As a new resident I was unaware until today that the confederate flag flies over the state house in SC. I don't want to live in state that proudly flies that flag. This is not how I want my new home state to be seen by the rest of the country. I'm embarrassed. Please remove it now...this is not representative of me or many other people who live, work or vacation here. Vivian [REDACTED]

I'm an Indian American and I, like you, am saddened and outraged by the shootings in Charleston. I understand that you have defended the display of the Confederate flag on the grounds of the statehouse in Columbia, but I think it's time to change that and for you to take a stand as someone who understands and is a minority. Please take down the flag which is a symbol of racist ideology and only serves to strengthen those with the racist values that the Charleston shooter espoused. As an Indian American, someone of South Asian descent, I stand against racism and inequity through symbolism in our country. And I pray that you will too.

Why not fly all other hateful symbols of history? How are you not concerned? I do not feel you even consider how offensive this is to so many. I am not of color but am very ashamed of it when people like you represent what bigoted, racist, and hateful people the white race can be. Give it up and step into the twenty first century already. I was in SC many years ago when I was in the Marine Corps. Please, take the flag down. Be the person that recognizes the hate that is symbolized in the flag and take it down. During my years in SC I met and married my husband. He's black and I'm white. People felt quite comfortable in SC telling us they would burn a cross in our yard. We have a beautiful daughter and she now has two beautiful children. Take it down. Send the message that everyone is valued and respected in SC and there is no place for hate in such a beautiful state. We moved to raise our daughter in a State that didn't stand for hate. Please, take it down. Be remembered for taking a stand against hate.

Governor Haley,

Please remove the Confederate flag from your statehouse.

The dark motivations that led to the shooting in Charleston were born in the same gloom that gave rise to that flag.

It shames our entire nation.

Young Mr. Roof stated he wanted to start a war. As such this was Treason against SC. If the VA Gov. could invoke Treason and hang John Brown then as Governor of the State of SC and an ex Clemson man and one who see Mr. Roof as a stain on what the CSA flag etc re[resents You MUST see that his war against SC citizens was Treason and I believe you owe a duty to SC to have him prosecuted for Treason against State of SC. As he said he has made WAR upon SC. SC Sons of Confederate Veterans will stand behind you doing so Do NOT let the Confederate Flag be stained by the TReason. You will gain the respect of all citizens of SC His statements to effect of war merit this response.

Recent racially based terrorist crimes in your great state re-emphasize the need to get rid of racism and all its symbols in all government affairs. The fact that it's still flying, and apparently at full mast is disgusting beyond belief.

Our prayers are with you and your state at this difficult time. Thank you for pushing for the death penalty for this murderer. Once they realize that they will get lethal injection as opposed to a few years in a mental hospital, I suspect fewer people will follow in this freaks footsteps.

I urge to to ignore divisive outside voices that seek to use this tragedy to get their will. Calls will come and all ready have come for gun control. That will do as much good as the gun free zone at that church did. Calls will come to remove the Confederate flag. The people calling for this will not stop there. So many have this distorted view that the North was all right and the South was all wrong. Growing up in Illinois I have heard this my whole life. As I am sure you know, The Civil War had little to do with slavery. Both sides fought honorably and believed their cause was just. Removing the flag will be the first step. Next statues and even gravestones honoring the dead will be deemed "offensive" and they will demand they be removed.

Stay strong and remember you are called to serve the people of South Carolina, not the pundits of New York, LA and the other outside cities calling for changes. You have a good way of life in your state. Please keep it that way.

Dear Madam Governor, I have watched your reactions for the past couple of days to the terrible events in Charleston. Although you seemed to be initiall moved by the events, your recent reactions are troubling. They seem very politically motivated and intended to protect your reputation and the reputation of S. Carolina. It is all about one awful person and no more and no less; and you are very eager to kill the disturbed and deluded young man. This is clearly not the inclinations of the victims' family members. Please quit using them as an excuse to kill someone else. Governor, you don't "get it"! Never have and probably never will. Isn't it ironic that this young man had on his car a license plate celebrating the Confederate States of America, and you have the same flag flying on your capitol grounds. It is a part of your culture, Governor! A flag of racism, tyranny, hatred and violence. And you don't "get it"! And you are upset that the President is discussing gun violence. Really, Governor!? It is simply all about this one disturbed and deluded one young man who you are eager to kill, no more and no less. Pitiful, Governor. Think! For God's sake think!

And yes, I am a 74 year old white guy.

Dear Governor Nikki Randhawa Haley,

I am a South Asian American and am saddened and outraged by the shootings in Charleston. I understand that you have defended the display of the Confederate flag on the grounds of the statehouse in Columbia. Please take down the flag which is a symbol of racist ideology and actions targeting Black communities. As a South Asian American, I stand against racism and inequity. I hope you will too.

Best regards,

I understand that there are those who consider this part of their "heritage", but it is NOT part of mine. I am a 61 year old white woman and I find it a symbol of hatred, devisiveness and racism. I am not proud that this is on our State House grounds. Put it in a museum. Please don't let this ugly symbol define our state any longer.

Thank you for the opportunity to let you know how I feel.

Thank you for the compassion you have shown during this heart-breaking and deplorable time in our state.

I'd like you to step up after these victims are laid to rest and get that racist flag off the grounds of my state house. We, including you, are honoring a symbol that still fosters hate and causes death. Show that you have really "ended racism" in this state.

Thank you.

Enough with your crocodile tears over the despicable racist murders at the Emanuel AME Church! You've proven over and over with your right wing extremist statements and actions that you are a racist hater yourself. The fact that the Confederate flag still flies in your Capitol, and that you've never spoken out against its presence, tells us all we need to know about you. Quite simply, you are a bigot and a hypocrite.

We always enjoyed vacationing in South Carolina by the ocean. However, we will put that on hold until the state respects others by not flying the Confederate flag. Everyone knows what it stood for and the statement the state is trying to make. It might work for Senator Graham but for many in the country it doesn't work. We are trying to make peace and not divisiveness work. Frankly, I am now afraid to enter South Carolina with your attitudes toward guns and ambivalence towards hate crimes. We will spend our vacation dollars elsewhere.

Thank you,

Judith [REDACTED]

<SUBJECT>Burn that racist banner</SUBJECT>
<MSG>

My condolences to the many families who were affected by the most recent racist murder spree in SC. If you need a clue as to why there is so much rampant racism in your state, just look outside at that hideous confederate battle flag flying above your statehouse. That hateful rag should have died many years ago, and has no place in modern society. It would be a good first step and a bold statement to get rid of it.

We are making alternate plans because we realized (and voted as a group) that we will NOT come to your State as long as you display the Confederate flag and officially approve it.

We will spend our $$ elsewhere.

It's simple...take the confederate down. It's embarrassing to see that anyone would try to justify the significance of this symbol of hate. Then men and women who fought under this flag were fighting for a cause that was and still is considered a dark part of our nation's history. Why fly this hatred? Your state can either be a leader and catalyst for change or continue to be an enabler of hate.

This message is for the Governor/Nikki Haley. Governor Haley. what I want to know is why in 2015, do U alloy a racist, and or slavery type symbol such as the "Confederate Flag" to be flown within the down town area of Charleston as of today? To myself, and other small Businessmen, and Veterans that served this country with honor & respect, see this as U are condoning racism, and or separation of whites & blacks in your state. Also Governor, can U please tell the people that elected U, why U have not shown your face in Charleston for support for the 9-Christian Blacks that was just murdered within their own Church by a racist, and evil 21 year old White man? Unbelievable!! U should be ashamed of yourself! And I don't have to tell U that this type of behavior will not get U re-elected!!!

Governor,

First let me say how sad I am for the people of Charleston and South Carolina.

Secondly, get rid of that so called Conderate Flag it's the same thing as flying the Swastika on your capital grounds. Both flags represent the worst in humanity, death, hatred, control and hatred.

Third, you are the Governor, an office I respect, be the leader of all your people not just those who elect you.

Best of luck, Paul

Dear Governor,

I grew up in Ohio in the 50's, and when I was a little girl, we would go to Myrtle Beach for vacation....also sometimes farther South all the way to Florida.

I was always depressed, devastated, and literally...sick to my stomach...I actually would throw up....when we had to go to restaurants where the bathrooms and doors that had signs designating "Whites Only" or " Blacks ( Negroes, in those days.)Only!

I found it sickening, and I was only 7 or 8 years old!

WHY do you NOT get rid of that Confederate flag at your statehouse? Don't you know how painful it is for so many of our citizens? including myself?

I live in California now, and it is a more " enlightened" state.....

GET rid of your racist banner! PLEASE?

Sincerely, Linda [REDACTED], Malibu, California

If you are so concerned and upset over what happened, order the confederate flag be removed from the capitol in Columbia. I use to live there and my first son was born in Columbia. Remember, it was about slavery and the killing of black people. Put your actions where your tears come from, get it down.

Dear Gov. Haley, In a report in my local newspaper, the Oregonian, it was stated that there are currently SIXTEEN ACTIVE white supremacist groups (gangs) in South Carolina. And yet, I watched a video in which you stated that the issue of whether or not to allow the confederate flag- a symbol of hate- to continue flying at your state capitol is a subject of debate. A subject of debate? Are you kidding? YOUR state harbors SIXTEEN gangs who hate black people. There should be no debate. These groups, their symbols, and everything they stand for should be outlawed.

It is indeed sad that abortion is a bigger concern to your administration (as reflected by your pull-down choices for topics of concern) than are race relations and crime. I guess a zygote is more important to the people and the governor of South Carolina than is the life of a mother or a sun gunned down by a deranged killer egged on by institutional racism. Your state flies the Confederate flag over the state building to this day - a symbol that insults African Americans and all who cherish true freedom and liberty. I suppose it is an appropriate symbol of the ingrained inequities that you and your administration in South Carolina aim to keep in place while crying crocodile tears over lives lost to a deranged gunman that you helped to create.

