No problem. Not to switch subjects on an e-mail chain, but I left a message for the Blowfish. Keep you posted with updates.

Perfect. No, I will send them on to LG and have a printed copy for him tomorrow just in case.

THANK YOU for all your help. I know I've been bombarding you with stuff this week.

I do. I am still waiting to get a final list of attendees (board members, etc.) but here is the bulk of it. Do I need to forward to anyone else (if so, please do)?

I can't remember if we talked about this or not, but did you say you had talking points for tomorrow?

Tori Beth,

Just a few updates...

- The press release for tomorrow's event has been distributed to local media.

- If you know anyone personally, please feel free to follow-up or contact anyone you have a relationship with.
- I will make follow-ups with the newsrooms today and tomorrow morning before the event.
- I have taken the hide setting off of the “News and Media” category on the LG’s site, so it now displays to the public.
- The press release has been posted under “Press Releases” (I’ve also attached the final version, just in case).
- Here is the direct link to the online version (same as attached, but with a link)... <http://ltgov.sc.gov/media/Documents/Bryant/20170622%20Lex%20Co%20Rec%20and%20Aging%20Commission%20PIP%20Grant%20Announcement.pdf>
