listed above).

I look forward to your response.

Robbin [REDACTED], President, [REDACTED]

I am one of your [REDACTED] I groaned with you as you fought back tears worrying about what we tell our children about being safe in church. I worry about our children being safe everywhere. I am a southerner, born and bred. The Confederate flag has always been a part of my heritage. If you take it down, it will still be a part of my heritage. But, if taking it down stops one father or mother from teaching their children abusing someone because of their skin color is okay, then take it down. If taking it down stops one child from seeing a symbol of slavery being flown as a symbol of SC, then take it down. If one child is prevented from growing hate in their heart and picking up a weapon and kill another, than take it down. We are a proud state, but not everything we did was loving. Slavery was for economics, not hatred. We need to move the flag to museums, and let our children learn respect. Pray on it, please. I have always defended the flag flying, but if the flag conveys hatred, please take it down. We can remember our heritage without the shame associated. We can be proud without being naïve and further the idea that we care more about the past than our future, and our children's future. To protect our children, all colors, we need to take it down. Thank you. (For your information about me, I am legally American Indian/Caucasian, my husband is Caucasian, my beloved son-in-law is second generation Bangladesh, and I have a black grandson-in-law. I want to protect them all)

<MSG>

In light of the current situation and mourning your state must endure presently, I first want to say my heart goes out to you all. Please send this email to the Governor. Our country is hurting for those nine lives that have been taken from their families, from this nation, from those who would have been touched by those late church members. They were killed in the name of hate by a man who saw the confederate flag as a symbol that did not deal with legacy but with the unjust fear that African American individuals are evil. That they deserve to die rather than live. No, the confederate flag did not kill those 9 individuals. A young man killed Cynthia, Susie, Ethel, DePayne, Clementa, Tywanza, Daniel, Sharonda and Myra. The confederate flag has been adopted by white supremacists. Don't let those people look up near political buildings and receive strength from the false idea that America still allows discrimination and judgments based on one's skin color. Please take down the confederate flag at the Capitol building, at the very least.

As I heard on the news and read about the tragedy that occurred at Emmanuel Church, one thing truly amazed me. Seeing the flag of the Confederacy flying over the grounds of the State Capital, and it not even being lowered to half mast out of respect for the lives lost, struck a nerve. I understand the context for history and heritage when it comes to the Confederate flag, but I do believe we must take into account the connotation that it also brings to mind, the bitterness of slavery and the history of segregation. The Nazi flag is also a part of history, but would we as citizens allow it to fly freely as a symbol of history and ancestry. I think not, it would only be seen as a symbol of death, destruction, persecution and prejudice. I do believe that the majority of citizens in the great State of South Carolina are better than that and am impressed with the response of the citizens of Charleston, who state that they are not black or white, but citizens who are better and deserve better, who want to heal wounds and move past another act of hatred.

I live in your sister state of North Carolina and have recently been looking at property either around Charleston or Daufuskie Island. However, the recent tragedy at Emmanuel AAME church really rocked my world. Please understand I am a southern born and bred white woman, but the site of that Confederate Flag enrages me. It reminds me of the horrible crimes and acts of terrorism that have been done in our great country. For the love of God, take that flag off of the capital building and burn it. Why should the people of color in South Carolina be taunted everyday by that damn flag. Haven't they been through enough? Please show me some of the humanity I saw in you when you first spoke of this tragedy. Do the right thing and rid South Carolina of that tragic, terrorist symbol. Believe me, I fully understand the irrational deep seeded emotions many white people have with this flag. I have had countless conversations regarding the inane southern heritage argument. But stand up with a steel spine and do the right thing. I bet you will sleep like a baby and hold your head a little higher.

Sincerely, Patricia [REDACTED]

Dear Governor Haley -

My husband and I were very close to finalizing plans to spend 3 nights at the Vendue in downtown Charleston, followed by a week in a condo at a beach/golf resort further down the coast.

Last night while following the news of the race-motivated slaughter at Emmanuel Church, we heard that the confederate flag was nevertheless flying at full staff on the South Carolina Capitol grounds and we were horrified.

Suddenly, Charleston, S.C. has lost it's former perceived "charm" for us.

We decided this morning to bag the Charleston vacation plans entirely, in favor of a trip to St. Augustine, Florida but will continue to follow with interest any news regarding the confederate flag in your sad state.

Dear Governor

In light of the overt racist attack of the african american citizens I implore you to remove the confederate flag from the state capitol. When terrorists strike, whether at a kosher supermarket in Paris or a black church in Charleston, it's natural to look beyond the specific circumstances of a specific murderer and ask about the broader cultural and ideological trends that lead to radicalization and legitimize violence. And in the case of Dylann Roof, we don't need to look far for at least one sign of this. A Confederate flag flies on the grounds of the South Carolina statehouse as a symbolic token of the state's official ideological solidarity with the cause of fighting and dying for the purpose of enslaving black people.

Take the flag down Governor. Remove the racist symbol that so many citizens of your state still worship as a symbol of ongoing racism and slavery.

Sincerely,
 Jason M [REDACTED] MD

Dear Gov. Haley,

You seemed genuinely moved in your address to the media about the killing of 9 people in a church in Charleston. However, I think that government officials in SC are partially to blame for creating a climate of divisiveness and, ultimately, violence, by permitting the Confederate flag to be flown at the state capitol. I was outraged to hear that this is the case. It is a symbol of white supremacy, and belongs only in museums. Why does SC have an allegiance to, and embrace, an anachronistic racist era? Do you still take pride in the white supremacy positions of the Confederacy? Do you think you are attracting tourists? Frankly, I think your state needs to do some serious soul searching, stop creating a climate of divisiveness that promotes racism and violence, and move into the 21st century.

How sincere are you? I looked and was listening to when you were telling everyone how you wanted the people in South Carolina to heal because of the gruesome murders committed at the African Methodist Church there. This was done by someone who has been brain washed with hate beginning in the State of Carolina. He grew up with hearing about hate for Black people in his home and outside his home. How can you get on TV and tell people you want them to heal and you are permitting that confederate flag to fly over the state capital? This is a disgrace. This flag displays nothing but hate. I am a psychologist, and I've worked with many people who have a similar diagnosis to the man who murdered the 9 innocent people at the church on Wednesday. Though I always believe that better systems of mental health care could avert many of these tragedies, in this case I believe that the two things that would have most helped stopped this are better gun control legislation (could he have done this kind of damage with, say, a knife?) and the absence of a cultural context of racism. For God's sake-- take down that Confederate flag! Show you care about those families and about healing what has been broken here!

The Confederate flag is a cancer on the South, and it is a racist symbol. Flying it at half-mast to "honor" the nine slain individuals in the church is no different than the Nazis flying the swastika at half-mast to "honor" the slain Jews during WWII.

There are sixteen white supremacist organizations in South Carolina. Disgusting! The recent slaying of the nine was a racist hate act; it had nothing to do with religion.

Dear Governor Haley,

I saw you on the news, seemingly very moved and sadden by the recent events (murder in the church). If you are truly shocked and want to make a change in your state, take that DAMN confederate flag down! You are sending very mixed messages. Do the right thing! Don't allow a few old white men run your state.