<SUBJECT>I visited Charleston as a tourist in May and am shocked and outrage at the shootings of 9 innocent church people at prayer by a white supremacist . He deserves the death penalty and shows no remorse

</SUBJECT>

<MSG>

Governor Haley,

The young white supremacist who murdered nine innocent black people in church to further his white supremacy ideology. He deserves the death penalty as he shows no remorse for his sick ideas and actions. Guns need to be kept out of the hands of white supremacists and the Confederate Flag needs to come down permanently from the state Capitol. It is a symbol of white supremacy that is no longer acceptable to the nation. You have to do more to protect black churches and Jewish temples and other religious institutions. This is not the first time white racists have killed innocent black people. You need to pass hate crimes penalties in your state. You are one of five states that doesn't have hate crime laws. Mr. Scott gets no justice from the white racist police officer. Most police departments don't keep hate crime statistics needed to keep track of what is a domestic terrorism epidemic.

You must do more and not just talk.

Edith [REDACTED]

Governor Haley,

Call me a 63 year-old blue state non-voter. I guess I have become inured to horrific episodes such as Newtown and now in Charleston. There are many possible points of debate such as gun control. What I think I can say with confidence is this: Calls for the death penalty notwithstanding, if, a year from now, the Confederate flag is still flying in South Carolina, you will have achieved nothing.

Time to truly move forward.

Jim

To Whom It May Concern,

I am now a pastor in Georgia. However, I was born, raised, and educated in the wonderful state of South Carolina. All of my family still lives in Greenville. I would like to humbly suggest the Governor display leadership in the area of race relations at this time by honoring Senator Rev. Pinkney and the other victims by removing the Confederate flag from all state grounds. This is the time.

Sincerely,

The massacre at Emanuel A.M.E. Church has shocked the nation. We all extend sympathy and condolences to all the victims and their families. Can there be a response that brings any good out of this evil? Governor, please look into your heart and ask yourself if in any way the conduct of the state, including the flying of the Confederate flag, has contributed to the state of mind and the hatred that led to this tragedy. You have it in your power to make a healing gesture if you will do it. Likewise a statement on the evils arising from the ready availability of guns would mean a great deal coming from you at this time. Our nation needs leadership to defeat racism and end the terrible cycle of gun violence. You are in a unique position to provide this.

"Michael, Rena, Nalin and I are praying for the victims and families touched by tonight's senseless tragedy at Emanuel AME Church. While we do not yet know all of the details, we do know that we'll never understand what motivates anyone to enter one of our places of worship and take the life of another. Please join us in lifting up the victims and their families with our love and prayers." -Gov. Nikki Haley-

WRONG!

To Governor Nikki Haley,

You are wrong, we do understand what motivates evil. We stand silent while our friends and acquaintances espouse, under the guise of levity, jokes and comments that border on the edge of a somehow acceptable realm of rudeness. We, for the most part, keep silent out of fear or indifference when confronted with outright racism by venomous racists who would take us back to the days of Jim Crow. We mentally subjugate our black population by flying the most offensive of banners over our state capital, showing we really do not care what they think of it or what our government thinks of them. South Carolina, by flying a Confederate battle flag over our capital reminds our black brothers and sister daily that they don't really matter. By continually promoting our "heritage" our government grants tacit approval and motivation, and yes, encouragement to the likes of militant and ignorant white supremacists.

Take it down! Stop being silent in the face of evil.

I believe the Government of South Carolina is so concerned about protecting rights however this is how it appears: Your second ammendment rights are protected but we allow people to kill innocent people and support gun makers like they are on a pedestal (The Pope said, those that make weapons are not Christian). We lower taxes but we kill people with subs-standard roads. And we promote true HATE by continuing to fly the confederate flag. Enough - the people of Charleston should show you that they are people YOU should be protecting - in their churches, on the roads and in their own homes.

Message:

Gov. Haley,

Please use the power of your elected position to remove the confederate flag from the grounds of the people's State House. It is no longer the symbol of the citizens of this state and stands as a divisive symbol.

Those who argue that the flag is a part of the heritage of this state need to realize that heritage, especially a controversial symbol, is best housed in a museum with contextual coverage. The lives, well-being, and hopes for our state, country, and world, depends on forward-thinking, not reverence for a past that does not unite us.

In light of the recent Charleston killings, please consider immediate action to get the Confederate flag removed from the State grounds.

Respectfully,
Cary [REDACTED]

Dear Governor and Staff,

All eyes are on South Carolina, you have the opportunity to make history. I urge you to put forth an executive order to bring down the Confederate flag on the grounds of the state capital. Yes, it's part of your state's history and so it belongs in a museum not flying for all to see especially in the aftermath of a racially motivated shooting.

Thank you for your time.

I know you probably won't --- but imagine if you were the Governor that said "Let's move on to another symbol." In light of last night's events, that flag's run as a symbol of racism has run its course. Instead of being the Governor that stayed the course --- it would be a historic move. I'm not a resident but I feel like it could help spark the conversation about race that this country needs to have.

Thank you.

The disrespect towards the African American People of South Carolina is disgusting. You avoid taking a stand on that flag that you all love. You all have done everything to set race relations back to the gold old "bad" days. And I am not am African American - I am a Caucasian senior citizen. The efforts to make voter registration difficult etc. are all indicators of racism. How sad!!!!

I am not a citizen of your state so you may chose to round file this note immediately upon opening. I have to say as an American I am deeply troubled by a picture of flags on your statehouse flying at half staff for the victims of that horrific shooting. Within that same picture is the Stars and Bars flying proudly at the top of its pole. The symbolism of that battle flag cannot escape even the most obtuse person. Out of respect for the victims of this racist attack could that flag be taken down for a period of mourning? The history of that flag in the hands of the KKK cannot be far from the minds of all who eschew hatred and bigotry.

SHAME ON YOU for continuing to fly this racist flag. I am a white 71 year old woman who is a native of VA and currently living in MD. To my regret, I lived in SC for two years in the early 70's. Had to get out of your racist state. Thought about buying beach property there later, but am happy I did not. I did love Myrtle Beach, Charleston and Georgetown etc. Just can't believe the lic. plates and flags continue to be allowed. I am sick at heart. My friend/family group etc. will not be going there. SHAME.

Please take the Confederate Flag so proudly waiving in front of your state capital. It is a reminder of the morals and people who long ago were truly unAmerican. To be insisting it should still stand, is a constant encouragement of the racism and conflict we, as Americans, just witnessed in South Carolina.

Dear Gov. Haley,

I thought you should know that until the Confederate Flag is removed from state grounds I will do everything in my power to make sure that no money of mine, and no support of any kind, will go to the state of South Carolina or to any company headquartered there. And I will make it my business to make sure others know about this and have an opportunity to join me in this boycott.

Have a nice day.

It is one thing to be proud of one's heritage; to have a symbol that represents where one came from. It is another to use, as a symbol of pride, a flag that represents hate and treason. It is unacceptable. I do hope you correct this.

the flying of the confederate flag is an embarrassment to all the civilized citizens of south Carolina. pandering to far right in this state is one thing, but on the national stage this is hard to explain that south Carolina remains lost in war it lost one hundred years ago. Once again, lives are lost to guns and hate and nothing will be done.

The state of South Carolina needs to remove the Confederate flag from government buildings and placed into museums. It is a symbol of slavery, racism, and the war that South Carolina started that killed more Americans than other wars combined. The South lost the war. It should be a symbol of shame, not pride. Take it down and keep it down! If it is not removed, shame on you.

Please remove all confederate flags and other symbols from the SC Capitol and all SC facilities. The stars and bars have historic significance but only as a reminder of the lengths some states would go to to protect the institution of slavery. Today, it is mainly a symbol of hate that the worst racists use to inflame their irrational and violent tendencies. Lower the flag now and put it away forever.

I do not agree, Gov Haley. Now is precisely the time to discuss the racist symbol flying above your Capital. I will boycott the state of SC until the flag comes down. I may be one person, but this is my voice.

Respectfully,

What happened in Charleston is beyond terrible. The shock will soon wear off and the resulting racial tension will not help our country. As Governor, you can easily diffuse the problem by taking down the confederate flag in honor of the 9 Carolinians who were massacred in such a senseless way. It is the right thing to do. Thank you for listening.

You talk the talk but you must walk the walk.

Hate in your state must be addressed. Evading the question of hate and guns in your state is neither moral nor realistic in this world of expanding consciousness.

In light of the Supreme Court ruling against the use of the confederate flag on license plates I think the confederate flag flown on government property would fall under the same concern that the flag remains a racially charged symbol of repression.

Where in your heart can you, and your legislators, rationalize your un-christian actions?

I listened to your tearful speech yesterday which you gave after the horrific RACIAL attack in Charleston at a historic black church. How moving was your speech. Not very-much. Artifice at its most obvious. If you were so moved to tears, maybe you should consider removing the Confederate Flag that flies over your capitol building. Think about the message you are sending to your white uneducated constituents. Those constituents are basing their bias on the education and morality that is represented by that flag. Y'ALL LOST THE CIVIL WAR! Get over it and Get out of the business of hate and immorality. So put your actions where your tears were - FOR REAL - TAKE DOWN THAT FLAG!

I deeply resent the "Community activist" way this duly elected official goes about making and end around his responsibilities by telling people to petition you to remove that flag from all State premises.

My sentiment is that any semi-reasonably intelligent people can research the history, origins and purpose of this emblem and rightfully divide that it had nothing to do with the cause they assign to it. To acquiesce to their cries is to throw away the integrity of those that died and fought (NOTE: Both Black & White) for it's cause.

