The information, as it relates to ProtectMyID Alert, has been approved.

One suggestion is to remove the word "any" from the phrase "any suspicious activity" (the term may be too broad).

Urgent message for S.C. businesses to protect against identity theft

It was recently announced that tax information for as many as 657,000 S.C. businesses was compromised as part of the recent cyber attack at the S.C. Department of Revenue.

The State of South Carolina has arranged through Dun & Bradstreet Credibility Corp for free credit monitoring services for all S.C. businesses for the life of the business.

Starting Friday, Nov. 2 at 8 a.m., businesses can register at www.dandb.com/sc/ or by calling 800.279.9881 to receive the credit monitoring service. After signing up, businesses will be notified of any changes to their accounts.

The Governor's press conference yesterday regarding the breach is available here.

Make sure your business is protected!

Please do not respond to this email, as it will go to an unmonitored mailbox.

Protect yourself against identity theft

In October, the SC Department of Revenue learned that its records were breached in a criminal cyber attack. As a result, anyone who has paid SC taxes since 1998 may have had his or her personal information compromised.

SC individual taxpayers should do the following by Jan. 31, 2013:

- Visit www.ProtectMyID.com/SCDOR (code SCDOR123) or call 1-866-578-5422 (M-F 9am-9am EST; S-S 11am-8pm EST) to enroll for one year of identity theft protection.

SC business owners should do one or both of the following by Jan. 31, 2013:

- Visit www.DandB.com/SC or call 1-800-279-9881 (M-F 8am-8pm EST) to register for lifetime credit alert protection.
- Visit www.SmartBusinessReports.com/SouthCarolina to register for lifetime business credit monitoring.

All services are free of charge. For more information, please contact the SC Department of Consumer Affairs at 1-800-922-1594 or visit www.consumer.sc.gov.

Subject: utilities

Governor Nikki Haley would like to thank the public and private utilities and the twenty electric cooperatives of South Carolina for including a message regarding identity theft protection in their customers' electric and gas bills.

Because of this great undertaking by the utilities of cooperatives of our state, over 3.1 million (3,166,000) customers will be reached. This number does not take into account the spouses and families of residential customers as well as the employees of business-customers.

The State of South Carolina has three privately-owned utilities, one publicly-owned utility, and twenty electric cooperatives. Each utility and cooperative has received the language included below and will decide whether to include the language in whole or in part on the bill or enclose the language as an insert to the bill.

Depending on the individual printing and billing cycle of each utility and cooperative, customers can expect to see the language included as early as next week on their November and/or December bills. The companies have also agreed to include the message in various places that touch their customers, including their websites and Facebook pages.

Cooperatives:

Electric Cooperatives of South Carolina:

- Mike Couick [requested not to include a title]
- 1.6 million customers
- "All twenty of the state's electric cooperatives have agreed to participate under the leadership of Mike Couick."
- Press: Mark Quinn mark.quinn@ecsc.org

Privately-Owned Utilities:

South Carolina Electric & Gas (SCE&G), a SCANA company:

- Keller Kissam, President Retail Operations
- More than 750,000 customers
- Press: Eric Boomhower eboomhower@scana.com

Duke Energy:

- Clark Gillespy, Duke Energy state president – South Carolina
- More than 700,000 customers
- Press: Ryan Mosier ryan.mosier@duke-energy.com

Lockhart Power Company

- Bryan Stone

Publicly-Owned Utilities:

Santee Cooper:

- Lonnie Carter, President and Chief Executive Officer
- Approximately 116,000 customers
- Press: Laura Varn laura.varn@santeecooper.com

The message to be included, in part or in whole, by each utility:

Pat,

Great speaking with you this morning. As we discussed, the Governor would love to join the call on Thursday around 10:15 a.m. to thank AARP and encourage enrollment for identity theft protection. Below are the staff members who can help facilitate this for you, all of whom are copied here.

Rob Godfrey, Press Secretary – To help issue a media advisory.
803.429.5086

Leigh LeMoine, Scheduler – To help coordinate call-in information for the Governor.
803.315.2951

Katherine Veldran, Legislative Liaison – To serve as a representative from our office for the duration of the call.
803.767.7583

In addition, Becky Frost with Experien will be reaching out to you shortly regarding their participation on the call. If you have any questions, please let us know, and thank you again for your willingness to get the message out to your membership.

