Katherine ,just to bring you up to date-my associate Andy Peake has passed the Genl Contractors license tests so he will do business as a VP of Peter Weisman Architect Construction Manage license #153- . We will drive to the LLR SC offices next Tuesday at 10am to present the paperwork in person and hopefully we can also meet with the head of the group there Mr. Roger Lowe.

This whole thing is a crazy waste of time but I need to get this done in order to pull the bldg permit for my next 50,000 sq ft bldg for which I have ordered the steel from another SC company Nucor Steel.

I think it is only fair that our previous licensing rights be restored under a "grandfather" amendment to the legislation-

Please run the this by Governor Nikki- thanks,Peter