I have become ill at the derogation of our great Republic to the end of perverting it into an actual democracy. I understand we have a Democratic process - but, I also understand that a Republic protects all interests by virtue of non-respective laws whereas the other represents all too often simple mob rule.

I feel you have done a great job thus far. You have my Support. You may differ with me still on this issue - but, I think you will see and have seen on any & all of the voices of the people of this Great State that we are proud of our heritage and understand it for what it is. We do NOT need this Slingblade Yahoo Character cowardly stirring trouble.

If you can admonish him - it needs to be done.

Thank You!

Given the tragedy this past week, I am disgusted that this state flies the Confederate flag. It is outrageous. Out here on the prairie, people care and this symbol of disrespect is revolting. My plan is to boycott any products manufactured or produced in SC. I am contacting my network, nationwide, to do the same. The insensitivity of your state, and your politics, speak volumes and will have consequences. Get rid of that disgusting symbol and show some respect for, and sensitivity to, the people who were lost this week. They were far better members of the human race than the supposed leaders of your state. They deserve better and be sure, the nation is watching.

The Honorable Nikki Haley,

I was born in Mississippi and have family that live in Charleston. My family has lived in the southern part of United States since the 1600s.

The tradition of enslavement and racism that the confederate battle flag symbolizes should have no part in our society. There are few families that have a "tradition" as long as ours in the South. Yet we truly believe it is time to demonstrate a true healing and moving forward.

My counsel would be to remove this symbol of a shameful and painful era.

Yours sincerely,

William [REDACTED] MD

It is not a symbol of anything official regarding the the government of South Carolina . We are not in the Confederacy anymore. It does not belong on South Carolina government property anywhere. It is a symbol of a struggle of that wanted to enslave black people throughout this country . Do the right thing and fight the good fight for all of South Carolina . Thank you , God bless you ..... TAKE DOWN THAT CONFEDERATE FLAG, it's so out of date, there is no confederacy, the civil war solved that. What didn't go is the racism that it boldly infers. You also must fully restore ALL VOTING rights with sensible easy ID, and institute Medicaid expansion and the ACA exchange. You MUST also apologize for your actions encouraging racism and to the AME church you must ask forgiveness, which they will grant, for all you have done to continue racism by the laws you sign and the flag you fly. DO IT IMMEDIATELY. And while you are at it, restore women's health clinics, and let doctors and patients choose their care. The whole world is watching.

Dear Governor,

Please spare me your crocodile tears and phony broken heart over the deaths of the people at Emanuel AME Church. You need to look in the mirror and acknowledge that your glorification of guns, your demonization of the Atlantic Beach Bike Fest and your support of the Confederate flag played a huge role in creating someone like Dylann Roof. Your refusal to stand and clap over the call for gun control measure says a lot about where your real concerns are. If you truly cared about stopping the culture that leads to someone acting like that racist man acted, you'd be calling for the removal of the Confederate flag from statehouse grounds. It is not, and hasn't been for a long time, a great day in South Carolina. Stop using this to further your delusions of a national post.

I am writing to express my disgust that in this era of racist police shootings and overt systemic racism, your state still proudly flies a white pride symbol on its capitol lawn. 40% of your state is hurt by the presence of that flag and most of the rest of America and the world finds the sentiment it represents disgusting. I have worked internationally and conduct such as that found in your state causes problems for Americans overseas. How could a black resident of your state ever expect to find justice in a state courtroom or agency? This time for pride over your defiance of accepted civil rights standards today is OVER. TAKE DOWN YOUR FLAG. It's disgusting and as long as it flies, I'm going to assume your state is too. If your people support this, I don't need to visit. Ever. It's grossly offensive to anyone living outside of your bubble.

Please do not bend to those narrow minded people who see the confederate flag as a symbol of racism, it is not. It is a symbol of respect for those who fought and died in a civil war 150 years ago. It symbolizes a belief in defending states rights, in defending your home and also in your right to disagree and stand up for those things in which you believe. It symbolizes many great things to many people. Some see it only to symbolize negativity, for them there are no answers. To remove the flag would be to dishonor the brave and dedicated ancestors of or past.

Gov. Haley,

With heartfelt sincerity, I ask you to encourage and support the removal of the Confederate flag from the statehouse grounds. Those who love the flag can fly it on their homes, wear it on their clothes and use it as their Facebook photos. But I object, as do tens of thousands of other South Carolinians, to have it enjoy a position of prominence on government property, where it offends a significant portion of our population.

Please work to have it removed. If you decline to do so, then let your refusal become part of your legacy.

Dear Governor:

I am an immigrant to the United States, and during my 56 years in this country have tried to honor my new home by doing the "right thing". You have so much more power than I do, and I urge you to use that power to get rid of that symbol of hate, the confederate flag that flies in your capital.

Please take a courageous stand, and take the lead in honoring the nine dead citizens of your state and the U.S.A. by championing the removal of the flag. You can be a shining example of conciliation and hope. Please use that power!

Governor Haley,

I rarely, ok, almost never write to elected officials - just doesn't seem to be worth the effort. But this time I'm compelled to share my thoughts. I come from a family of southerners with strong ties and beliefs that heritage is important. I cry everytime I hear Dixie played or sung and have fervently defended our right to proudly display the Confederate Flag as a strong symbol of our fight for state's right. I've argued at length that we should never cave to pressure to remove the flag.

I've changed my mind. Just as I've always believed that we, as a state, as God-fearing people with respect for human lives would have eventually realized the evils of slavery and abandoned that practice, I too believe that we will eventually make the right decision about a flag that, to some, symbolizes the hatred that was demonstrated by Dylann Roof as he murdered our family and neighbors.

In love and humility, it is time for us to work to heal the wounds that are associated with that heritage. Let's take the flag down.

Thank You,

Joy

I was born and raised in the South. I am 65 years old and white. My parents moved us out of the South to avoid having us salute the Confederate flag and sing "Dixie" instead of the National Anthem.

We had a vacation planned for next Spring in Beaufort. If the Confederate flag is still flown on government facilities or grounds, we will be cancelling our vacation. (8 couples are coming together and we will all cancel.)

The Confederate flag is not "heritage" any more than the "Nazi" flag is "heritage" in Germany. Both are historical relics of a despicable and shameful past.

As a future tourist of your state I am in shock to hear you still PROUDLY? fly the confederate flag at your capital. I have decided not to visit your state until something is done about this issue. I am half German and thats like Germans flying the swastika in Germany? Why is the allowed? You are promoting racism in my eyes. Its 2015 and its time for a change. We need to stop people thinking this is the way things are supposed to be. That its okay to murder 9 Innocent people anywhere. PLEASE TAKE THIS FLAG DOWN ASAP

Dear Gov Haley, The job of a governor is to lead the people of the state that voted you in as governor. There are times that this will be difficult but necessary. I am appalled by your answer in regards to removing the confederate flag flying proudly in your state and certainly under your tutelage. It is a symbol of hate, oppression and division. It speaks to a time when an entire group of people were not only not afforded basic human rights, but were killed (hung from trees), abused and treated with animus openly and often. Although I currently live in California with my husband and three beautiful children, my father was in the military and I lived at Shaw A.F.B. in Sumter, S.C. for six years. My families summer home is in S.C. (we visited in May of this year). My mother in law and sister in law are transplants from the San Fransisco Bay area have lived there for the past ten years. I will be coming to South Carolina to visit my in laws soon and I will work tirelessly with your opposition. I am certainly a law abiding citizen, I have NEVER committed a crime or even a minor infraction or traffic offense and will work within the confines of the law. I don't feel that you represent the spirit of South Carolina and have not done what is best for this beautiful, historical state. But anybody can change. The category that I selected was ethics, I believe it is pure and simple a lack of ethics to continue to allow the flag to fly. But as a christian, I believe only love will cure this country of the racial division that we are currently facing. Governor do the right thing and stop bowing down to political pressure to not speak to this issue. The deep south has been (look at Georgia) and will continue to change for the better and to the benefit of all of it's citizens.

Governor's Staff,

The Confederate Flag at the State Capital is an embarrassment and a disgrace to this great state. Many young, college aged citizens, such as myself, are just starting to get involved in political matters. I'm sure the Governor could make a positive, lasting impression on these new voters if she pressures for the Confederate Flag to be removed from the State Capital. Doing so would help promote the unity of our nation, along with the fellowship of all South Carolinians, no matter their race.

I urge you to relate this to Governor Nikki Haley.

Sincerely,

Thomas [REDACTED]

I am in many ways a child of South Carolina. My Mother was born in Sumter and for most of my childhood I spent summers visiting my grandmothers farm. In the 1960's there was intense struggle in the fight for equal rights for Black people. And even as a young boy, I witness some pretty ugly things; blatant displays of hatred and violence. Today the ugliest display of hatred I see in South Carolina is the flying of the confederate flag in state government buildings. This "flag" that symbolizes slavery and segregation is a constant insult to all decent people.

Do Germans get to display swastikas and claim it is merely an expression of German Pride? Do they get to march in SS uniforms without revealing the hate in that choice?

Shame on you for not standing up for decency and repentance against an ugly symbol of hatred and a shameful part of this Nations' history.

I'm sad for you that you're not ashamed.

The Confederate flag, whatever its historical significance, is today a racist symbol that too often inflames racially motivated hate crimes like what we just saw happen in Charleston. South Carolina has been ridiculed for years by insisting the flag wave at the State Capitol, but after this tragedy it is well past time to remove it. I am especially dismayed and appalled that it is not even flown at half-staff in honor of those who were murdered. I thank you in advance for your serious consideration of this crucial issue.

