Hello. I am product manager for the DirectCourse evidence based eLearning curriculum called College of Personal Assistance & Caregiving useful for caregivers, personal assistants and self-directing consumers.

If you will be attending the HCBS conference, Tuesday, September 1 and Wednesday the 2nd in Washington, DC, I invite you to drop by the DirectCourse exhibit and introduce yourself.

Speaking with industry leaders like you provides me information to improve our products and guide development of new content to meet changing needs.

I hope to meet you.

Tom Carpenter