Thank you,

Rebecca

Video: Gov. Nikki Haley, SLED Chief Mark Keel update reporters on DOR information security breach

COLUMBIA, S.C. – Governor Nikki Haley, South Carolina Law Enforcement Division Chief Mark Keel and South Carolina DOR Director Jim Etter today provided reporters with an update on the DOR information security breach and discussed consumer safety solutions available to South Carolinians during a Statehouse press conference. S.C. DOR announced on October 26, 2012 that approximately 3.6 million Social Security numbers and 387,000 credit and debit card numbers had been exposed in a cyber attack.

Video of today's Statehouse press conference, including remarks by the governor and Chief Keel as well as a media availability with reporters, is available here: <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ni9jQS3Nb80>

As of Monday morning, the Experian call center set up to assist South Carolina taxpayers had received approximately 455,000 calls and 154,000 signups. Gov. Haley and Chief Keel reiterated that anyone who has filed a South Carolina tax return since 1998 should take the following steps:

- Call 1-866-578-5422 where you will enroll in a consumer protection service. (The call center is open 9:00 AM – 9:00 PM EST on Monday through Friday and 11:00 AM – 8:00 PM EST on Saturday and Sunday.)
- For anyone who wishes to bypass the telephone option, there is an online service available at <http://www.protectmyid.com/scdor>. Enter the code SCDOR123 when prompted. Every South Carolina taxpayer who takes the time to sign up will be afforded the protection, and that protection is retroactive. South Carolina taxpayers have until the end of January, 2013 to sign up. South Carolina taxpayers who sign up for protection will be notified about how to sign up for a "Family Secure Plan" if they claim minors as dependents.

Experian's ProtectMyID™ Alert is designed to detect, protect and resolve potential identity theft, and includes daily monitoring of all three credit bureaus. The alerts and daily monitoring services are provided for one year, and consumers will continue to have access to fraud resolution agents and services beyond the first year. Complimentary 12-month ProtectMyID memberships available to South Carolina taxpayers affected by the DOR information security breach include:

- Credit Report: A free copy of your Experian credit report.
- Daily 3 Bureau Credit Monitoring: Alerts you of suspicious activity including new inquiries, newly opened accounts, delinquencies, or medical collections found on your Experian, Equifax® and TransUnion® credit reports.
- Identity Theft Resolution: If you have been a victim of identity theft, you will be assigned a dedicated,

U.S.-based Experian Identity Theft Resolution Agent who will walk you through the fraud resolution process, from start to finish.

- ExtendCARE: Full access to the same personalized assistance from a highly-trained Fraud Resolution Agent even after your initial ProtectMyID membership expires.
- $1 Million Identity Theft Insurance: As a ProtectMyID member, you are immediately covered by a $1 Million insurance policy that can help you cover certain costs including, lost wages, private investigator fees, and unauthorized electronic fund transfers.

Hey man, know you have million things going on right now. Just wanted to give you guys a heads up so you could let the credit people know about this issue with their website.

When you use Google Chrome browser it takes you to the page where you have to sign up to pay. I know people will get hacked getting that page after being told its free. I got that message.

When you use Internet Explorer it takes you to the correct page and allows you to use the Code you are providing.

Video: Gov. Nikki Haley, SLED Chief Mark Keel update taxpayers, media on DOR information security breach

COLUMBIA, S.C. – Governor Nikki Haley, South Carolina Law Enforcement Division Chief Mark Keel and South Carolina Department of Revenue (DOR) Director Jim Etter today provided reporters with an update on the S.C. DOR information security breach and discussed consumer safety solutions available to South Carolinians during a Statehouse press conference. S.C. DOR announced on October 26, 2012 that approximately 3.6 million Social Security numbers and 387,000 credit and debit card numbers had been exposed in a cyber attack.

Video of today's Statehouse press conference, including remarks by the governor and Chief Keel as well as a media availability, is available here: <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ni9jQS3Nb80>

As of Monday morning, the Experian call center set up to assist South Carolina taxpayers had received approximately 455,000 calls and approximately 154,000 signups. Gov. Haley and Chief Keel reiterated that anyone who has filed a South Carolina tax return since 1998 should take the following steps:

- Call 1-866-578-5422 where you will enroll in a consumer protection service. (The call center is open 9:00 AM – 9:00 PM EST on Monday through Friday and 11:00 AM – 8:00 PM EST on Saturday and Sunday.)
- For any South Carolina taxpayer residing in South Carolina who wishes to bypass the telephone option, there currently is an online service available at <http://www.protectmyid.com/scdor>. Enter the code SCDOR123 when prompted. Every South Carolina taxpayer who takes the time to sign up will be afforded the protection, and that protection is retroactive. South Carolina taxpayers have until the end of January, 2013 to sign up. South Carolina taxpayers who sign up for protection will be notified about how to sign up for a "Family Secure Plan” if they claim minors as dependents.