Governor,

The idea that the confederate flag is a necessary symbol for South Carolina is long past it's logical conclusion. I do not know how you might sleep at night after the racial murders in Charleston and not demand that your legislature deal once & for all with the removal of the confederate flag and its likeness from every part of your government. I am personally thankful that I live in a state in which a symbol so recognized as that of racial bigotry, oppression, and intolerance does not exist. Please take this moment to be brave enough to do the right thing. The entire world understands what that symbol actually represents. Why is it necessary to pretend otherwise in order to placate or pacify those who cling to it's soiled past? If you choose not to address it please be brave enough to clearly state why it is not being abolished as a state recognized symbol. It is embarrassing to our entire country.

Governor Haley, I am not one of your constituents, but, as a citizen of this country, I need to implore you to stop flying the confederate flag in your state! i would liken it to flying a swastika in Israel! It was an enemy flag symbolizing slavery and civil war and it should be relegated to the historical museums, not flying proudly anywhere. This country will never come together unless people of good will stand up and say "no more!"

I believe the statements of Dylann Roof, as reported in the news, show a direct correlation between the segregated, racially violent social order of the old south, symbolized by the Confederate Battle Flag, and the values espoused by the shooter. I hope that you, representing the people of South Carolina, will come to this realization and work quickly to remove the flag from all public displays. No person should grow up thinking that this old, racially divided, social order was in any way, something to be emulated or preserved.

Thank you

Governor,

Your states attachment to the confederate flag gives legitimacy to racist thoughts and acts. My family has enjoyed visiting South Carolina, but after your states reaction to the horrible massacre in Charleston and the assassination of a member of your government we will no longer do so. Take down that terrible flag and try embracing actual symbols of pride and the nation will be better for it.

We admire and appreciate many things about South Carolina, but the continued flaunting of a device used by many to further racial division and hate is certainly not one of them. Please do what you can to remove the Confederate flag from the Capitol, Governor's residence and all public buildings in South Carolina. This is not appropriate any more; the latest carnage indicates that the flying of the Confederate flag is keeping people in mind of the racist feelings of the past and that is not how most Americans feel at this point in time. Fine in a museum, but not on a state flagpole. You are doing a disservice to your state and the nation by displaying this divisive piece of fabric. Take it down immediately and let others know that you do not subscribe to the everlasting reverence to an idea which was perpetuated by the few for the benefit of even fewer and a fantasy southern ideal that so many espouse.

 <SUBJECT>A Plea to the Governor</SUBJECT>
 <MSG>

My fellow South Carolinians are patriotic folks. But to be patriotic... to believe in America is to believe in freedom and equality for all. For that reason, I urge every South Carolinian to call for the removal of the Confederate flag from our statehouse grounds.

"It is a symbol of southern pride, a symbol from our history," you might say. Perhaps. But such symbols belong in a museum, not on a monument at the capitol. The same flag is also a symbol of white supremacy, used to incite violence and evoke fear. It does not belong in a place of honor at a capitol building. And especially to those who consider yourselves patriotic: how can you call yourself so and yet support the veneration of this flag on government property? After all, before it represented white supremacy or even "southern pride", this flag represented something else: treason.

Let us begin to change our history, South Carolina. Let us start here. Take it down, Governor Haley.

I'm an Indian American woman, and I am saddened and outraged by the shootings in Charleston. I understand that you have defended the display of the Confederate flag on the grounds of the statehouse in Columbia. Please take down the flag which is a symbol of racist ideology and actions targeting Black communities. As an Indian American/South Asian, I stand against racism and inequity. I hope you will too.

Please make sure a bill is introduced in the State legislature to remove that Confederate flag from your state building. There should be nothing prideful associated with it. The United States should be ashamed of that period in our history. It represents the evil that existed in America during the time of slavery. Just like the swastika represents the evil of Nazi Germany and the oppression of a people. I know you say you can't do anything about it, but everyone knows you can make it happen. God is watching you and so is the world. Don't let the devil continue to be represented by that flag.

Sincerely,

Gov. Haley...I challenge you to read the article in the Washington Post by Roberto Ferdman, "What the Confederate flag really means..." Excellent article and I can only say "How true!" Also, when asked about this flag, how about answering the question clearly and not avoiding it. You obviously are more concerned about votes/politics than in answering and doing the right thing. First, why can't I write an email directly to Governor?

Second, I have passed through South Carolina monthly for years on my way to North Carolina.

Rest assured I will not spend another cent in a hotel, restaurant, gas station or anywhere until the Confederate Flag at the State House comes down permanently.

The fact that the flag was not lowered to half staff following the shootings in Charleston is reprehensible.

The fact that it still waves is dispicable.

Dear Governor:

I have been watching the recent events taking place in the state of South Carolina. I think it is absolutely apoling that the state continues to allow such a racist flag to remain as a symbol represtning the state of South Carolina. As you well know it is within the Governors judical power to remove such a sign of hatred and bigotry. I urge you to use your judical power to issues a decleration to have this flag removed. I was so shocked to find out that in 2015 it still existed in many some states such as yours. It is an affront to what the good people of this country really represent.

04/09/1865 Lee surrendered to Grant. SC started the war. The least you can do is admit defeat. Continuing to fly the Confederate flag on capital grounds is comparable to Nazi hold outs continuing to fly their flag. What in God's name is wrong with you people that you think it is OK to fly the flag that represents a misguided attempt to break up the United States? I visited Charleston once several years ago over July 4th. There were so many confederate flags that I remarked to my husband that I thought we had traversed into an alternate universe. You need to stand up and demonstrate leadership and enable your state to bury the past. You lost. It is time to get over it. Please Governor, have you no decency?

Governor Haley,

My father's father's family settled in Waxhau, NC in the 1730s. His mother's family was one of the first to settle Gaston County, NC (1700s). My Great Grandfather served in the CSA in Virginia.

My mother's family were German immigrants in the early 1800s. Some fought for the Union during the Civil War.

I value my heritage. I respect my ancestors. But I live in the 21st century.

It is time you lead the good people of South Carolina to the present and into the future. Remove the Confederate flag.

I was aghast when I saw and heard your tears over the Church Shooting in your state. You have personally participated fully in a hate campaign against our African American President because he is Black, you proudly raise the confederate flag at your capital...You make people like Ruth feel that they are OK in themselves, in their beliefs and in their hate. You support the gun lobby wholeheartedly. As far as I am concerned, You Have 9 People and more's blood on your hands directly. You seem to so easily rationalize how you are not an integral part of this but you are. You are so absolutely disconnected from what you do, what you model, and what you propagate. I am sure that you will never see this because your staff will weed this out from your ability to see any other opinion other than the hateful people who support you. I am not African American but I am American and I firmly believe in the amazing and wonderful plurality of this nation. Shame on you...shame on you and all like you.

Dear Governor Haley,

I am a resident of California, but spent 3 years living in Columbia, SC during the time my husband was completing his medical residency at USC. As an Asian American, I must tell you how appalled I was to see the Confederate flag flying on the capitol grounds. South Carolina has many beautiful things to offer, but this flag is not one of them. It is an ugly reminder of this country's history of racism. I hope you can use your power and voice to advocate for the removal of this blatant symbol of hate, bigotry, and oppression. It's time to take this flag down.

Sincerely,

Bonnie [REDACTED]

Time to review the TRUE history of the confederate south. This flag is a symbol of dishonesty, a myth, and slavery. You need to take it down. In a way, it is a symbol of treason. And certainly it is an insult to your African American residents as well as those of us who believe in racial equality.

Dear Governor Haley,

I realize that since I do not presently live in South Carolina so this probably is of no interest to you, but I am a teacher and my husband works in the film industry so we may be relocating to South Carolina soon. My husband starts working on a movie there on Monday. I am saddened every time I see or hear about the confederate flag flying at government buildings in South Carolina. I do not understand how this is considered appropriate or respectful given the historic significants of it. I understand that it is part of the state's history as the swastika is part of Germany's history. I do not see Germany flying swastikas around the country. Please consider being the first politician to make a statement of solidarity in our country and remove it once and for all. Given the climate of our country, you have a chance to go down in history as the politician actually took a stand to unite our country. You would also send a message that the Charleston tragedy did not cause a civil war but it ended it once and for all.

I keep getting forms from the GOP wanting to know what I think. So here it is.

In case you missed it, Americans have had enough of mass shootings. In fact, 90% of Americans want reasonable gun legislation passed. Please note that the operative word here is "reasonable." While you do nothing, more shootings will continue to take place and it will reach a point where the blow back will be so bad that responsible gun owners will lose their firearms. Have you even considered the consequences of doing nothing? Opps, sorry, you're making sure that our 2nd Amendment rights are protected and allowing people like Roof to own firearms.

Get out of Jim DeMint's back pocket and stop believing the NRA walks on water. Start representing your constituents. And while you're at it, take down the Confederate flag. It makes us South Carolinians look like idiots. What kind of moron flies a flag from a war they lost? And yes, my great grandfather was a Reb and buried in a Reb cemetery. We lost, life wasn't like Gone With the Wind, and it's time to get over it. Take the flag down.

Enough with the Obamacare nonsense. That kid in Charleston clearly needed psychiatric care. While you were voting 50+ times to repeal the ACA, that money you wasted could have been used to help him. How many more of people like him are out there? Do you have any clue? While you try to scare us with ISIS, but this kid showed we have more to fear from our fellow citizens with a gun.

As a woman, stay out of my doctor's office. It is sheer idiocy to try to ban abortions. Women had back alley abortions long before Roe v Wade and will continue to have them if you ban abortions. Here's a history lesson for you. The longer something is in a society, the harder it is to get rid of. We should have learned that lesson during Prohibition. We're still dealing with the repercussions from organized crime that they gained during those years.

