

JAMES D. STACK

James D. Stack, 84, of Gonzales Gardens, died at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the Columbia hospital after an illness of one week.

He had been a lifelong resident of Columbia and Richland county. He was a member of Pisgah Methodist church, State Park and was a Spanish-American War veteran.

He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Eloise Carloe of Jacksonville, Fla., and Miss Mary Stack of the WAVES stationed in Washington, D. C.; eight sons, Walter K. Stack, William H. Stack, F. T. Stack, all of Columbia; Wade H. Stack of Shaw Field, Harry J. Stack, Franklin D. Stack, John H. Stack and Douglas Stack, all of Jacksonville, Fla.

Funeral arrangements were incomplete last night. The body will remain at the Thompson Funeral home until the funeral hour.

The State

3/29/47