Rebecca,

Thank you so much! I am so excited about all of the potential with my new position and literally can't wait to get started.

Likewise, It was great to see you and your team yesterday - it warms my heart to know how passionate you are about our state and the fact you work tirelessly to support our great Governor in all she aims to accomplish! So, thank you for all you do!

I hope you have a wonderful Christmas holiday season and shall we all be blessed with a happy and successful new year. Please keep in touch and let me know how I can help.

Hal,

I'm just testing your new email address to let you know that it was great seeing you yesterday and to congratulate you – again – on your new role! I hope your meetings went well this morning. Safe travels home.

Merry Christmas to you and your family,

Becca