Finally, I don't care if you believe climate change is man made or not despite the overwhelming evidence that it is. Think of it terms of pollution. Climate change denial is not a pass to pollute the earth. Pollution is going to effect everyone--even climate change deniers. That means your family will suffer with the rest of us. Is that what you want?

Please stop having the GOP send me forms wanting to know what I think and not even including a stamp on the return envelope. I doubt that the GOP really cares what I think about anything.

I saw you crying on the news a few minutes ago.

I wonder if you are only crying because SC looks bad in the eyes of the world today.

I have a hard time believing that your emotion has anything to do with the enormous historic pain felt by black people, and others seeking redress of systemic racial injustice in your state, in response to yet another racially motivated shooting.

If you really want to show you value the lives of the people killed last night in the name of white supremacy, you will take down the Confederate flag at the SC State House.

Not fly it at half staff, TAKE IT DOWN.

It is a symbol of a time when white supremacy was unchecked by law.

It is a symbol that is revered by white supremacists today even more than the official flag of the United States.

Flying it at half staff will rub salt and pepper into the wounds (slave reference intentional) of those grieving the good people who died in that act of terrorism at Mother Emanuel.

That flag flying is a symbol of triumph for everyone who agrees with what Dylann Roof did was an act of cowardly terrorism to sit with and pray with nine beautiful and wonderful black people knowing he was there on a mission to assassinate them. It is what it is. It times for rhetoric to match actions.

Take it down.

If your tears are real, TAKE IT DOWN.

Dear Govenor,

Please know that our family very much enjoys visiting your state.

We really have enjoyed our many visits to Charleston and Myrtle Beach, especially when we lived in NY and travelled south with our friends.

However, as long as South Carolina allows the Conferate flag to be used freely, we will boycott your state and travel elsewhere.

Sincerely,

S.M. [REDACTED]

 <MSG>

Governor Haley,

Since the Charleston Church Massacre in my hometown, many have raised their voices that the Confederate Battle Flag in front of the SC Statehouse should be removed because it is a symbol of hate and racism. My point is to prove why it is not. I'm an 11th grader at First Baptist School of Charleston, SC. Many say that the flag was originally a symbol of treason against the United States, but what about the American flag? Is that not also a symbol of treason against Great Britain? This nation was founded on the act of treason. Call me unpatriotic, call me a traitor, but if you know me, then you know I am very patriotic, I am very proud in my nation and especially the history of this great nation we are so privileged to live in. Many say it's a symbol of slavery, I can shred that argument too! Slavery did not just randomly pop up in the Confederacy in 1861, it had been prevalent in the United States and was still existent until the 13th amendment was passed in 1865. Technically, on the terms of legal documentation, the slavery in the South was abolished before any other region of the country! But the Southerners like to call it "Heritage, Not Hate!" and I fully agree! 2 of my ancestors on my father's side of the family fought and died for that flag waving brilliantly atop the SC Statehouse today. 1 of my ancestors on my mother's side of my family protected that flag from the Yankees at the Surrender at Appomattox on April 9, 1865. They tell me that I can't be proud of my heritage when I derive from brave men like that? That's insane! Everytime I pass by this flag and the monument at the front of the Statehouse, I am reminded of not only my ancestors who fought so gallantly for that flag, but also the thousands of other men with similar stories. I cannot express how much disrespect and pain it would show to those men who gave their lives for that flag if it was taken down. It would hit me hard just to know that the ones who died for that cause are forgotten because of the new agenda of political correctness. I hope you read this and understand why it should stay on that pole. I show no remorse for the sick, racist man who shot up Emanuel AME Church and I know you don't either. Yes, something must change, but taking a flag from a pole will not change the issues this country has and needs to fix.

I send my deepest regards to you and to the state of South Carolina.

Sincerely,

Evan [REDACTED]

<SUBJECT>Racism and evil embodied by the confederate flag--a symbol which continues to inspire hate and destruction</SUBJECT>

<MSG>

RE: PROPOSED STATE LAW: TEAR DOWN "THAT THING", THAT SICKENING, DESPICABLE CONFEDERATE FLAG.

I am not the only American that is watching and waiting to see what South Carolina will do next after the slaughter of nine outstanding black Americans at the hands of a racist, evil young man. It is hard to accept that since the Civil War your elected officials--with clear consciences and no remorse--honor THAT THING, the confederate flag-- THE symbol of evil, hatred, treason, war, destruction and inhumanity to man. When you raise THAT THING over government buildings you spit on the American flag--the true symbol of the United States and its greatness.

The lame argument that THAT THING represents state's rights is outright laughable to the great majority of Americans who don't share your enthusiasm for the past --the good ole' days of SLAVERY. By waving THAT THING, apparently Southerners are proud that their ancestors fought and died for the right to buy and sell human beings, to whip, torture and murder human beings; to deny food and water to human beings; to deny men and women their babies and the right to form family units because--you know--"STATE'S RIGHTS" was the "right" of white men (and if they made lots of money in a slave economy, well so much the better!). Today, I can think of another group of people who believe in "state's rights" that also include slavery, torture, murder--and obtaining land, power and riches as they slaughter and enslave. They go by the name ISIS and they have their own flag too.

Your young monster Roof was carefully taught thanks to the attitudes of what I believe are the majority of South Carolinians who proudly display THAT THING. Roof must be thrilled to know his beloved confederate flag can't be lowered to honor the victims without the consent of the General Assembly, the very body which has put the confederate flag above my beloved American flag. The fact that your state flies THAT THING higher than the Stars and Stripes shows that not much has changed since 1865. That damn flag dramatically raises the temperature of white supremacists who are still angry over losing the "War of Northern Aggression" and it gives a government stamp of approval for a belief that black people are inferior and should be destroyed. We don't need South Carolina's love of the symbol of hate to make more victims of evil racists. Twisted minds don't need encouragement to think it's "cool" to be loyal to the "ideals" of the confederacy. If "respected" members of the community continue to honor THAT THING by displaying it high over government buildings, then more monsters will snap. Knowing how symbols can drive people to terrible acts, decades ago Germany outlawed swastikas; and to the best of my knowledge there are no "Hitler Avenues" in Berlin.

As one of 50 governors in the United States, you have a moral responsibility to be an American first, an official who serves ALL people, not just the handful who turn out to vote for you. Therefore, in honor of the nine victims, you, Governor, have the power to submit a bill to the General Assembly to outlaw THAT THING on all government buildings in the state of South Carolina. This is your chance to be something more than a politician. Americans are watching; the world is watching.

In order for our state to really be able to heal is to stop living in the past. The Confederate flag, a battle flag, is a piece of history that belongs in a museum, not on our state capitol grounds. It may be heritage to some, but it has become a symbol of racism and hatred. In order for us to proceed forward into the 21st century in LOVE, that flag needs to come down! And really, is this heritage something to be proud of? Human beings were enslaved, abused, lynched, and treated as if they were animals, and that battle flag was used in fighting to protect keeping those human beings enslaved! What kind of message are we sending when we fly our American flag at half mast, but have a Confederate flag flying. It is a contradiction! Please start the ball rolling to get the legislation changed to take this flag down! We cannot truly heal until we take down this symbol of hate! Thank you for your time. Melissa [REDACTED]

It is time to haul down the flag. As a retired naval officer and veteran of two wars I take offense every time I see it. It belongs in a museum along with other hateful symbols such as the Swastika flag of Germany and the Rising Sun flag of Imperial Japan. These two nations do not now allow the display of such hateful images. Prior to military service I lived in, and was educated in, a Jim Crow state. We all knew the flag was a symbol of revanchist revisionism and a sign of rampart and overt racism. It has come to signify defiance of the civil rights movement and it is no coincidence that shooter Roof emblazoned his car with the flag. Flying the flag in a public memorial is tatamout to Germany flying the Nazi flag over a public memorial to the SS, or Japan flying the Rising Sun over a memorial to flyers who attacked Pearl Harbor. I know that a hateful resolution of the legislature ties your hands on this matter but the law does allow you to shut down the monument for maintenance and repair. Shut it down and neglect to start it up again until the end of your term

It has come to my attention that there is, following the recent tragedy in Charleston, a movement to remove the Confederate Battle Flag from the grounds of the State House. As a citizen of South Carolina, and as someone born and raised in this great state, I would like to respectfully request that the Confederate Battle Flag remain flying on the grounds of the State House. I understand that the General Assembly retains the authority to remove or to keep the flag, but I believe that the Governor should do everything in her power to see that it remains flying. That flag, as every educated South Carolinian knows, does not represent racism, and it never has. It has been used by racists, but it was never designed or intended for them. As someone who personally flies this flag, and as someone who identifies with it more strongly than any other flag, I ask you to please do everything to keep it. Thousands of South Carolinians died under that flag. Do not let their sacrifice be forgotten.

 <MSG>

Dear Governor Haley:

I read with interest your comments during your gubernatorial debates as reported by the New York Times and other outlets about the Confederate flag. You pointed out that you had not had one conversation with any CEOs about the Confederate flag, and thus, it was not an issue. This suggests that if you did indeed receive calls from CEOs about the flag, you might reconsider your position.

I am not a CEO, and many people within your state are not either. But I hope you will take this opportunity to do what you can to have the Confederate flag removed from the South Carolina statehouse grounds. I am a proud daughter of the South who happens to be black. Like you, I recognize the best that the South has to offer. But I also recognize the worst, and it killed 9 people in a church in Charleston on Wednesday evening.

The thought of State Senator Pinckney being honored by his state for his service, and having this take place in a state house over which a Confederate flag, worn and espoused by the man who killed him, is keeping me up at night. (I assume that there are plans to honor him by having his body lie in state at the Capitol). As you know, blacks have been in South Carolina-often as a majority-since its founding. I hope that the opinions of a significant number of your constituents in South Carolina matter to you as Governor.

