

Account: South Carolina State Parks

Content type: Facebook Page - Timeline posts

Record ID: 20100721South-Carolina-State-ParksTimeline-posts52748_104614432925169

South Carolina State Parks

at 16:11:38 on 7/21/2010 UTC ·

Happy Wednesday! We know many of you camp, but who out there enjoys staying in our cabins and villas? Tell us about your favorite cabin or villa, and which park it's located at.

Jean Calvert My extended family rented a large and beautiful house at Table Rock. Right on the water, and what an incredible view, especially on the dock.

at 16:13:55 on 7/21/2010 UTC

Belinda Gilbert-Parham We stayed in the Edisto cabins, and really liked it :0)

at 16:15:40 on 7/21/2010 UTC

Donna Sanders Bradley Cabin 6--Oconee State Park, lots of fun family memories there. We got the same cabin every year. Oconee State Park still feels like home!

at 16:15:57 on 7/21/2010 UTC

Kimberly Duncan If I told you, it would make reservations harder to come by! Sorry. Must be selfish here. I will say I love the soup outta Devil's Fork State Park!

at 16:19:24 on 7/21/2010 UTC

Whitley Baugham I've stayed at Devils Fork SP, Santee SP, and Givhants Ferry SP, Hunting Island SP, Huntington Beach SP all were very cozy and homey. I love camping but taking it to the next level and staying in a cabin is my cup of tea :)

at 16:22:08 on 7/21/2010 UTC

Michelle Lonçon-Dawkins never have stayed in a cabin, but was hoping to get one at hunting island. sad to realize that you only have one left. dang erosion! :(

at 16:37:11 on 7/21/2010 UTC

Paula Duffell-Simmons Cabins at Oconee State Park

at 16:42:24 on 7/21/2010 UTC

Julie Etheridge Jones Oconee State Park. Beautiful!!

at 16:44:56 on 7/21/2010 UTC

Brenda Parks-Arms Try James Island SP....close enough outside Charleston and close to Folly beach!

at 17:05:28 on 7/21/2010 UTC

Poppa Danny Would love to rent one of the Parks cabins but y'all don't allow pets. So the state Parks are out of the question for me.

at 17:23:55 on 7/21/2010 UTC

Kevin Rodriguez Hunting Island cabins were the best. Hopfully they will be able to save or relocate them.

at 17:32:37 on 7/21/2010 UTC

David Warren Poinsett State Park and Givhans ferry have great cabins. I like the no pet rule. Pets have fleas, bark, and smell. Leave your pets with friends or a kennel.

at 18:13:12 on 7/21/2010 UTC

Kim Eldridge Sprouse Dreher Island state park villas are great!

at 19:24:08 on 7/21/2010 UTC

Ellen Woodoff My favorite cabin will be the one that allows dogs...please? Pet-friendly is the new in-thing!

at 20:16:12 on 7/21/2010 UTC

Brenda Parks-Arms Sorry for the pets that can't stay at the parks. Still when there are children and adults with severe allergy problems or asthma many people are relieved to know they're staying somewhere that keeps pets at a safe distance.

at 20:57:32 on 7/21/2010 UTC

Kim Bendillo My faves are the cabins at Devil's Fork State Park, at Lake Jocassee--but please, please install ceiling fans on those fabulous screened porches!!! ;)

at 22:56:56 on 7/21/2010 UTC

Tammy Nevills I agree with Kim - ceiling fans on the porch would be nice! Fave cabin is #13 at DF, and apparently I'm not alone on that, as it is very hard to get reservations for that one these days! (hello from Indiana - missing SC!)

at 2:41:28 on 7/22/2010 UTC

Kristi Robbs My favorite is cabin #7 at Edisto Beach. I would love to have the floor plan of that cabin. It is so roomy and I love the screen porch overlooking the marsh.

at 10:36:56 on 7/22/2010 UTC