Experian’s ProtectMyID™ Alert is designed to detect, protect and resolve potential identity theft, and includes daily monitoring of all three credit bureaus. The alerts and daily monitoring services are provided for one year, and consumers will continue to have access to fraud resolution agents and services beyond the first year. Complimentary 12-month ProtectMyID memberships available to South Carolina taxpayers affected by the DOR information security breach include:

- Credit Report: A free copy of your Experian credit report.
- Daily 3 Bureau Credit Monitoring: Alerts you of suspicious activity including new inquiries, newly opened accounts, delinquencies, or medical collections found on your Experian, Equifax® and TransUnion® credit reports.
- Identity Theft Resolution: If you have been a victim of identity theft, you will be assigned a dedicated, U.S.-based Experian Identity Theft Resolution Agent who will walk you through the fraud resolution process, from start to finish.
- ExtendCARE: Full access to the same personalized assistance from a highly-trained Fraud Resolution Agent even after your initial ProtectMyID membership expires.
- $1 Million Identity Theft Insurance: As a ProtectMyID member, you are immediately covered by a $1 Million insurance policy that can help you cover certain costs including, lost wages, private investigator fees, and unauthorized electronic fund transfers.

Gents,

She is definitely ready for this, per her last email. Can I send?

1. Will you be providing your service to everyone in the state who calls and requests it, or just to those who call and you have further reason to believe their identity has been compromised? I'm not sure whether everyone can get it, or whether it just would be for certain people who may be at a higher risk (and whether you have a way of knowing that)? Some woman e-mailed me and said she tried to sign up and was being told she'd have to pay for it. ALL SC TAXPAYERS FROM 1998 TO PRESENT WILL BE COVERED BY THIS SERVICE AT NO COST TO THEM.
2. Right now, everyone has to call to get the same code to register for the service online (or you can wait to talk to a customer representative). I'm told on Monday, you'll have unique identifiers for everyone who calls, right? Does that mean you'll have to wait to talk to someone, or will you be able to input your social security number (or some other sort of identifier) to get a code to go online? SOUTH CAROLINA OFFICIALS ARE MONITORING THE SITUATION AND WILL, AFTER CONSULTING WITH EXPERIAN, DECIDE WHEN TO GO BACK TO THE INDIVIDUAL IDENTIFIERS. OUR FOCUS RIGHT NOW IS TO PROTECT EACH AFFECTED TAXPAYER. SOUTH CAROLINA WILL KEEP MONITORING THE CALL CENTER AND UNTIL THE STATE IS SURE ALL AFFECTED TAXPAYERS ARE ABLE TO REGISTER WITHOUT UNREASONABLE DELAY WE WILL MAINTAIN THE CURRENT PROCESS.
3. Some readers e-mailed us and said they tried to register with the code, but the Web site was apparently down. How long has your Web site been unable to process SC residents' requests for protection since this was announced on Friday? WE ARE NOT AWARE THAT THE WEB SITE HAS NEVER BEEN DOWN AND HAS HAD NO ISSUES ACCEPTING THE CODES, TO THIS POINT.
4. What else is there we'd like to say? AT THIS TIME, WE ARE STILL EXPERIENCING ELEVATED CALL VOLUMES, BUT THE CODE OPTION HAS BEEN WELL RECEIVED. WE ENCOURAGE INDIVIDUALS TO USE THE CODE, UNLESS THEY HAVE NO INTERNET ACCESS OR SOME OTHER REASON PREVENTS THEM FROM USING THE CODE. IN THAT CASE, THEY SHOULD CALL IN AND TALK TO A LIVE REPRESENTATIVE.

Jeff and Rob,

In an effort to help citizen awareness and provide assistance to information we'd like to place a notice on SC.gov with your approval. Our recommendation is to place it on the homepage and if you'd like we can place it on each of the secondary pages as well. I've attached screen shots for your review. We will link to <http://www.sctax.org/security.htm>

Please let me know if this is ok or if you have any suggested changes.

Rob,

Do you all have any information on where taxpayers should turn to report instances on their bank accounts they suspect could be a result of the hack? I've interviewed two potential victims who have had 1,000s of dollars stolen who have tried reporting to SCDOR, but both tell me the agency is not logging incidents to pass along to law enforcement as part of the investigation. A third person tells me SCDOR has told them the same.

Is SLED keeping track? Is the governor's office keeping track? Is there anyone working with these potential victims on the government's end logging these instances to make part of this investigation?