The good governor said SC needs time to heal. That time commenced 150+ years ago. Time to "be healed" and not to "be healing." Symbols of hate have no place in our government.

The Confederate flag is not a symbol of southern pride but rather a symbol of rebellion and racism. On the heels of the brutal killing of nine Black people in a South Carolina church by a racist terrorist, it's time to put that symbol of rebellion and racism behind us and move toward healing and a better United States of America!

I am one of your [REDACTED] I groaned with you as you fought back tears worrying about what we tell our children about being safe in church. I worry about our children being safe everywhere. I am a southerner, born and bred. The Confederate flag has always been a part of my heritage. If you take it down, it will still be a part of my heritage. But, if taking it down stops one father or mother from teaching their children abusing someone because of their skin color is okay, then take it down. If taking it down stops one child from seeing a symbol of slavery being flown as a symbol of SC, then take it down. If one child is prevented from growing hate in their heart and picking up a weapon and kill another, than take it down. We are a proud state, but not everything we did was loving. Slavery was for economics, not hatred. We need to move the flag to museums, and let our children learn respect. Pray on it, please. I have always defended the flag flying, but if the flag conveys hatred, please take it down. We can remember our heritage without the shame associated. We can be proud without being naïve and further the idea that we care more about the past than our future, and our children's future. To protect our children, all colors, we need to take it down. Thank you. (For your information about me, I am legally American Indian/Caucasian, my husband is Caucasian, my beloved son-in-law is second generation Bangladesh, and I have a black grandson-in-law. I want to protect them all)

<SUBJECT>Confederate Flag Above the State House</SUBJECT>

<MSG>

To whom it may concern,

I grew up in the Upstate of South Carolina five miles from a store that sold confederate flag paraphernalia. I grew up knowing that there was some connection between the confederate flag and long held racism but no one ever really explained it to me and no one in my predominantly white neighborhood or at Christ Church Episcopal School ever talked about race. I attended Furman University and majored in political science where my eyes were opened to the poverty issues in Greenville County. My work with Triune Mercy Center in downtown Greenville made me blind to race and color and extremely irritated that the confederate flag was still a main symbol of the state of South Carolina. I know that there are many generous, giving people, particularly in faith communities, in South Carolina who have moved beyond racism and bigotry. I believe that many more people will follow in their footsteps to stop racial discrimination and break down "the great wall of Greenville" dividing the cities richest white members from some of the cities poorest black members. This racial divide is unacceptable and must be changed.

As a leader in the state government, I believe that it is your responsibility to set a good example. A good way to start would be to remove the confederate flag from above the State House. This is a simple gesture with enormous social ramifications setting a precedent for people in South Carolina and other states still holding on to ancient history that causes so much pain and suffering in our country. If the state is going to move on, the state government needs to make an effort to do so first. If you don't have the authority to remove it, please make some kind of public statement asking for its removal.

See the number of people who support this in the below petition that is growing by the thousands:
http://petitions.moveon.org/sign/remove-the-confederate-1.fb52?source=s.fb&r_by=8073923

Thank you for my time.

Dear Gov. Haley:

As an avid golfer I have visited Myrtle Beach over a dozen times in the last 20 years, enjoying the golf, beaches and hospitality of this great vacation spot. But I need you to know that I will never again visit Myrtle Beach or the state of South Carolina while the Confederate flag is displayed on public buildings. This flag is a symbol of the racism and terror of slavery, and with the cold blooded murder of nine black citizens in their church by a man espousing the very worst of what this flag represents, I cannot in good faith see myself contributing to the economic advancement of your state.

Please...show courage and don't give in to the worst of Sotuh Carolina...it's racist heritage...and remove this flag from ALL public buildings.

Respectfully,
 Pete [REDACTED]

Dear Governor:

I am sure that you & the good citizens of your state are horrified by the hate-motivated killing of 9 innocent worshipers in a Charleston church recently. However, the continued flying of the Confederate battle flag in your capital city, a symbol of an armed insurrection against the United States, & representing a society which would have kept its fellow citizens in perpetual involuntary servitude, is an affront to the memories of the slain.

South Carolinians must do what they feel is right as guided by their consciences.

I am writing to inform you that my family is moving its annual golfing family reunion from our traditional meeting place of Myrtle Beach to a golf course in North Carolina, & we will not be planning another reunion in the Palmetto State until the hateful symbol of slavery & oppression is removed from its current location, and relegated to a museum, where it belongs.

God bless you as you try to heal the wounds of your citizens.

Dear Governor Haley

I'm praying for you today because I now how much prayers and sympathy help at a time such as this. Your words of encouragement and care are so important. When an awful tragic accordance happens, it seems for me I want to hurt back in defense or see quick and immediate justice. Then I remember awful means - to inspire fear and thats the opposite of what I need to happen. So I'm praying for more kindness, gentleness and love for the people of South Carolina. That the Holy Spirit will comfort everyone and bring them to a closer place with God instead of further away. Sounds like a miracle, but thats what our great God does. Use a bad situation for good.

I live in the Chicago area and I am always try to have compassion for other people. Everyone has struggles in life and trying to be caring and reaching out to others doesn't come easy. With our Lord Jesus all things are possible.

Your friend, Cheri [REDACTED]

I was not quite sure which category to put this comment in. I am a retired educator that has lived in Myrtle Beach for the last twelve years. I was extremely disappointed about your response to the question regarding your opinion about the Confederate flag flying on our state capitol grounds. It was truly a legitimate question. It is fact that our state does need to heal after the shooting, however, you dodged the question. What is your opinion about the flag? As governor I believe you are an intelligent and decisive person who must have a clear position on this issue. The citizens of SC deserve an answer to the question and should know how you feel, because you represent all of us.

You yourself acknowledged that the terrible events in Charleston are a hate crime. Why are you allowing a symbol of hate to continue flying about the state house? It's time for my home state to accept that the Confederate flag is not history, it's hate.

Also, please remember, South Carolina does not have a hate crimes law, so despite you calling it a hate crime, the shooter can't be prosecuted for it by the state - you have to wait for the federal government to get involved - and that is, in part, YOUR fault because you argued against it. You do not have the right to act outraged about something that you have failed to do anything about.

Signed,
 A sad South Carolina native

Dear Governor Haley,

In the wake of the recent Charleston church shooting, I was shocked and appalled to learn that the State of South Carolina continues to fly the confederate flag. Every citizen of South Carolina should be ashamed!

It is 2015. The US Civil war ended 150 years ago. The confederates lost. They no longer exist as a nation, a state, or a political party. We are ONE NATION, under God, and it's time that you folks acknowledge that. You cannot - and should not - continue to accept and embrace the vestiges of those bigoted, hateful ideologies of the past. It's embarrassing to South Carolina, and to the entire United States of America!

Take down the confederate flag and join the rest of the USA in 2015!

Most sincerely,
 Mark [REDACTED]

It's time to take down the Confederate flag over your capital. That flag is a symbol of people who wanted to maintain slavery in your state. In light of the recent racial shooting in the black church, you as governor need to show some compassion and leadership and do what you know is right.

<MSG>

Dear Sirs,

I have a draft press release for a unique and timely fundraising idea --- from a South Carolinian who lives nearby --- and knows the mayor of --- Aurora, CO. The idea is to create a "twin spin" 45 for the 4+5 victims of the Charleston shooting.

