

Dear Sir:

Re: November 2nd Correspondence/Meeting with President Barack Obama

We appreciate your request for meeting with President Obama. As the relationship between our two countries continues to blossom, gestures such as yours signal the strengthening of an already deep friendship.

While the details of the President's visit are still being finalized, it is certain that he will only be in India for a short while. His schedule will be a full one and we are delighted by the many requests we receive daily for him, First Lady Michelle Obama and other high-level members of the U.S. Government.

It is unlikely that any new events will be added to the President's visit schedule at this time. Should this situation change and your invitation is considered, however, rest assured that we will be in touch with you.

Thank you again for being in touch.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Jason A. Donovan", with a long horizontal flourish extending to the right.

Jason A. Donovan

First Secretary
U.S. Embassy New Delhi