As a native Georgian, no one can tell me that I am not a citizen and that I do not have the right to love my state, or the South. But that is what that flag says to me. That is what it says to Senator Pinckney's family, and the other victims' families. And its display expresses support, intentional or not, for the hateful ideals and actions of the killer.

I thank you for doing what you can to underscore that Senator Pinckney is a proud son of the South too, who died doing what he loved, in service to his state and its citizens. We cannot honor Senator Pinckney to the full measure he deserves with that flag continuing to fly, sanctioned by the state. Taking the flag down may not be popular with some. But it's time to recognize that black South Carolinians are proud Southerners too. That deserves some consideration.

Best regards,
Erica N. [REDACTED]

Govenor Haley, I would like to appeal to your moral conscience and ask you to do everything in your power as leader of your state to remove the Confederate Flag from the state captol flag pole. The Confederate Flag represents oppression, separation, segregation, evils of slavery, and most important - man's inhumanity to man. The Jewish community would not want to face each day a Nazi flag with a swastika that represents white supremacy, evil, and racist nationalism. The Nazis could also boast of historical significance and pride. Think of how you would feel if you were part of my race and had to face the day-to-day degradation of the Confederate Flag. Do what you know is right in the eyes of God. Thank you.

Please remove the rebel flag from government buildings--perhaps outlaw its display completely. As a battle flag from the Civil War, it represents the South's desire to secede and defeat the union. I believe that constitutes treason. Definition: trea·son 'trez?n/ noun, the crime of betraying one's country, especially by attempting to kill the sovereign or overthrow the government.

Wasn't the south trying to overthrow the UNITED states in the confrontation? In my research, I also learned the following: "William Tappan Thompson, the flag's designer, used a different nickname for the flag, calling it "The White Man's Flag". It has grown to represent separateness, white supremacy and become a symbol to hold up racism as justifiable.

You have a chance to do one small thing to try to appease all those throughout the United States who are repulsed by this gesture of desperately dated symbol of all things evil, as surely as a Swastika has that same iconic symbology.

Thank you for your consideration,

Linda [REDACTED]

Governor Haley,

As a strong woman, a political leader, role model for many young women not only in your state but in this nation. Please step up to the plate and take down the confederate flag. As another strong woman, I served my country in u inform for over twenty years, there is only one flag our nation should be flying other than state flags and that is the Stars and Stripes! Having family from the south....Virginia, I understand the old rebel call of the confederacy, heck my great grandfather was named Robert Lee Wright after the general. THAT is our history and the confederate flag should be placed in the annals of history, not flown on a flag pole today.

I beg of you, stand up, stand tall and be the leader you are to be, order that flag removed!

Please keep the Confederate flag on the state House grounds. This is a very important part of SC history and heritage. Yes, there were groups that flew the flag during violent acts, but that was not the original purpose and meaning of the flag. This flag means a great deal to my own family history. Please a beg don't remove the Confederate flag from the state house grounds.

Dear Governor Haley

No doubt you are under a lot of pressure right now from both sides of this issue. Let me say that the Confederate Flag has been around me as long as I can remember and has always been a symbol of pride in losing a rebellion. Yes, that is correct. Even if it were not a symbol of slavery (I believe that it is) and a symbol of hatred (I believe that it is) it would be nothing more than a slap in the face to the U.S. Government so why would it ever fly over a U.S. Government building.

There is no other country on the face of the earth that proudly flies the flag of a rebelling army that lost their rebellion. To do so would make the displayers of such a flag look foolish.

Be that as it may, I am the uncle of several multiracial U.S. Citizens so I often think about what a white person rarely ever has to think about, "Would I feel comfortable or even welcome going into a store or Government office flying that flag if I were black, or in the company of someone who is of African American descent?" The answer is no.

Please take down that flag. It is an embarrassment for a variety of reasons.

Thank you.

Sincerely

Patrick [REDACTED]

Dear Governor Haley,

I am writing to request information on why South Carolina flies a confederate flag on a public buildings (or buildings)? I have worked in the south many years and have seen vehicles with these flags, but was surprised to see one on your Capitol building recently, and don't understand it's use as a symbol of your lovely state.

I was informed by a friend who is a resident of Charleston that there's a state law that requires it be above the Capitol but he couldn't tell me the reason your local legislators passed such a law.

I find the symbolic meaning behind the confederate flag is inherently racist given one of the major reasons for the dissolution of the Confederacy in the 1860's was a war fought to abolish slavery in all states in our country and would believe that South Carolinians would not care to support the racist and certainly inhumane tenents represented by this flag.

My state, Michigan, was once part of the Northwest Territory and we flew those flags, but once we were a state, it was absented from use. Part of the Upper Peninsula was part of Canada early on before statehood, but no one and. Ergainly no public buildings fly the Canadian flag. (Yes, we like them fine particularly they're great senses of humor.)

I would urge South Carolinians to reconsider the public display of the confederate flag on public buildings given it's symbolic connection to slavery and racism, as I'm sure there are much more elegant and expressive symbols of your beautiful, gentle and kindly part of our country.

Thank you for taking time with this. Best wishes.

IT is time to eliminate the confederate flag. To heal your state's broken heart and soul, and out of respect for those 9 beautiful people ban the flag which stands for segregation not state's rights. It's like flying a Nazi flag, a part of our history best studied not flown. Part of the healing from the grief process is to make it better, so those lives weren't lost for not. Ban the Confederate flag, please.

Dear Governor Haley,

I implore you to work to implement meaningful gun control laws in our state. The heartbreak in Charleston must compel us to action. Do not allow a loud, unruly few to prevent sane measures that the vast majority support. And please do what you can to convince our state legislators to take down that flag! It breaks my heart to see the American flag and South Carolina flag at half-mast and the Confederate flag fully raised. The Civil War ended 150 years ago. It is past time to take down the flag.

May your work on gun control serve as a memorial to those who died so senselessly and hatefully.

South Carolina must act as one today.

Thank you for your work on behalf of all the people of this state.

Sincerely,

Rachel [REDACTED]

Governor Haley,

Please take the initiative to remove the Confederate Flag flying on state grounds. You have indicated that you are not interested in discussing policy at this time, but feel that it is the most appropriate time for healing. I believe that taking this flag down would, in fact, be a very good start to that healing process. There is no better time to acknowledge the growing disparity in our country than naming injustices and condemning those associations than immediately after such a blatant and horrific example of hate.

The best way we can begin to have healing discussions that bring people together is to be the first to stand against the root of these kinds of terrorist acts, clearly and swiftly.

Just as we do not expect nor accept a German heritage group flying the Nazi flag; just as Texas rejects the confederate flag as state sponsored speech on license plates, it is time for the great state of South Carolina to please recognize that the HERITAGE, NOT HATE argument is not a reality for all of your constituents.

The flag has its place -- in the halls of museums, perhaps -- but that place is not now, not over the State Capitol. Please do the right thing; please take it down.

With all due respect to the Governor and the competent employees of the State of South Carolina - I am writing to express my sadness and great contempt for the Governor and her refusal to consider even lowering the Confederate flag after the horrific murders at the church in Charleston this week.

In my view the flag is the symbol of the racial divide and the hatred of others.

I respect women leaders but in my view - and based on admitted remarks by the Governor:

'not one CEO complained about the flag' only state the obvious. The Governor appears to care only for people at the CEO level. Also the Governor has refused to even admit a possible hate crime motive saying on Facebook - of all inappropriate places - 'we do not nor know the reason' for the crime. The alleged killer who has confessed has admitted he wanted to kill black people.

I am an old white woman from Pennsylvania; my Mother lived in the South years ago and told me of the horrible treatment of anyone who was different - whether they were black or simply not locals.

I sincerely hope the Governor will reconsider flying the flag which is a symbol of hatred.

Thank you for your time and I hope you can sleep at night knowing that the flag means evil to so many people.

The protests will NOT stop.

I extend my deepest condolences to those who have lost so very much due to this senseless act of racist terrorism committed at the church in Charleston. Prayers for those lost and their families. I pray also for the legislature of the state of South Carolina because, in the face of such horror, they chose to support the terrorist instead of the victims by flying the Confederate Flag, a symbol of racist oppression and hatred over the state of South Carolina. This massacre is incomprehensible. This support of the racist attitudes that caused it is despicable - and yes, that is exactly what anyone who displays the Confederate flag, the flag of treason and hatred, is doing. I had planned to take my mother to visit cousins in South Carolina later this summer. That trip is now cancelled. We will not visit a state that so proudly displays hatred and racism. I realize that not all people of South Carolina support racism and murder, but clearly, since that thing hangs over your state house, as mandated by elected officials, the majority do.

Please forward this to the Governor.

I am a retired USAF veteran and great grandson of a Confederate war veteran. South Carolina needs to remove the Confederate Flag from all State land. It's about time to remove this flag, that upsets so many Of your State's citizens and most U.S. Citizens. Individuals have First Amendments rights to personally fly this flag, but the State shouldn't. I think symbols such as the Confederate Flag contributes to the racism that caused the Black Church shooting. Please propose to the State Legislature the removal of the negative symbol.

The Confederate flag is a symbol of slavery, southern economic exploitation, KKK, hatred.

Bring that flag down once and for all. Embrace love, remove the flag.

Governor, do the right (and ethical) thing and take that flag down!

I'm white and grew up under racial segregation.

Thank God those days are long gone.

But while the Confederate flag flies above the South Carolina statehouse, anti-black racism is the loud public message of South Carolina.

The flag praises African slavery and white supremacy.

The flag is a state and national shame and disgrace.

Use your leadership to take down that flag.