Thank you,

My response to Nikki Haley's tears: Then take down the SC State House Confederate flag!

I saw you crying on the news a few minutes ago.

I wonder if you are only crying because SC looks bad in the eyes of the world today.

I have a hard time believing that your emotion has anything to do with the enormous historic pain felt by black people, and others seeking redress of systemic racial injustice in your state, in response to yet another racially motivated shooting.

If you really want to show you value the lives of the people killed last night in the name of white supremacy, you will take down the Confederate flag at the SC State House.

Not fly it at half staff, TAKE IT DOWN.

It is a symbol of a time when white supremacy was unchecked by law.

It is a symbol that is revered by white supremacists today even more than the official flag of the United States.

Flying it at half staff will rub salt and pepper into the wounds (slave reference intentional) of those grieving the good people who died in that act of terrorism at Mother Emanuel.

That flag flying is a symbol of triumph for everyone who agrees with what Dylann Wolf did.

Take it down.

If your tears are real, TAKE IT DOWN.

Governor,

You do not do yourself or your State any honor by admitting a lack of understanding of what causes a white man to kill black people in a church. Your tears and call for prayer are insincere and will solve nothing. Your longterm stance against gun control, and the fact that your State continues to honor the confederate flag should be reminders that you are a part of the problem, not a part of the solution.

Yes, I understand the flag cannot be removed or changed without a 2/3 majority from your state legislature, but you as the leader of your state, should be vocal in your support of changes that can lead your state, and our nation to a better place. Has there not been enough killing in your state recently to help you realize that you do need to understand what causes these acts of terror and hate to take place?

Let the rest of the nation do the praying and the questioning; it is your job to lead change.

Respectfully,

Ron [REDACTED]

Please stop flying the Confederate flag at the capital. I read that you will probably discuss this possibility again (after the horrific murders of nine people in their church by a racist white man), but at this time your job is "to heal the people of this state". Apparently you just want to heal the white people. Healing all the people of your state would include removing the racist symbol of the Confederacy that is so painful to some of your citizens. Thank you.

Dear Gov. Haley,

As a business owner of a national company located in South Carolina and California ([REDACTED]), I'm writing to ask how I can help you get the Confederate Flag taken down on the State House grounds. I'm happy to sit down and talk to you about what it might take to get our leaders to make a bold move in light of the racial shooting this week in Charleston. I'm heart broken, as I know you are and I want to do something. We have a chance to send a sign to the Nation that we are ready to make a bold and powerful change. How can I/[REDACTED] help you?

You can reach me at my email or on my cell phone (also listed above).

I look forward to your response.

Robbin [REDACTED] President, [REDACTED]

You, Governor, helped put the shooter in that church. You, governor, fly that Confederate battle flag over the capitol. You, governor, promote legislation that puts guns in the hands of racists and murderers.

You, Governor, are responsible. Not as responsible as he who pulled the trigger. But YOU, for political gain, gave it to him and his fellow travellers. YOU, for cheap political expedience, promote the theology of hatred that infected him and his fellow travellers.

Change your ways. Save your soul.

<SUBJECT>Decision to Not Lower (or temporarily remove) the Confederate Flag after the Symbolic Racially Motivated Massacre in Your State</SUBJECT>

<MSG>

Dear Governor Haley,

I am appalled by your office's decision to not attempt to do anything to lessen the painful impact for the 1.34 million African-Americans who make up nearly 1/3 of the population of your state by lowering the Confederate Flag after the tragedy at Emanuel African Methodist Episcopal Church.

Your office's deference of the responsibility for not lowering the confederate flag to the General Assembly is an unacceptable excuse for your tremendous lack of social responsibility or empathy, especially considering that a special session could have been called by the governor's office and considering the heinous and Nazi-like symbolism that this flag represents for the largest minority group in your state.

Your office's actions (or lack thereof) are entirely indicative of why such a hateful racially motivated tragedy occurred in your state, and why removing the Confederate flag and no longer catering to its supporters should be a priority for the multi-racial governor whose efforts should, perhaps more than others, seek to heal race relations in one of the most historically brutal former slave states our nation ever had.

Dear Governor Haley,

The hurtful act of the shooting in Charleston has caused so much pain for our city, state and nation. It has touched many people of every demographic. Throughout it all, the resounding theme from our local leaders (you, Senator Scott, Mayor Riley, Chief Mullen, Congressman Sanford) has been very positive, and I want to share my appreciation with, and for, you.

You took in the crisis and hurt, and sent out love, compassion and true caring. Our local leaders didn't make this political, which cannot be said for the media and other politicians. Thank you for not pushing the community farther apart by talking about divisive issues at this time.

I understand a time will come when people want to talk about gun control. I am a strong supporter of our 2nd amendment rights and thank you for supporting them, too.

Thank you for your service and your dedication to keep South Carolina the great state it is.

Governor Haley, If you truly care about the murders of those good people of the Emanuel A.M.E. Church in Charleston, you can prove it by showing leadership and taking down the symbol of hatred, The Confederate Flag that flies on State property in Columbia. If you do not do that, then you align yourself with the murderer and those like him that approve of the sign of hatred. The choice is yours. Show leadership or bow to racists. What is it going to be?

 <MSG>

Dear Governor Haley,

I write to ask you to please remove the confederate flag from government places. It is a divisive symbol that is undermining our unity in the wake of the shooting in Charleston. I was born and raised in Charleston, and I'm a proud South Carolinian. I'm an attorney in Charleston, I follow South Carolina politics closely, and I love our state. I know this is a difficult choice, and you will face some opposition, but I'm confident it is the right choice for our state.

I think we have done a great job of showing the world that South Carolina is a place where all people are respected and loved. We need to take it one step further. We've forced black South Carolinians to listen to the pretextual historical justifications long enough. It's time to drown those arguments out with the voice of progress and unity. What better time to make this move than the anniversary of the abolition of slavery? Thank you for taking the time to read this and I truly hope you dig deep and consider the morality of this choice and the unifying message that will reverberate across the nation if you take action on this point.

With kind regards,
 Lindsay [REDACTED]

Governor,

I am a member and soon to be Pastor of the ELCA. In the wake of this week's shooting that is clearly a result of on going racial injustice in your state and accross the nation, I am appalled to hear that the Confederate flag is still flying over your office. This flag is a symbol of past and continued oppression of African American persons in this country and the fact that it is still flying following this tradagity is a slap in the face for all who morn these losses and all who seek change in this country. please have compassion for those who morn and aid those who seek change for the better by taking down the Confederate flag.

So, I see you still proudly fly the Confederate flag over your statehouse. A symbol of an army that attacked the United States. The symbol of treason and sedition. The symbol of racism. And when you flew the U.S. flag--the flag of our nation--at half-mast out of your supposed respect for the dead in Charleston, the confederate rag still flew fully up.

Governor Haley, save your tears. Save your calls for the death penalty. We know they are lies. Every time I see that flag, I know whose side you are on and it is not the side of the victims--gee, did they have to catch him in another state because South Carolina figured why catch someone who's only doing what you wish you could do? No, you fly that flag so all the racist rednecks know you are with them. You flay that flag because it's your way of spitting and pissing on the graves of the dead.

