Description/Significant Features:

The single-story frame Minimal Traditional residence is four bays wide and irregular in its plan. Given its fenestration pattern, it is likely that the house was originally oriented to the west. The building's current facade displays a variety of roof lines. Some early two-over-two windows are retained throughout the house, although most windows and all doors are replacement.

Alterations (include date(s), if known):

- replacement exterior cladding
- replacement windows and doors
- multiple frame additions