Some years ago I had the delightful pleasure of visiting South Carolina for a professional conference in Charleston. I hope have another such opportunity in the future.

This letter concerns the Confederate flag flying in front of the State Capitol. It was the only flag that did not go half mast after the racist, terrorist murder of nine people that occurred Wednesday evening, June 17, 2105 at Mother Emanuel AME Church. I share the sorrow of the people of your state over the deaths of those fine, innocent people.

That flag should be removed from the State Capitol. It is a flag that was used to defend slavery, Jim Crow laws, and to deny non-white people in South Carolina their legal rights. It's presence is insulting to many people who live in your state and many who visit.

Thank you for listening.

Let me begin by extending my sympathies for the tragedy you are experiencing. I'm feeling the loss myself. I was appalled, however, by the insensitivity of flying the Confederate flag on the government buildings. If you consider yourselves Americans, you'll take it down. You can't have allegiance to the U.S.A. and fly an enemy flag. Mark Sanford tried to explain it, but he was unable to say anything that made sense for why it's flying in 2015 for a war you lost 150 years ago. It's not state pride; it represents hatred, racism, bigotry, false pride, hipocrisy, white supremacy, and a lack of patriotism toward the unity of the United States of America. It's time to drop that flag that represents evil and join the 21st century! All men and women are created equal. We have received life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. The Confederate flag represents none of that.

Honorable Mrs. Hailey,

No doubt you are under tremendous pressure to move the Confederate flag at the Statehouse. I hope you will not rush to judge this flag, without considering all sides. My GGGrandfather died with that flag on his casket. He wrote in his diary that he fought in defense of his home. I have his diary in my possession. Sadly I can not include his photo here for you to see. Please leave the flag where it is, moving it will not solve anything.

Thank You,

Sincerely,

Randall [REDACTED]

With Deepest Condolences for your State and to the families who have lost their loved ones in the Charleston massacre. That said, I'm from NC and consider myself Southern thru and thru, although I live in New England. It's time the flag is relegated to the Museums of Charleston and all of SC. I agree it's a part of history, but we don't have to fly history. It's just that...history. Teach it, view it in museums, but don't fly it in the face of the very people who were suppressed under it. It's a state of many cultures and diversities, and most who view this flag 'know' the real meaning of it. I was planning a vacation and thinking of coming to Charleston....but until I don't have to look at Confederate flags flying, I will not be vacationing to Charleston, nor for that matter anywhere in SC. It's a small thing, but maybe if there are enough people like me who believe in total equality, it will have an impact on Charleston and the state of SC. I plan to ask people on my FB pages to boycott South Carolina tourism and to share with their friends. It's time for SC to come into the 21st century. To many this flag is a flag of superiority in many ways and race being one of them. I saw you on TV, you are apparently a strong leader and I'm hoping you will lead the way on this endeavor.

Dear Gov. Haley,

The time has come to ban the Confederate flag. It is a symbol of racism, plain and simple. Whoever flies this flag, puts it on a bumper sticker, or license plate holder is unequivocally saying they believe white landowners should be able to own black people as slaves. That is why the Civil War was fought. This flag is the American equivalent of the Nazi flag. All those who fought under these symbols, no matter how deeply held their beliefs, were on the wrong side of history. Do the right thing. Be on the right side of history, no matter how difficult.

Respectfully yours,

Peter [REDACTED]

<MSG>

Dear Governor Haley:

The time has come for the people of South Carolina to rise up and do something for which future generations really will remember and honor them for their courage and humanity. It is time for the flag of the Confederacy to be removed from all public property in your state.

Every day of their lives, citizens of your beautiful state go about their business with the prominent display of a symbol of subjugation, hatred, and slavery casting its long and dark shadow. How can you expect those citizens to feel when they are told they have equal rights under the law but their government proudly flies a flag commemorating people who fought to the death to deny them those rights? Yes, one particularly unhinged criminal committed a terrible act of violence this week. But the animosity and hatred that he learned in your state, that was tolerated in your state, and was by the prominent display of that flag sanctioned by your state extends the burden of responsibility for those 9 deaths to all who fight to keep flying the Confederate flag.

Recently, my family and I spent a marvelous week in your state. We rented a beach house, explored far and wide, and built cherished memories. We, of course, spent many thousands of dollars in the process. We would love to return, perhaps even on a regular basis, but we cannot. I cannot in good faith allow my tacit support for the repugnant display of overt racism in your state. Therefore, my family and I will be boycotting South Carolina tourism, recreation, industry, higher education, etc., until those flags come down, forever.

Most sincerely,

Timothy J. [REDACTED]

Dear Governor Haley,

It is with deep sadness I write this letter. There is so much sadness over the horrific crime, the massacre of innocent lives in Charleston. People in their place of worship gunned down, fired by a young man filled with hatred and discrimination towards God's children, our Brothers and Sisters who were simply at their bible study.

I am a Grandmother. I grew up in Rhode Island with no hatred or contempt for anyone who looked different from me. We are all God's children.

I never realized that you fly the Confederate flag in South Carolina. That flag symbolizes segregation and discrimination. That flag tells people that it's okay by your state's standards to continue to discriminate. This is so very wrong in America. You are the Governor and should have the power to take it down and put up the American flag that symbolizes freedom and solidarity. That flag symbolizes unity that so many died to protect us and save our freedom.

I am asking you to do the right thing. Stop advertising hatred and discrimination in the Land of the Free. Please take that flag down and be a hero to the rest of the country.

Sincerely,
Cathy [REDACTED]
Newport RI 02840

I'm really shocked to discover that South Carolina flies the Confederate Flag at its State Capitol. I agree with NAACP President Cornell William Brooks that the Confederate Flag is an "emblem of hate" that should be banished from public life. The fact that it is being treated as so "sacred" that it can't even be lowered to half staff, symbolizes its continued affront to every American who believes in human equality. You use your own racial heritage as a supposed example, but racists have always allowed a few exceptions to keep the majority of a race oppressed. It doesn't mean that there is no prejudice. The confederate flag is a symbol of racism and the racists know it. Please show some political courage. Sincerely, Linda [REDACTED] Film teacher and scholar.

Bottom Line Up Front: It is good to remember to Confederacy, remembrances and reenactments are good, however that the flag is connected with government just looks bad. I get the history and understand how people feel it is just time.

I lived in Columbia 98-04, owned a home in St. Andrews. As a white lady, when I moved there and eventually went down Gervais street I nearly fell over. I called all my friends and said "You won't believe this, the confederate flag is flying above the SC Capitol." Later it moved down to Gervais/Main I laughed saying you REALLY can't miss it now.

I will retire next year and Conway is on my short list of places to live. Get that flag off the evening news it does no good for SC. A Confederate Museum using private funds could solve the problem, surely the good people of SC deserve a break.

Governor, I am not a resident of South Carolina but feel compelled to write you. I am a white American. That your state leaves the confederate flag - a symbol of bigotry, hate and subjugation - flying high while our American flag flies at half staff, is disgusting. Your state needs to reassess. What are your real values here? The American flag stands for freedom and respect for all our differences. Are we perfect? No. Do we often get it wrong? Yes. But we should try to live up to the principles this country is based on. It's wonderful that our country welcomes those of different races and faiths. We're a great country! You cannot stand for freedom AND hate! These are mutually exclusive things. The message you're sending to this country and the world is at the very least....disturbing. Please stop!

Dear Governor Haley,

It is an abomination to fly, let alone display, a symbol of slavery in any government setting. It should have been relegated to history books a century ago. Your state is an offensive embarrassment to our country and black brothers and sisters. It is akin to waving the flag of the Third Reich emblazoned with swastikas because it represents "history"--whose history? The flag represents wholly un-American ideals.

I strongly urge you to take serious action and not relent until the Confederate/battle flag is illegal on government grounds except in explicit context that it was used by those who fought to keep human beings as property. This is not a time for excuses; action is demanded.

Sincerely, a fellow white American,

Terri [REDACTED]

This is the time that will test your leadership. You are called on to do something bold and right. You know, as we all know, that the Confederate Flag is a toxic symbol of the racism we know is alive and well. If you don't have the courage to take the flag down, then move it somewhere less prestigious. And if you don't have the courage for that, then for the sake of the people in your state, at the very, very least - compel the flag to be lowered to half staff at this time. Anything less is a slap to the loved one's of the victims, and to the black children in your state who look to you for leadership. Be strong and do the right thing.

I'm hearing there is a confederate flag outside the state building. In honor of what's going on in the nation it would be a noble gesture to remove the flag. We need peace in our country. The flag is divisive. It represents the hate that we see from Al-Queda and Issis but in our own home.

I am a 58 year old white grandmother from Florida. I am also a private investigator who specializes in reuniting families. Please take action today. Roof was not born with such hate for black people. It was cultivated within him as he grew up in your state. Symbols like the Confederate flag you continue to fly today that are so hurtful to black people spurred Roof on to murder. If you care about the murder please open your eyes and care about the hate symbols that you still display proudly in ignorance. How can you not know that symbols just like you are waving are causing your problems that you are now crying about? Open your eyes and your mind, no buts about it, just action and wisdom and most of all compassion and empathy for our fellow citizens who just happen to be of black color whose hearts you are hurting with your ignorance being flaunted proudly. It's so sad that those sweet people had to be living in such a backward thinking state. You say your hearts and souls are broken. What about the hearts you break every single day in your state with that flag flapping and all the hate speech of the wagging tongues who just love that flag so much they can't do with out.

Governor Haley:

I am one of your constituents from Darlington County (Hartsville). I want to thank you for your service and to let you know that I am one of many people who find the existence of the confederate flag on Capitol grounds reprehensible. We have been silent on this issue for too long, and with the recent tragedy of racial violence in Charleston, the time for silence has ended. I am not ignorant enough to think that removing of the confederate flag will expunge pervasive racism in our state or make any monumental change in itself. It will take generations of work for real change. But this is an important gesture for us to show that we as SC citizens are not complacent in racism and racial violence. I am from SC and the confederate flag does not represent me.