Is that not true? Do you actually care? Actually feel grief? Actually think the shooter was wrong in his views? Prove it: Take down the flag.

I may not reside in your state, but this is bigger than your state. You shame our nation and you shame the human race. But, well, I'm sure it's earning you points with the NRA and Fox News. And that is really all you care about, isn't it?

Yours in horror and grief,

Lissa

Dear Governor Haley,

I can't imagine how hard it is for you and the other people of South Carolina following the terrible shooting there a few days ago. I just wanted to add my voice to the many others who feel an appropriate response to this terrorist act would be to change the state flag to one that is not a symbol of violent racial oppression.

Thank you for taking the time to consider this suggestion.

Sincerely,

This message was sent to several legislators

Because the sentence against an evil deed is not executed speedily, the heart of the children of man is fully set to do evil. Ecc 8:11.

Gov. Haley has called for the death penalty for Dylann Roof, the shooter who allegedly took the lives of nine victims at the Charleston church this week. I would suggest that the SC Legislature convene for a special session to address this horrific crime and pass legislation to give this individual a fair and speedy trial, but receive the death penalty by Christmas if he is convicted for the murders. We don't need to incarcerate him for years and the SC taxpayers foot the bill. Let South Carolina be an example to other states for swift justice.

And then, get rid of the Specialty plate with the Confederate flag also.

Dear Governor Haley,

I'm an Indian American, and I am heartbroken by the shootings in Charleston. You and I, as brown people in America, should realize that we are far from a post-racial America. We are deeply steeped in a country where racism and racial tension has been increasing to now being a fever pitch in America.

I understand that you have defended the display of the Confederate flag on the grounds of the statehouse in Columbia. Please take down the flag, because it represents white supremacist ideologies and actions targeting Black communities. The very first sentence of South Carolina's Articles of Confederation states that the reason for wanting to withdraw from the Federal Union was to have the right to hold slaves:

"The people of the State of South Carolina, in Convention assembled, on the 26th day of April, A.D., 1852, declared that the frequent violations of the Constitution of the United States, by the Federal Government, and its encroachments upon the reserved rights of the States, fully justified this State in then withdrawing from the Federal Union; but in deference to the opinions and wishes of the other slaveholding States, she forbore at that time to exercise this right."

In an October 2014 debate, you stated that South Carolina fixed racial problems in the state by electing an Indian American. As a child, I was told that I was the "good brown" because my hair was straight. You have an obligation, as a brown person in America to fight for injustice and make it clear that ALL brown people in America are the "good brown." As an Indian American, I stand against racism and inequity. I hope you will too.

Ms Haley, I saw you crying on TV in reaction to the shootings in Charleston. If you truly want to honor those killed by a vicious racial bigot, take down the flag that is a potent symbol of that philosophy. The intentions of the founders of the confederacy are abundantly clear in the historical record. I understand it would take legislative action to remove the flag, but I bet if you had the courage to get a ladder and a pair of scissors, it would send a powerful message. Save your tears, do the right thing.

<MSG>

My great grandfather was in the Iowa 13th Volunteer regiment that removed the flag in 1865. He fought and lived through Vicksburg, Chattanooga, Atlanta, and the march to the sea. To fly that flag in a reunited nation is an act of treason. It is symbolic of slavery and continued racism which results in shootings such as the one in Charleston this week. We need more than tears; we need action. Symbolic action is a place to start.

I have relatives who live in SC and I am writing from Arkansas. They feel the same way I do. I strongly feel the confederate should be removed from the grounds of the state capital in Columbus. In light of the shooting tragedy, it has been made abundantly clear the symbol of the hatred and racism that the flag has and still does represent. A process of healing could be helped by the state removing this symbol. Gov. Haley, YOU are the face of South Carolina. YOU are the leader. Now, why not do some leading?? Call the legislature into session. Have a bill ready to remove the confederate flag from the grounds of the state capital. Use your power to get it passed. Unanimously would be nice. Times like these is when the country looks to its elected leaders. Gov. Haley, the time is now. Get it done.

South Carolina is a beautiful state with much to offer. I know there are many ethical and kind people there. However, having the Confederate flag waving on state property taints the image of South Carolina. I can never again visit Charleston as long as that symbol of hatred and racism flies anywhere on the Capitol's grounds, especially in light of the recent shooting in the church. Private citizens have a right to fly that flag if they feel they must, but it has no place on property belonging to the State of South Carolina. Please take it down. Thank you for your time.

I too grieve for the nine victims of the heinous Charleston massacre, for their families as well as members of Emanuel African Methodist Episcopal Church. I hope you will take time out of your schedule to attend services for the victims.

I know that now is not the moment to demonstrate leadership concerning the symbols of hate that may have influenced the killer. That said ignoring our state's festering wounds has gone on far too long. After the victims have been laid to rest, I hope you will speak up and speak out. It's delusional to claim that flying the Confederate flag on the South Carolina State House grounds is about heritage. I will not bother to go into depth about the Tillman statue other than to say it needs to be moved to a museum as well.

Excerpted from Ta-Nehisi Coates piece in The Atlantic.

"Take down the flag. Take it down now.

Put it in a museum. Inscribe beneath it the years 1861-2015. Move forward. Abandon this charlatanism. Drive out this cult of death and chains. Save your lovely souls. Move forward. Do it now."

They say that the Confederate flag over the SC state capital can't be lowered to half mast because it's not on a pulley system. Well, I think lowering it to half mast would actually be a travesty, because it would be like a KKK member in full dress showing up at a funeral for one of the victims of Wednesday's shooting. The SC General Assembly should take this opportunity to do the right thing: take the flag down permanently. Now. And I say this as somewhat of an insider - not a native of SC, but an alumnus of the University of South Carolina who got his college education often discomfited by the shadow of the heritage of the Confederacy on that otherwise beautiful campus.

I saw you crying on the news a few minutes ago.

I wonder if you are only crying because SC looks bad in the eyes of the world today.

I have a hard time believing that your emotion has anything to do with the enormous historic pain felt by black people, and others seeking redress of systemic racial injustice in your state, in response to yet another racially motivated shooting.

If you really want to show you value the lives of the people killed last night in the name of white supremacy, you will take down the Confederate flag at the SC State House.

Not fly it at half staff, TAKE IT DOWN.

It is a symbol of a time when white supremacy was unchecked by law.

It is a symbol that is revered by white supremacists today even more than the official flag of the United States.

Flying it at half staff will rub salt and pepper into the wounds (slave reference intentional) of those grieving the good people who died in that act of terrorism at Mother Emanuel.

That flag flying is a symbol of triumph for everyone who agrees with what Dylann Wolf did.

Take it down.

If your tears are real, TAKE IT DOWN.

Dear Governor Haley~

I am writing to you today because I am concerned about the message our state is sending when we have the confederate flag flying high above our state house when the state is dealing with the untimely deaths of those at Mother Emanuel's church in Charleston. My father, along with his 11 siblings, were born and raised in SC. He served this country for freedom. I was raised in South Carolina and my roots run deep in the state. Even though I live in a different state now, I am a proud South Carolinian. It would be a glorious day if and when that flag comes down. I believe our state has ugly truths that we look past, and you Gov. Haley have the power to remove some of that ugly truth. I hope you find it in your heart to address the situation, and if not, it should be done out of respect for those 9 who died, without warning, for OUR freedom. May God bless our beautiful state!

