We Have Yet To Confirm This, But Clinton Has Deep Saudi Ties

Working alongside WikiLeaks and Julian Assange, Judicial Watch released a batch of 296 emails showing Hillary Clinton committing MORE crimes, but they also show how dirty and complicit Huma Abedin has been. The emails of Hillary Clinton go back until 2003, but we are working tirelessly to confirm that they go back further to show what Hillary was doing around 2000-2001. While this photo is unconfirmed, we know Hillary has strong ties to Saudi Arabia, whom was behind 9/11. We are working to confirm.

Huma has been Hillary's top aide since before 2000, so she has been around all of the corruption, lies, and scandals for quite some time. In these newly released emails, we uncover many things, but the main takeaway is that not only did Hillary commit and allow more crimes, her aide (Huma) was right there doing the exact same things.

The Justice Department and FBI may have allowed Hillary to skirt charges, but patriots like WikiLeaks and Judicial Watch are working tirelessly to reveal the truth behind Crooked Hillary. Judicial Watch filed a suit under the Freedom of Information Act, which Judicial Watch <<http://www.judicialwatch.org/press-room/press-releases/judicial-watch-uncovers-new-batch-hillary-clinton-emails/>> released yesterday.

There are always more. Amazing.

To begin, one of the first things the email release highlights is that back in July, Huma Abedin testified in a deposition where she indicated that Hillary Clinton destroyed

<<http://twitchy.com/doug-3137/2016/07/04/feel-the-burn-hillary-clintons-transparency-brag-goes-up-in-flames-again/>> a ton of her schedules when she was Secretary of State.

Ask yourself, why would Hillary Clinton put hundreds of her own travel logs in a burn bag to have destroyed? The deposition also reveals that Abedin was "extremely careless" with a sensitive document, emailing another aide to let her know Clinton's schedule was left sitting on a bed in an unlocked hotel room. They obviously do not care about keeping our secrets protected or they wouldn't continue to be so careless.

To make matters even worse, WikiLeaks reveals that Huma Abedin had access to Hillary Clinton's Secretary of State email address that wasn't secured. Clinton often needed naps and clearly has a mental health issue, so she allowed Huma to use her email server to send replies and read what was coming through. To be clear, Huma did NOT have the clearance to operate under this capacity.

It gets much, much worse. In these emails from 2009, Doug Band, a Clinton Foundation official, pushed hard for an associate position. In the released emails, we can see Band sending emails to former aides under Hillary Clinton at the State Department Cheryl Mills and Huma Abedin that it is "important to take care of [Redacted]."

Band said we need to "take care of [redacted]," doesn't that sound like a mob boss wanting to take someone out? Why would they redact his/her name when they turned over the emails if it wasn't serious? The emails continue with Abedin telling Band that "personnel is sending him options."

According to Judicial Watch:

A new document production is a 2009 email in which Band, directs Abedin and Mills to put Lebanese-Nigerian billionaire and Clinton Foundation donor Gilbert Chagoury

<<http://www.judicialwatch.org/document-archive/jw-v-state-abedin-production-9-00684-pg-255/>> in touch with the State Department's "substance person" on Lebanon. Band notes that Chagoury is "key guy there [Lebanon] and to us," and insists that Abedin call Amb. Jeffrey Feltman to connect him to Chagoury.

Chagoury is a close friend of former President Bill Clinton and a top donor to the Clinton Foundation. He has appeared near the top of the Foundation's donor list as a $1 million to $5 million contributor, according to foundation documents

<http://online.wsj.com/public/resources/documents/st_clintondonor_20081218.html>

. He also pledged

<<http://abcnews.go.com/Blotter/no-fly-terror-list-includes-big-donor-clinton-initiative/story?id=9791786>> $1 billion to the Clinton Global Initiative.

According to a 2010 investigation by PBS Frontline, Chagoury was convicted in 2000 in Switzerland for laundering money from Nigeria, but agreed to a plea deal and repaid $66 million to the Nigerian government.

What we are seeing is another major case of corruption. We see the actions of Clinton's top aides' getting favors for and setting up interactions with the Clinton Foundation, which are clear violations of the ethics agreements that Hillary Clinton agreed to when she was appointed as our Secretary of State.

Huma Acknowledging Hillary Needs Naps And Is Often Confused

As another example, one of the duties of Secretary of State was actually acknowledged by Hillary Clinton herself in a letter she wrote to the State Department Designated Agency Ethics Official James H. Thessin:

"For the duration of my appointment as Secretary if I am confirmed, I will not participate personally and substantially in any particular matter involving specific parties in which The William J. Clinton Foundation (or the Clinton Global Initiative) is a party or represents a party...."

Hillary knows she is not supposed to exchange political favors. Yet, she continues to act recklessly and as if she is above the law. But wait, there is one more good twist to this story.

In 2009, Stephen Roach, chairman of Morgan Stanley Asia, sent Hillary a copy of his upcoming testimony

<http://www.judicialwatch.org/document-archive/jw-v-state-abedin-production-9-00-684-pg-5-29/> before Congress. In the letter he sent Clinton, he mentions that he is going to condemn any U.S. efforts to criticize Chinese monetary policy or enact trade barriers.

This is very important because just a few days later, Hillary asked Abedin about Roach possibly "connecting <http://www.judicialwatch.org/document-archive/jw-v-state-abedin-production-9-00-684-pg-80/> " with her while she was in Beijing: "I forwarded you my email to him about connecting in Beijing. Can he come to the embassy or other event?"

Here is where the dots connect: Morgan Stanley is a long-time financial supporter of the Clinton's. This is another "pay for play" situation. The coordinated policy and crafted it together.

The emails also show that Hillary Clinton KNEW her email server was vulnerable and unsecured. In February of 2009, several emails are listed that show Hillary was going back and forth with security officials in the State Department and the National Security Administration over attempts for Clinton and her team to obtain secure BlackBerrys.

Clinton wanted to use top secret information on a cell phone! Thankfully that request was denied. It is very easy to steal a cell phone, and you saw the reference above where Huma and Hillary were leaving sensitive documents lying around on beds with doors open and unlocked. This entire story is insane and it all should have been avoided.

Hillary Clinton has repeatedly stated that she turned over to the State Department in December 2014 all of her work-related emails. These emails PROVE that she once again LIED! When will we ever learn she cannot be trusted?

There's always more. Judicial Watch has posted all of the emails and here is a video of their president commenting on his teams findings:

We encourage the mainstream media to investigate this. They won't because it is another damaging blow to their favorite candidate Hillary Clinton, but this is another breaking news story. Hillary allowed her aide with ZERO security clearance to respond to emails on her private State Dept. server; the Clinton team left documents in rooms that were unsecured for anyone to take them; Hillary pushed for her team to use cell phones for classified information, and she was caught lying about turning all her emails over!

We must unite as one to beat her in November. We cannot beat her with just stories; these stories must go viral so the media is forced to report on it.

Facebook censors posts like this, so if you share it enough, it will gain enough attention to where they have to keep it up. Share this with everyone so that we can continue to grow our platform for Donald Trump and put Hillary away for good. Let's do this together!
