Subject: request for phone interview

Hi Chaney,

Although it's the middle of the night for most people, I thought I'd go ahead and reach out to you via email. We here at WBTW (CBS – Myrtle Beach) are wondering if Gov. Haley could be available for a phone interview about the shooting in Charleston. Specifically, we hope to speak with her during our newscast at 9 a.m. Given the unusual time of our show, we thought it may not be far-fetched for her to be available.

However, if she's available earlier, we have news on our air from 4:30 a.m. through our show that ends at 10 a.m. So we'd be happy to speak with her during any of our news time this morning. That extends to our noon show also.

We simply feel our governor could give some helpful perspective on the scale of this tragedy as people around the state and the nation look in on what happened in Charleston.

Just let us know if we can arrange anything. We appreciate your time.