Dear Governor Haley,

As a fellow South Asian American, I urge you to take down the confederate flag in South Carolina. We have a long history of racist, anti-black violence in this country, and after the church shooting, it is our duty to step up and honor the victims by putting down a symbol that represents white supremacy, anti black violence, and segregation. As South Asians, our identities were born and created out of the black struggle in America, who fought for the right of our parents and each other to immigrate the this country, to vote, and be recognized in American society. Please stand in solidarity with our black brothers, sisters, and siblings by making the right choice of taking down that flag. Thank you.

On this day, Juneteenth, and following the dispecable act perpetrated by the white supremecist Dylan Roff at the Mother Emanuel AME church in Charleston, it seems apparent that you are out of touch or in denial about the level of racism that exists in your state and throughout our country as well. As a leader you have the capacity to impact this deep rooted, systematic problem in a positive way if you could just begin to shift the simplistic conversation that is currently happening within conservative circles. Please begin by taking down the very hateful and symbolic Confederate flag that now flies above your actual office. By doing so you might have a chance of actually making a difference for good in this world rather than perpetuating the hate and evil that exists in it.

Madame,

With all do respect I implore you to do what is necessary to have the Confederate flag, a hurtful symbol of our nation's hateful past, lowered in honor of the victims of the AME Church immediately and ultimately removed permanently. Visual reminders like this are hurtful and damaging especially during times when healing and reconciliation are so desperately needed.

Thank you in advance,

Yodit [REDACTED] (from Mi but still hurt by the image of your flag)

I was so moved by Governor Haley's statement about the horrific AME murders & the emotion she evoked. However I have watched the TV as this whole sordid thing is playing out. I have noticed from the pictures on all major channels that the flags at the state Capitol are NOT flying at half-staff. This is appalling and is offensive to me. Please act like you care more for your citizens and for your senator who were all murdered by showing respect by ordering that all flags throughout your state be at half staff for at least a week.

Thank You

The murders of innocent people at the AME Church in Charleston are certainly abhorrent, but haven't enough people died? PLEASE DO NOT INVOKE THE DEATH PENALTY. The perpetrator of this horrendous crime is obviously mentally ill; no one in their right mind would conduct such an atrocity. The killing must stop. The State of SC can set an example by saying that killing is wrong - period. Enough is enough. Taking his life will not bring justice; it will simply be a state sanctioned murder. How is murder ever the right thing to do?

Dear Governor Haley,

Along with countless others, I grieve for the loss of the nine lives at the Emanuel AME Church. I pray that your response will not be "business as usual." I believe that this is the defining moment of your life as a public servant, and that - for a limited time - you have opportunity to demonstrate exceptional leadership, courage, wisdom, and compassion.

I urge you to issue an executive order that calls for the immediate removal of the confederate flag from all state buildings, agencies, and properties. This will only make sense, of course, if your order is accompanied by your delivery of a speech from the State House, a speech that will name Dylann Roof's act for what it was - an act of terrorism by a white supremacist. Your speech would also explain your order as an important act, both symbolic and substantive, that sends a message to the people of South Carolina, the United States, and the world. Your message would be that:

"It is time, finally, for the citizens and leaders of the United States to act decisively, on every front, to end racism. One such action is the removal of the confederate flag as an authorized state symbol. The nostalgia for the "Old South" can no longer be a justification for the honoring and public display of the confederate flag. The people of South Carolina, the United States, and the world, must recognize the confederate flag for what it is: a blatant symbol of racism.

The removal of the confederate flag will not address the American romance with guns, or our underdeveloped response to mental illness. These are issues which also must be addressed. But today, let us take one decisive step to undermine the tacit public approval of racism by public institutions. Today, let the world know that the people of South Carolina have woken up, have seen the face of racism, and are taking steps to dismantle its last vestiges. Of course, removal of the confederate flag is a dramatic step - but it can only be a beginning. We will also continue this important work by... [list at least 3 substantive, sustainable, state-wide, institutional changes].

In closing, I pray that the nine lives lost this week in Charleston will not have been lost in vain, but that they will inspire all of us to finally end racism in America, once and for all. I call for President Obama, and for all Americans, to join us in this effort. God Bless our brothers and sisters of all races, national origins, and religions, and God Bless the United States of America.

I was touched by your genuinely emotional response to the massacre of nine people in the sacred and historic Charleston AME church.

The entire country was brought to tears by the actions of a deranged murderer.

Now is the time for you to do the HISTORIC thing and TAKE DOWN that deeply, deeply offensive confederate flag from the Capital grounds.

The civil war was lost more that 150 YEARS AGO! Move on.

South Carolina was wrong in 1860 when it became the first state to secede in defense of slavery and wrong through the Civil War when it fought to keep people enslaved and wrong when it again raised that flag over the capitol in 1962 as a direct response to the civil rights movement.

Raised that flag in 1962?

INDEED!

Lindsey Graham was WAY off base when he said that offensive flag is "how we are."

You, Governor, can do the right and HISTORIC thing by taking down that flag.

NOW!

Governor Haley, thank you for your leadership to date as we deal with the horrible tragedy at Mother Emmanuel AME Church in Charleston. However, it's far past time, and the right time, to forever lower the Confederate flag that flies on the capitol grounds in Columbia. While I am not a "son of the South," I am choosing to raise my son in the Lowcountry. I want to be proud of the state in which we have chosen to live. The insistence on flying that flag, which represents so much hatred and racism, will forever remain a stain on this great state. Please take it down.

 <MSG>

Hello Ms. Haley,

I am writing as a proud student at the [REDACTED] who has recently become deeply embarrassed and saddened at the state of her second home of South Carolina. It was amply mentioned in response to the shooting at Emanuel AME church that Charleston and South Carolina are draped with Civil War memorabilia that send a signal to black Americans that they are not welcome in our state. The Confederate flag hangs at a governmental institution, defended because it symbolizes the "culture" of the state. However, this culture was formed from years of historical racial tension and it is past time that we recognize that as a shameful trait to be overcome rather than something to be proud of. I ask you as a citizen hopeful for the progress of the state and universal equality that you reconsider the position of the Confederate flag and other South Carolina symbols of white supremacy including those streets that bare the names of Confederate generals. Additionally, I would love to create a force on the CofC campus that fights for modern civil rights in our city so if you have any advice for me, I will listen appreciatively.

Thank you for your time,

Caroline [REDACTED]

Dear Governor Haley,

In the wake of the racially charged recent events in the Charleston area - first, the gunning down of an unarmed black man in N. Charleston by a white police officer and most recently, the savage murders of 9 black people in a church, practicing the Christian faith - I respectfully ask that you make these horrible events into an opportunity to do good. Take the flag down. Please do what it takes to take it down. At its best, it is nostalgia for a time in American history that needs to be just that: history. At its worst, it is a symbol of a slavery-approving, repressive regime whose fight for recognition was fortunately doomed from the start. We all as Americans need to move on. Thank you for the opportunity to comment, and thank you for the personal sympathy you have shown to the survivors of the shootings. Sincerely, Allison [REDACTED]

After the shooting in Charleston, it is obvious that armed, law bidding citizens are a positive move for South Carolina. I have talked to our church, and suggested a "safety" committee. Several people in the congregation would be armed. Congregants would be directed to DUCK if some one came in with a gun, several would take down the intruder with return fire, rather than everyone being a sitting duck. BAN GUN FREE ZONES !

