Hello South Carolina Job Profilers,

The South Carolina Department of Employment and Workforce (DEW) has partnered with several state agencies and with ACT to launch South Carolina Certified Work Ready Communities (CWRC). SC CWRC is a community-based workforce development infrastructure built upon WorkKeys and the National Career Readiness Certificate.

On behalf of the SC CWRC team, I would like to invite you to join me in Columbia on the morning of Wednesday, August 15 to discuss South Carolina's CWRC initiative and how you can be a part of it. WorkKeys job profiling will be a key component of SC Work Ready Communities -- so we're planning a wide-ranging conversation about how to best work together.

We'll send details regarding location and agenda in a few weeks, but please go ahead and mark your calendar for Aug. 15 -- I hope to see you in Columbia.

Regards,
Debra