Sincerely,

Beth [REDACTED]

In 1970, I took my young Ohio white family to Myrtle Beach for a vacation and was horrified by roving gangs of redneck yahoos waving Rebel flags out of cars and making racial slurs. As I am sure is true of many others, I've never gone back, but since tourism is a big business in South Carolina, we obviously have not been missed. Nothing has changed. The Confederate flag still flies over the state capital and the state is still known for bigotry and racism. How is the Confederate flag any different than the Nazi flag? Are you OK with Germany flying the Swastika to honor it's war heroes and "glory days"? I once had a boss from South Carolina whose every other word was the N word, relished telling clients racist jokes, and considered Strom Thurman a god. South Carolina perpetuates this by honoring the racial supremacy and hatred attitudes of the Old South. Will South Carolina ever change?

Dear Governer Haley:

The terrible tragedy in Charleston has caused you to appear repeatedly on television recently, and you have indicated that the "Confederate Flag Issue" is something you plan to address in the legislature. I support the flag as it stands now, and I will continue to do so, urging my representatives to do the same. Your family was not here during the Civil War, and you simply do not understand its significance to those of us who lost family and land for The Cause of the Confederacy.

The flag should continue to fly exactly where it is right now, and I plan to vote for or against the next governor of SC based on this decision. Call it a "single-plank" decision if you like. It is, in reality, an issue which will influence quite a few voters based on your handling of it.

Thank you for your attention,
 Susan L. [REDACTED]

I find the flying of the confederate flag over the state capitol an affront to the 9 victims, their families and the people of the United States Of America. It is an insult to them. No matter how hard we try to pretend that the flag does not reflect hatred and racism to the African American people I am sure it does. Even though I am not black I find it offensive. I will not be visiting the beaches of South Carolina until the flag comes down. My money will go elsewhere.

I'm a South Asian American, born and raised in Southern California. My family is from South Asia, just like yours. I am saddened and outraged by the shootings in Charleston.

I understand that you have defended the display of the Confederate flag on the grounds of the statehouse in Columbia. Please take down the flag which is a symbol of racist ideology and actions targeting Black communities. I've read that you have used your South Asian ethnicity to show how racism doesn't exist and as an excuse to have the racist confederate flag up. This is wrong. As an Indian American/South Asian, I stand against racism and inequity. I hope you will too.

Permanently remove the Confederate flag from all state buildings! That flag was retired some 150 years ago. The Confederate flag only reinforces racist and white supremacy beliefs (and I am white). Also, we need gun control in this country NOW. The nerve of you to invite gun manufacturers into SC after they were booted out of Connecticut. Haven't we lost enough children and people to guns? Time for South Carolinians to grow up and put away our toys (guns)..... today we buy our food at grocery stores, we have a military to defend us against invaders, and our macho citizens can take up less violent hobbies like bowling. This is no longer the 1700s!

Gov. Haley, please do the right thing and remove that confederate flag once and for all. It would do wonders to start the healing process. We are not residents of your state, but we are pleading with you to do this because this flag represents secession in the name of racism. Plain and simple. To those that argue that it is historical, May we ask then why Germany bans the display of the swastika. Yes, it's historical but represents evil and the Good people of Germany agree. Please, let's declare the confederate flag a symbol of domestic terrorism and treason as it most definitely is and ban it once and for all. Maybe then we can start to heal.

I'm an Indian American, and I have found myself deeply saddened not only by the shootings in Charleston, but by the national response to their act of pure domestic terrorism. I understand that you have defended the display of the Confederate flag on the grounds of the statehouse in Columbia. Today is June 19th, or Juneteenth, the day we celebrate the emancipation of slaves in the Confederate south. Please take down the flag which is a symbol of racist ideology and actions targeting Black communities. The flag diminishes the importance of Juneteenth; as long as it waves, this day is deprived of true meaning - a disingenuous nod towards a just society that we are not committed to in practice or heart. As an Indian American, I stand against racism and inequity. I hope you will join me in the movement to build compassionate solidarity between South Asian and African American communities.

Dear Governor Haley,

I just read on gawker.com that the stars and bars at the State House cannot be lowered to half staff, due to technical issues (the absence of a pulley, to be precise). The other flags were half-staffed in response to this weeks events in Charleston, as I take it. While this technical issue seems like a lot of horse-hockey to me ( i mean, how would you change out a tattered stars and bars unless there is a halyard and therefore a pulley to do so? you guys rent a genie lift to do this?), i have to say, the idea that the flag of Traitors, unlowered while the Federal flag flies at half staff is not only insulting to every black person in the state, and to the victims and their families in Charleston, along with anyone who stands with them in their grief, it is alsoinsulting to most of the country as well. In addition to this, it may even be illegal, as Federal codes clearly state that the Stars and Stripes are to fly higher than any other flag while other flags are flown in concert with it. And please don't even consider the issue of states' rights in this context. One war was fought about that, and the good guys won, and you can still see evidence across the great state of South Carolina in the form of free-standing fireplaces with crumbling chimneys, demolished yet once handsome structures reduced to rubble by cannon fire, and overgrowths of kudzu. Further research indicates that you have said that you have never had a single conversation with a CEO about the Confederate flag. I hope this does not surprise you. CEOs are usually more interested in money than in respect for people, ethics or vexillology. I urge you to force legislation enabling the lowering of the Stars and Bars whenever the Federal flag is also lowered. It's the right thing to do. How much cash will you need to effect this much needed change? You have my email. If I have no response within ten days, expect a visit to your office with a camera crew. Thanking you in advance.--c [REDACTED]

I have been a resident of South Carolina for 2 1/2 years. After taking up residence in Charleston, I was appalled upon learning the the confederate flag was flown at state government locations. I do understand that it is a part of SC's history and should be honored as such in museums. However, what it stands for is racially divisive and serves no purpose in today's current government locations. I equate SC's stand today no different that if Germany flew the Nazi flag over their government locations. Most Germans would be so offended by this as should all South Carolina residents by the same act of flying the confederate flag. I understand that this is not the time to address this travesty during our crisis. However, as a voter, I am so hoping that you will see the need to remove the confederate flags from government locations and be moved to a culteral/historical location in the near future. The time has come and would be such a healing action. I so hope that you will read this personally and consider the right thing to do for our state in 2015.

My husband and I are retirees who decided to make our home in n Myrtle Beach since 2010. We have transplanted from Pennsylvania. We are asking you for the good of the state to please remove the confederate flag from the capital. I know of many northerners who are saying they will not consider vacationing or retiring in this great state uh ntil the confederate flag has been removed. If anything please consider the loss of revenue that will hurt our state. So therefore please remove this hideous flag!

I did not know S.C. still flies the Confederate flag over the state house and I find that appalling. I included this under "ethics" as I believe it is unethical to continue to fly a flag which clearly stands for racism and division. It is beyond time for that flag to be lowered. Honor the 9 who died, victims of hate, by doing this.

I heard your statement about the confederate flag on the news this evening. My father was a native South Carolinian and I have many relatives in your state still so, the fact that you are of Indian descent should make you a little more sensitive to what that flag represents. Even though you listed yourself as white on your voter registration, it is pretty clear that you are not Caucasian and therefore you, your children and your parents could suffer the pains of racism as so many have, still do in a state that has a notorious past and I think present. You should be ashamed to honor that flag - it belongs in a museum of history not flying over a state capital.

Governor,

I am from Spartanburg and retired from the USAF after 24 years. Recommend you propose exchanging the Confederate flag with the POW/MIA flag. The POW/MIA flag is respected by all races of Americans and is also appropriate to honor the dead confederates. Thank you for your service to S.C.!

Very Respectfully,
Doug [REDACTED]

As long as the Confederate flag flies over the SC capital, I will boycott this state. I grew up in the South (NC) and often visited SC. I get the misunderstood Southerner thing and Southern heritage. When parts of my family living in New England made fun of the South, I proudly showed a Confederate flag--- but I grew up and understand much more the symbolism. I grew up in NC during the Civil Rights movement -- I saw my parents and their friends change in their spirit to one that realized more and more the legacy of racism in the South and how important it was to take a stand against it.

As long as that flag flies, the state confirms the warped vision of the man who killed the church going citizens of your state and nation. It is time to grow up and express the beauty and heritage of the South in other ways and symbols which portray and symbolize the true beauty of the South.

Gov. Haley...I challenge you to read the article in the Washington Post by Roberto Ferdman, "What the Confederate flag really means..." Excellent article and I can only say "How true!" Also, when asked about this flag, how about answering the question clearly and not avoiding it. You obviously are more concerned about votes/politics than in answering and doing the right thing. Governor Haley-

It is with deep sadness and anger that I write to you urging you to do what you can to lower the Confederate flag. I have done my research and know that you do not have ultimate choice in this decision, but as governor I am asking that you make your voice known in declaring that it does need to be lowered. Having a murderer open fire taking the lives of nine black men and women in a prayer meeting is beyond infuriating and it deserves to have the utmost respect paid to the situation. I demand that your office do what it can to ensure this flag is lowered immediately.

Dear,
Govener

After the shootings of all of the innocent people in the Church in Charleston it's time the confederate flag be removed. It is a sign of prejudice, it should not be flow over the state capital. In 2015 it should not be on public display anywhere but in museums just as the Holocast has it's own museums. I am a white woman with a white daughter who lives in South Carolina. The confederate flag, is a sign of hate, it's time has gone. Govener, the past must be put in the past and you as a white woman must have the strength to do what is right.