This is your moment of history - a true revolutionary fork in the road for South Carolina.

This is your opportunity to lead South Carolina out of its historical roots of white racism and white prejudice.

This is the time to stop characterizing the racial murder as a "mental health" event. It is a racist-hate-crime borne out of the filthy hate that your supporters voice in the quiet of your private conversations with them.

This is the time to tell your prejudiced supports and bigot acquaintances that you will no longer ignore the conditions that our government treats minorities.

This is the time to let the U.S. Federal Courts to try this murderer as a racist that he is; not a sick misguided deranged person as you are attempting to do. The entire racist history of this state needs to be exposed in an historical record, as it is what gives rise to this one incident driven by our historical racial hate. We need this to disavow this inheritance. Future generations need to learn from where we came from.

This is the time to advance hate crime legislation in South Carolina.

This is the time to recognize the past injustices created out of our wealth disparities supported by the political establishment of South Carolina and provide a modicum of health services either through enhanced state services or enrollment into Medicare, invest in equity in the distribution of the educational funds.

This is the time to remove that racist flag off the capital grounds.

And I must say I cannot understand why a company like Volvo will move to South Carolina as the racism will work its way into the worker-supervisor relationships as they do at Boeing. No responsible corporate leader should consider relocating to our state in the face to the subvocal racism that permeates this state's legislative leaders despite the financial incentives provided.

The opportunity afforded you today, if you take the challenge, can move our state forward; or backwards if you fail to lead in making the changes needed.

You above all should know that what the state needs is leadership to lay the foundation for a healthy future in South Carolina.

Please take us down the road leading out of the two-tiered values now held to a place where we are free of the current bigotry, contradiction and prejudice.

South Carolinians DO NOT "absolutely want" the death penalty for alleged shooter Dylann Roof. They absolutely want the end of the silent racism and political racial hypocrisy.

I'm very upset over the Charleston massacre. I hope that the Governor and the Legislature will come to the conclusion that appeasing the haters and gun carriers in the State is leading to this kind of outcome. TAKE DOWN THE REBEL FLAG and pass legislation that controls guns. Anyone who feels the need to carry a gun has in the back of his mind that he is going to "have to" kill someone. Even if this costs one of you a re-election, in order to live with yourself, you need to do the right thing.

No child in SC should have to look at a rebel flag or corner gun shop and be raised in fear.

I just heard on the news that you would like the death penalty for this young man who shot 9 people. These shootings keep happening in the U.S. by very troubled, mentally ill people who somehow are able to get their hands on guns. Could you not see, when you looked into his evil eyes, a young man who is mentally ill? His own father gave him a gun for his birthday! What father gives their child a gun, what good father anyways? It is only in our country, which has become an embarrassment, that this is happening.

So we are going to put to death another troubled kid and what is that going to solve?? And who are we to take someone's life? Do they preach that in your S. Carolina churches?

The problem is gun control and mental illness in this country that no one is doing anything about! And I guarantee there will be another shooting again and again until this country can come together and help do something about these problems. We need gun control!!! Are you people dense? We need to stop the antidepressants which are being doled out like candy. They have horrible side effects!

It's real easy to put someone to death. However, obviously not so easy to tackle these very serious problems. I will be looking to see what you are going to do to address these problems.

<SUBJECT>The Confederate Flag in South Carolina</SUBJECT>

<MSG>

Dear Governor Haley,

I express my condolences to the state of South Carolina for the recent events at the AME Church. But those events were not an act of God. They were an act of man and the history of the south is crucial to what happened.

I was born in Burlington North Carolina. All my life I've vacationed on the beaches of the Carolinas, from below Charleston to Myrtle to Sunset Beach to Wrightsville Beach. I live in California now but my family has flown back many times to continue the family tradition.

But no more. Not in South Carolina. I want the Confederate flags to come down. We all know they are a symbol of racism. My father taught me that as a child (my parents were white). The flag regained its popularity in the early 1960s as a symbol of protest against the civil rights movement. The flag stands for white supremacy, slavery, Jim Crow, and everything shameful about the south. You, as a brown-skinned woman should know that history, and how hateful and ignorant it is.

I know changing a flag is symbolic. But in this case it is an important symbol because it still has meaning. One day in the far future it won't have any more meaning than a Roman war flag would today. But today it still means something that is deeply shameful and embarrassing to a democracy. It's an obstacle, a dead weight attached to a living country. To act as if the Confederate flag stands for a virtuous history is a lie. That produces events like what occurred in that church. South Carolina politicians need to grow up and say what they know to be true in their hearts. They need to lead by getting rid of that flag now.

Thank you,

</MSG>

Dear Governor...

As I watched your appearance this morning on the "Today" show, you struck me as very genuine as you talked about how much of a "hate crime" the AME Church shootings were, that was until, I saw what is known throughout our country to be "The Confederate Flag" still flying over your state buildings. That is representative of hate in itself, and you know this. You ought to be ashamed of the fact that flag still flies over your state, the ONLY state to still fly that flag and TAKE IT DOWN!!! When white supremacists look up to the flag, what do you think stimulates them? It continues to reinforce old racist ideas and killings of innocent people. That young man that walked into that church flew one, the KKK still flies it. When are you going to take a stand and put some action behind your emotional words of sorrow and regret over all of these tragedies. Really, it makes you look like a foolish liar to the American public. Oh, and I read some where that you won't fly that flag at half-mast, alongside the American flag that is at half-mast for the dead...you know what that looks like to the KKK-minded folks...now the hate flag stands the tallest!

Governor,

Before you become too much of an embarrassment, you should push for: a) a gun control law similar to Connecticut's that is proven to reduce such deaths, and b) removal of all confederate flags on State buildings throughout your state. It is absolutely shameful what has happened in South Carolina and your failed leadership, Governor, is partly responsible.

Shame on you! This recent act was racism pure and simple. Domestic terrorism. The young man said he wanted to start a race war. Stop skirting the issue and saying it was a killing against Christians. Or that you have no idea what motivates an individual like this. Really? He told the police very clearly. He didn't walk into a church full of white Christians. Call it what it is. If this had a been a muslim that walked into a church full of white folks and killed nine people you would not hesitate. It's embarrassing. How do you govern or look in the mirror. SHAME.

I am a second-generation American of Indian descent. I am saddened and outraged by the shootings in Charleston. I understand that you have defended the display of the Confederate flag on the grounds of the statehouse in Columbia. PLEASE take down the flag, which is a symbol of racist ideology and actions targeting Black communities. As an Indian American, I stand against racism and inequity. I hope you will too.

Dear Governor

I noticed you appeared to chock up and appeared bewildered, on your comments about the murder of some of your citizens in a house of worship in Charleston, and you appeared to be baffled by it all.

