Subject: ICYMI: Gov. Nikki Haley talks 2012, NLRB on FOX and Friends

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

Governor Nikki Haley discussed a variety of issues on FOX and Friends this morning. I wanted to pass along video of the governor's appearance as well as a few of the highlights: <http://video.foxnews.com/v/1114441709001/haley-counters-democrats-tea-party-strategy>

Gov. Haley on Democrat strategy to label Republican presidential candidates as Tea Party candidates: "[T]hat's a great thing. If you believe in a balanced budget, if you believe in smaller government, if you believe government should be in the hands of the people and you respect the Constitution and live by it, then, automatically, [Democrats] want to call you Tea Party. What [Democrats] don't understand is that these are Republicans, Democrats and Independents across this country who are saying we've lost our credit rating, we have a rouge agency that is tearing up American companies like Boeing, you have a president who is not leading...and if that's all the Democrats have, that's another positive sign [for Republicans]."

Gov. Haley on the hard questions voters should ask Republican presidential candidates: "How would they deal with the NLRB and what they've done to Boeing? What is their tax policy in detail and how are we going to improve the economy? What are we going to do on energy independence? And how are we going to deal with foreign relations? We don't want broad answers; we want specifics...I think this is going to be the best policy debate we've ever seen in a presidential election."

Gov. Haley on the National Labor Relations Board complaint against the Boeing Company: "Boeing is continuing their fight...they are committed to seeing this through so that it doesn't happen to any other company. I am a governor who is committed to making sure this doesn't happen to any other governor. You've got a rogue agency that doesn't listen to Congress when they are subpoenaed. They're not doing anything to even imply they want to help jobs. For a president who claims he is all about jobs, he has done nothing but try to kill American jobs. What the NLRB has does is absolutely un-American...It's something the American people are really going to push back on."