Experian sends Family Secure notifications to taxpayers with minor dependents Gov. Nikki Haley continues working with law enforcement and business leaders to protect S.C. taxpayers

COLUMBIA, S.C. – Governor Nikki Haley today announced that taxpayers affected by the South Carolina Department of Revenue information security breach who claim minors as dependents have begun receiving notification from Experian by email or letter with instructions about how to sign up for Experian's Family Secure identity monitoring service free of charge for one year.

"We continue to work with law enforcement, legislators and great corporate citizens like Experian to ensure that South Carolina taxpayers have the very best protection available," said Gov. Haley. "If you claim minors as dependents, you should absolutely take the time to sign them up for identity and credit monitoring through Experian's Family Secure."

Experian began notifying individuals by email or letter yesterday, Thursday, November 29. Notifications will be staggered over the next few weeks so South Carolina taxpayers should not be concerned if they do not receive a notice right away. Once notified, individuals may register coverage for himself/herself and any number of minors (five minors can be enrolled via the website; for more than five minors, the adult must call Experian). Family Secure enrollment ends May 31, 2013. To enroll a minor dependent with "Family Secure," an individual must already be enrolled in Experian's ProtectMyID and have the minor dependent's Social Security number, name and date of birth, and must be the minor's legal parent or guardian.

Family Secure monitors children's personal information for the existence of a credit file and sends alerts if suspicious activity or signs of identity theft are detected. For minors who have a credit history, Experian will regularly monitor the minor's credit file to see if any credit, loan, or similar account is opened in the minor's name. For minors who do not have a credit history, Experian will regularly monitor the minor's personal information (name, address, date of birth and Social Security number) to see if any credit file is created in the minor's name.

As of Friday morning, the Experian call center set up to assist South Carolina taxpayers had received approximately 845,000 calls and approximately 900,000 signups for Experian's ProtectMyID. Access to unlimited fraud resolution beyond the one year enrollment period is included in Experian's ProtectMyID membership and available to any taxpayer affected by DOR's information security breach. Taxpayers who sign up for protection will also be notified – by email or letter – about how to sign up for the Family Secure plan if they claim minors as dependents.

Dun & Bradstreet Credibility Corp offers South Carolina businesses that have filed a tax return since 1998 a CreditAlert product that will alert customers to changes taking place in their business credit file. Even something as simple as a change to a business address or a company officer change would set off an alert to the business owner. The cost will be waived for business filing tax returns since 1998. Business owners can visit <http://www.dandb.com/sc/> or they can call customer service toll free at this dedicated phone number 1-800-279-9881.

Experian is offering those impacted South Carolina businesses Business Credit AdvantageSM - a self-monitoring service that allows access to a company's business credit report and score.

South Carolina businesses can sign up for Business Credit Advantage at <http://www.smartbusinessreports.com/SouthCarolina>.

Gov. Haley reiterated that anyone who has filed a South Carolina tax return since 1998 should take the following steps:

- Call Experian at 1-866-578-5422 to enroll in a consumer protection service. (The call center is open 9:00 AM – 9:00 PM EST on Monday through Friday and 11:00 AM – 8:00 PM EST on Saturday and Sunday.)
- For any South Carolina taxpayer who wishes to bypass the telephone option, there currently is an online service available at <http://www.protectmyid.com/scdor>. Enter the code SCDOR123 when prompted. South Carolina taxpayers have until the end of January, 2013 to sign up.

Free one-year Family Secure plan includes:

- Regular monthly monitoring of Experian information for every child on the account
- Protection against material damages that may occur to a child due to misuse of their credit file
- If no credit file exists, Experian monitors children's personal information for the creation of one
- Alerts the parent/guardian to important activity such as credit inquiries, public records, delinquencies, negative information (e.g., liens, civil judgments, bankruptcies, and new accounts) to a minor's credit history
- Activity is detected based on the minor's SSN, date of birth, name or address or any combination of that data, utilizing Experian's proprietary credit file matching logic
- Once activity is detected, the parent/guardian can work with a dedicated Experian Fraud Resolution representative on the best course of action
- Monthly "No Hit" Alerts if no credit activity is detected in a month
- Comprehensive fraud resolution service – dedicated professionals to manage your case and help members recover from identify theft quickly and efficiently
- Daily monitoring of primary parent's credit report and early warning alerts if credit report changes are detected
- Unlimited Experian credit reports and scores
- Experian credit score illustrator to show monthly score tending and analysis
- $2,000,000 product guarantee

Hey Rob,
I am writing a story looking at whether the information stolen during the hack has actually been used by criminals. SLED says it has received about 50 calls, but mostly from folks looking for learn how to protect themselves. DOR says the same.
Both are referring possible fraud victims to local law enforcement if a crime is believed to have occurred. That sounds helpful, but is anyone actually tracking crimes resulting from the hack? If so, who is monitoring that and tabulating the stats? What have you heard about numbers and incidents?
Thanks.