MY understanding is that there are at least 8 hate organizations based, or have offices in your state including the KKK, and that your state fly's the confederate flag with pride I assume, and have a memorial to the soldiers of that war, that parents sent/approved going to kill and be killed so that those that lived might have the right to own people of color, and that same mindset appears to be held by that 21 year old admitted murderer, and you and those in power can not understand that. You need to look in the mirror or read a history book if you are still bewildered, is my opinion

Thanks

Bob [REDACTED]

I'm a southern born of south Carolina. I support that battle flag as a sign of heritage, pride, and southern independence. And I do not like hearing how just cause someone has pride for their region means they are racist just cause of the flag that they use. In documented history the KKK use Christian, American, and confederate flags in their rallies, yet cause people do not wish to associate the other two flags, they pick on the smaller flag..

I am a white, 58 year old male. I believe it is time to remove the confederate battle flag from the statehouse. Given the events in Charleston this week and the calls for unity and coming together, it would be a positive, long overdue, and appropriate response to now remove "the flag" from the peoples' of SC public property. The flag which is flown in front of the state capital is the same flag which the arrested suspect, and self-proclaimed white supremacist, posed beside. It is a symbol of a past, and repressive, time. Given the reactions to race issues in other parts of the country this past year, SC has shown we are a society which seeks out reconciliation and unity, not violence and further divisiveness. Removing the flag now would be viewed by the majority of South Carolinians and the country as a positive and bold action by our leadership and one which would honor Senator Clementa Pinckey.

Gov. Haley,

I learned this morning that South Carolina legislature still is flying the Confederate flag outside their Capitol building. I am taking time out of my vacation to write you an email to urge you to take the flag down.

I am shocked and saddened that our own government is displaying such a symbol of hate and racism in this day and age. Society will never learn to treat people equally regardless of the color of their skin, their gender, their religion, or anything else if our own government falls victim to displaying racist symbols. No, the flag is not a historical artifact, no more than the swastika is a historical artifact. It is a symbol of hate.

Displaying the confederate flag, especially in the wake of the Charleston shooting, is racist and insensitive. It is offensive to the victims, their families, and every person that is devastated by this news, and just utterly shocking that the South Carolina government still displays a symbol of intolerance and violence when they should be standing for justice, freedom, and acceptance. Set an example before another hate crime occurs. Take the flag down.

Sincerely,

Miriam [REDACTED]

Gov. Haley:

I lived in South Carolina for nearly 40 years before I retired from [REDACTED]. The best thing you can do for your State and your people in the aftermath of the Charleston shooting is to campaign for removing the Confederate Flag from State House grounds. That, more than seeking the death penalty for an obviously disturbed young man, would send a clear message of closure and uniting to citizens in the State and around the country.

 <SUBJECT>Confederate flag</SUBJECT>
 <MSG>

Carl von Clausewitz, a Prussian military theorist wrote "War is a continuation of politics by other means". In the case of the confederate flag we have - Politics as a continuation of war by other means. The reality is the north won the civil war and the Federal Government has allowed South Carolina (and others), to display the flag of the enemy. Let's call it what it is - institutionalized racism. A political entity wins a war and allows the conquered to fly their flag? If someone carries a flag representing ISIS or a Swastika in a public space in the U.S., not even in Baghdad or Berlin, what happens? We see the symbols of conquered regimes hidden, desecrated, and in some cases erased by their conquerors over and over, and we know the meaning behind these gestures, yet the federal government has given the confederate flag a pass - Why? Clearly, there is a double standard at play. The reason the confederate flag has flown for as long as it has and remained popular in mainstream culture is the same reason we have police brutality on communities of color, the same reason they have not brought terrorism charges in the Charleston shooting and against the KKK and the other domestic "hate groups". Let's call it what it is...Racism and the root of it is that many "ethnically white" people hold onto the idea that, as a whole, they are genetically superior and people of color are entitled to less because of it. Any challenge to this ideology is almost always met with violence. The confederate flag symbolizes many things, but the overwhelming meanings it carries are succession from the Unites States of America, the continuing violence and subjugation of people of color and white superiority. And "We the People" seem to have tolerated and to some degree participated in this blatant institutionalized racism. I'm glad this issue has been addressed at this critical time. Our government should remove the confederate flag from public display. After all, if the "Civil War" is really over, then let's act like it.

I am hoping you honor the lives of the people murdered in Charleston by being honest and apolitical. Take down the confederate flag, acknowledge this was a terrorist attack by a racist, and acknowledged there is a real need for gun control.

If you don't admit that is what is needed, you are being dishonest....typical conservative Republican, full of empty words.

Dear Governor Nikki Haley,

I would like to request that you empower the General Assembly of the State of South Carolina to burn and destroy the Confederate Flag in front of the State Courthouse in Columbia, South Carolina. I understand that you are unable to do this yourself, but given the shooting this past week of 9 Black Americans at the hands of a terrorist who built many of his beliefs and reasoning of the shooting on the beliefs on the core principles and history of the Confederacy, I would like to ask that the flag be burned or otherwise destroyed immediately, as to prove that this state does not stand by the racist and oppressive values of the confederacy.

Good Afternoon, Gov. Haley.

First, my condolences to Charleston and all of us who are touched by this horrific act. I wasn't sure who to forward this information to or if it was known yet, so I chose you. I've been online since early Thursday morning trawling for information and just came across this Youtube video.

https://www.youtube.com/all_comments?v=cFvZ2feRils The author uses a bogus username, but I hope that someone is looking into this posting. Labeling Dylan Roof as a hero and choosing the song that plays in the background is not just offensive, but it's also scary. Someone out there is applauding what he did Wednesday night. I hope someone will look into this and investigate whoever is behind this posting. They are just as dangerous as Mr. Roof if not more so.

Thank you for your care and concern during this most challenging time.

Blessings!

No, governor Haley. When the heart and soul of South Carolina is broken, then racism in America will be dead. Shame, shame shame on all of your hate-enabling souls...

<MSG>

Governor Haley: It strikes me as the height of hypocrisy for the State Government of South Carolina not to recognize the fact that it bears some responsibility for the massacre at Mother Emanuel. As Jon Stewart pointed out in his Thursday night program, South Carolina roads are named after Confederate generals and the Confederate flag flies over your state capital---something with which you personally seem to have absolutely no problem. What happened Wednesday night were the actions of someone who felt entitled to kill---and don't think for one minute that your publicized opinions and your state's willingness to institutionalize and even honor blatant symbols of racism didn't feed into that paranoid sense of entitlement. And please don't even try to offer the usual apologist excuse often used whenever trappings linked with racism, murder---even genocide---are displayed: "It's history." If you wouldn't dream of flying the Nazi swastika over your state capital, you likewise shouldn't be displaying the Confederate flag. The Confederacy was as much about keeping slaves in chains as it was about state's rights. You know it; every Southerner and US citizen with a modicum of education knows it.

Take down that flag: It's a disgusting slap in the face to the wonderful people who died at Mother Emanuel.

Thank you for your time.

South Carolina has become a national disgrace, your state has provided the world with a view of the very alive and ever increasing racism and bigotry that exists in the US.

I am a decorated war veteran, and your state makes me ashamed to ever have served this country! The fact that you embrace, dignify and glorify racist symbols like the confederate flag, your confederate monuments, and the roads, schools and institutions you've named after confederate generals. I will do my best to hurt tourism and business in your state.