Rob,

Two questions:

1. Are you referring to the Mandiant contract as the independent audit the governor asked for?
2. When has the governor discussed "cyber security" before Oct. 26?

Quote from Rob Godfrey, Haley spokesman, on the news conference:

"While Sen. Vince Sheheen once again played the role of political opportunist this morning, the governor was in Cheraw announcing Schaeffler's $40 million investment in our state and 190 more jobs for South Carolinians. Throughout Sen. Sheheen's long career as a political insider, he has never uttered the word 'cyber-security' until this hacking incident occurred. We're used to Sen. Sheheen's lame attempts at political grandstanding. As Sen. Sheheen grandstands Gov. Haley will continue her diligent daily efforts to make sure every South Carolinian is protected and to prevent further attacks. Any time Sen. Sheheen and Columbia Democrats have a constructive idea for how to help, she's ready to listen. Gov. Haley looks forward to working with the General Assembly on ways to further protect and compensate affected taxpayers. As for an independent audit, there has already been one, at the governor's request, but she has no objection to a second one."

Rob,

We would like to request a statement or interview with Mrs. Haley concerning the press conference called by Rep. James Smith and Senator Vincent Sheheen this morning. They raised the following points:

- *Asking the Legislative Audit Council for an independent audit of the SCDOR and its systems, policies, how the hack happened and who's responsible

- *offering 5 years of tax credits for taxpayers to pay for credit monitoring services

- *Both legislators raised concerns about their perception that Mrs. Haley and Mr. Etter aren't telling the complete truth about this hack. Their evidence, they say, is that every time leaders are pressed for answers they get new information or contradictory information.

A response to this would be appreciated.

Subject: A couple quick questions

Hey, Rob.

1. The governor said Mandiant determined that the breach only impacted folks who filed their tax returns electronically with the state. "Anyone who filed by paper does not have to worry about the breach," she said. Does this mean the paper tax returns aren't entered into the computer system, or are they entered into a separate (part of the) computer system?

2. The governor had mentioned something about bringing in a consulting company to go and look over the inspector general. Any update on that? And what's the ETA on the existing state contracts with regard to the hack response (Mandiant, Nelson Mullins, etc.)?

And, as usual, please let me/us know when the video from today is up on Youtube.

Subject: AARP Thursday Teletown call

All -

I wanted to provide an update for tomorrow's teletown hall phone call that AARP will push out to 80k 65+ AARP SC members on the the identity breach.

I have provided Leigh the call in number for the Governor (1-877-229-8523 PIN 34902) Leigh indicated that she was available after a 10 am meeting and we were able to push the launch of the call back to 10:15. Since I am the host of the call I will not begin the official welcome and purpose until the Governor has dialed into the call. The plan, from what I understand is that Governor Haley will speak for 3-5 minutes encouraging signups and thanking folks for joining the call etc. At the appropriate time, I will do a quick line "today we would like to welcome South Carolina Governor Nikki Haley who has joined our call this morning, Gov. Haley, good morning. Gov. Haley begins When she concludes all she needs to do is pitch it back to me (Patrick Cobb) as the host and she is done.

There is a line available for folks to listen to the call which I have given to Becky Frost at Experian and Sherry Blizzard at DOR - that number is 1-877-229-8493 PIN 14902. Please feel free to listen in if you can

I have not done a media advisory and would defer that to Rob. Media could listen in via the same number 1-877-229-8493 PIN 14902. There is really not a visual for TV except a team sitting and talking into a phone

Rebecca mentioned that Katherine may join us in our office as well which is perfectly fine. Several folks from DOR are coming over to watch and listen as well. We are located at 1201 Main Street Suite 1280

I also have the latest FAQ's from DOR which they posted yesterday for our screeners. We will also do a touch tone poll question during the call to help gauge the number of people who have signed up already. It's not scientific but a good quick view of the landscape. Our objective is provide the information and help folks understand the importance of how and why to sign up for the Experian service.

Lastly, I am at home today with a 12 yo who know has the flu hoping we caught it earlier enough, but non the less timing is everything. If you have questions, concerns, please don't hesitate to reach out to me cell is 803-261=-0304 home is 803-407-5327