The world finally sees South Carolina for what you are, a state steeped in terrorist violence against African Americans, for hundreds of years, and one that loves the history of that state sponsored terrorism. You should feel as disgusting as you are to let these things continue. If you glorify them as a state, than the people that live in your state will glorify them as well. This disgusting terrorist is just a footnote in your history.

Shame on you Nikki Haley, shame on any politician pushing for confederate symbols in your state. Shame on those of you that stand by and do nothing while those symbols are so carefully tended to with dollars from your African American tax payers. Complicit or complacent, you are all disgusting and should be ashamed!

Dear Gov. Haley,

I just called your office and spoke with a gentleman named Jamal. I believe he will be forwarding my suggestion for consideration; but I felt the need to follow up here by email as I am better at writing than I am speaking.

I personally knew Senator Pinckney, his beautiful bride Jennifer and their lovely daughters. They were married just a year after my husband and I. I remember the joy of sitting between them looking thru their wedding photos. Their love and bond was a beautiful thing to behold. Clementa had commanding way of getting your attention with that voice of his (perfect for both of his chosen professions pastor/senator). It was shortly thereafter the TV show 24 came on the scene and actor Dennis Haysbert played the part of the first president of African American descent (Gasp oh my how progressive!! This was BEFORE President Obama burst onto the scene). I loved that show because of that and because I could actually see Senator Pinckney making a fantastic president. He loved God, his country, his state and his family.

The people who perished with him this week were all exceptional people when you look at their profile pictures. All of their smiles shine thru with the light of that church. I am proud to say that in the face of this ugly atrocity, South Carolina seems to have united instead of divided. That says

TONS about the people of the state you represent.

I therefore humbly suggest in honor of this church, their congregation and the ultimate strength of regular South Carolinians that you find a way for us all to show we are united by perhaps picking a Sunday where everyone who drives leaves their high beams on all day while driving or during a designated hour. Because the light of their (victims)love shines thru this travesty. And I think they would want to share that light. Thank you Governor Haley for all that you do for South Carolina.

Sincerely yours, Susan [REDACTED]

We can't pretend to be astonished that a young man grows up hating black people, while proudly flying a symbol of white supremacy above our state house. I'll believe it's a symbol of "southern pride" when I see a southern black person display it. It's a vile, hateful reminder that a significant number of our citizens still feel wronged by the fact that they can't own people any more. And today, especially, as you lower the US flag to half staff in mourning while leaving the banner of oppression flying high, it is a horrid disrespect to a community that has been through so much. Take it down. Please.

I am horrified by the events in Charleston and the fact (unknown to me previously) that South Caroline continues to fly the confederate flag - a symbol of racial divide and oppression. The flag should be removed immediately from all public building in a direct response that shows the nation that this type of racially motivated hate crime is not tolerated. For South Carolina to continue to fly the confederate flag in the face of racial hate crimes is unfathomable.

Dear Governor Haley

I cannot help but notice that in the wake of the Massacre in Charleston, the confederate battle flag is flying at full staff at the Capital. I am sure the shooter is very proud of that flag and that for which it stands.

This flag represents a losing idea (slavery), and the losing side that supported it. It has been proudly waved by the Ku Klux Klan, the American Nazi Party, the Aryan Nations Church, and every other mob of bigots, racists, and similar knuckle-draggers. It has been co opted by outlaw motorcycle gangs, anti government people like Cliven Bundy's supporters, and a host of other wing nuts who have nothing to do with the Civil War.

If you must honor your confederate ancestors, may I humbly suggest the Stars and Bars flag as a substitute? It is less easily recognized and does not have the racist bigot baggage and bloodshed associated with the Confederate Battle Flag, aka THE LOSER FLAG.

The Loser Flag's time has passed and this horrible mass murder is a fine opportunity to make a statement against racism and take that damned flag down.

Dear Governor Haley:

I'm writing personally to ask you to immediately remove the Confederate flag flying in the seat of your government. This request is unrelated to politics; I am not African American & am writing from Florida. Neither of us can undo the heinous, race-based shooting that took place in N. Charleston. But you can immediately act to remove from the state house, the flag that does not and should not represent your government today. It is part of our history and if these flags are in state historical museums, so be it. Your failure to act immediately to remove this symbol of oppression that has no place in today's government is tantamount to being part of the problem in promoting racist culture and violence. This something you can do, and I believe you owe it to your state and country to do it-today.

Sincerely,

Dr. Stephanie [REDACTED]

Your first act after the church massacre in Charleston should have been to take down the Confederate flag flying over S. Carolina's State Capitol. This is not the first murder performed by a person wearing the "Stars and Bars" on their hat, car, or in their front yard. My ancestors come from Confederate States but my parents never, thank goodness, passed that "tradition" on to us. The flag is being used - and badly - by home-grown, domestic terrorists. It has lost any other historical meaning.

Remove the Confederate flag from state government offices.

Dear Governor Haley,

I appreciate the fact that you and many other leaders in South Carolina have spoken with one voice in condemning the horrific attack at Emanuel African Methodist Episcopal Church in Charleston. However, I do not believe it is appropriate for a public official to call for the death penalty BEFORE a criminal trial has taken place and a conviction obtained. Whatever its intent this has the appearance of pandering to the baser sentiments of the populace. It would be better to call for laws to make firearms less easy to obtain for criminals, psychopaths, and terrorists. That is not easy, but it is the best path forward for us as a society and deserves the application of your talent and energy.

Sincerely,

Allan [REDACTED]

Governor Haley:

Good morning. While I am sure you're overwhelmed with emails, phone calls, press meetings, ranters, hate-mongers, activists, advocates, and so forth, I simply wanted to share a concern that fellow seminarians in Columbus, Ohio, share in the aftermath of the Charleston AME shooting this week. Might removing the Confederate flag from atop the Statehouse be one small action taken for change and unity in a state where racially-motivated hatred still runs all too high?

I currently work at a [REDACTED] church on Columbus, Ohio's eastside, in a mostly black neighborhood. Our congregation is largely white and affluent. There is always tension between being 'for the community' while knowing that our socio-economic background is far different than the community our church resides in. Much work will always need done in the United States to overcome hate and discrimination. I hope that South Carolina can be a forerunner in policy change and action to prevent further gun violence and racially-motivated crimes.

Thank you for your time,

Scott C. [REDACTED]

As the leader of the State of South Carolina it is important that you demand that the confederate flag no longer be an acceptable symbol representing South Carolina along side the American Flag and the State Flag. There is no equivalence among these symbols. The Confederate flag is a sign of hatred....hatred that leads to racial divisiveness...a very unhealthy divisiveness which led to the deaths of eight innocent and Godly black South Carolinians. They lost their lives just because they were Black Americans.....not because they were christians, but because they were Black Americans. It is time for South Carolina leaders speak out. Many say you have to be considerate of those who's families died fighting for the Confederacy....The Confederacy can still be celebrated....but the State should not sanction such a celebration nor accept such a symbol of hatred. It is time to end this madness. As the leader of our state, your statement against this symbol of hate will make a difference...I pray that you have the political will to support the removal of the flag as an acceptable symbol of South Carolinians. Even if corporations are not concerned....it is not their employees who are being killed because of racial prejudices.

Respectfully,

Melody [REDACTED]
